INSURANCE PEOPLE MAY SUE COMPANY

Thought That Suit May Be Instituted Against Southern Public Utilities Company.

The fact that the Hartford Fire Insurance Company has secured subrogation from Mrs. Eva Edwards is taken by many to indicate that this company will file suit against the Southern Public Utilities Company, doing business in Anderson, for the sum of the fire loss on the home of Mrs. Eva Edwards.

There is a precedent in this county for such action in this county, the Charleston and Western Carolina railway having been forced to repay a fire loss on the Peoples Oil and Fertilizer Company when that plant was damaged by fire.

NEW YORK HAS BEEN TIED UP

Local Man Says That He Was Unable to Get Out of the Great Metropolis.

B. B. Gossett, well known in Anderson, returned from New York city last night after having been in the north for the past week.

Trains on the main line of some of the trunk railways were originally marked up 12 and 14 hours late on Monday and then later annulled entirely.

SMALL BLAZE IN MATTRESS MILL

Fire Was Extinguished and but Little Damage Was the Result.

The Anderson fire department was called out yesterday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock by an alarm from the Anderson Mattress and Spring company.

Better be safe than sorry—Willie P. Sloan, Insurance.

CHAUTAQUA IS TO OPEN SOON

First Event Will Be Staged Anderson on April 27 and Continues a Week.

Secretary Whitley of the Chamber of Commerce was yesterday notified that Anderson's chautauqua would open on April 27 and continue for one week.

WHITE BOY IS SHOT BY NEGRO YOUTH

Paul Manley Loses His Left Eye as a Result of Shot From 15-Year-Old Negro.

A mammoth tent will be provided for the week and the attractions will take place there. The tent is fire and rain proof and every arrangement will be made to have it as comfortable as possible.

MRS. SAYRE LOSES PURSE Embarrassed While Shopping but the Clerk Offers the Whole Store.

ODD CHARACTER PASSED AWAY

Lewis M. Jones Succumbed Yesterday Morning at 3 O'clock to Stroke of Paralysis.

Lewis M. Jones, well known around Anderson and quite a character around the city, died yesterday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of H. S. Williamson at 344 North Fant street.

FLOOR WRECKED IN STORE YESTERDAY

Too Much Flour on Floor of McFall's Grocery Caused Cave-In Yesterday Morning.

That Peter McDowell, colored, was not instantly killed yesterday morning is hardly less than miraculous.

When asked yesterday morning the cause of the give-away, those connected with the McFall grocery said that the only possible explanation is that the work of placing the beams for the flooring and the metal supporters had been incorrectly done.

NEW OFFICERS FOR LOCAL ENTERPRISE

Dr. J. B. Townsend Was Selected President of the H. C. Townsend Lumber Mill.

At a reorganization meeting of the H. C. Townsend cotton mill held yesterday afternoon Dr. J. B. Townsend was elected as president of the institution and J. M. Evans was selected as the vice president.

A DRUNKARD SAVED

States His Case in a Most Peculiar Manner.

Atlanta, March 6.—There was a hog in my heart and as long as it was there, I had to carry it with me.

That was Mel Trotter's version of the theological doctrine of sin eradication, as expressed before 5,000 people at the Atlanta Bible Conference this morning.

Trotter, who is the greatest rescue mission worker in the world, said that he didn't care a rap whether what he had said fitted in with church dogma or not.

Secretary Whitley of the Chamber of Commerce was yesterday notified that Anderson's chautauqua would open on April 27 and continue for one week.

WHITE BOY IS SHOT BY NEGRO YOUTH

Paul Manley Loses His Left Eye as a Result of Shot From 15-Year-Old Negro.

Paul Manley, a boy 9 years of age, was brought to Anderson yesterday for the purpose of an operation, his left eye being removed at the Anderson county hospital.

Paul Manley and another little white boy, together with a negro who is said to be 15 years of age, were playing near the Manley home in Williamson Tuesday when the three boys got into an argument.

WOMAN DROVE OUT ILLITERACY

Prof. W. K. Tate, state supervisor of education, addressed the students of the University of South Carolina on Tuesday morning at the annual convention of the National Educational Association held at Richmond.

Rowan county is a mountain county and when the census was taken there previous to the last census, 27 per cent of illiteracy was discovered.

STANDARD OF HONOR CRITICIZED

New Haven, Conn., March 6.—The present standard of honor among participants in college sports was sharply criticized by Dean James Angell of the University of Chicago.

One Important Point

In selecting a piano is ease of action. This is sometimes overlooked. The action of the

Ivers & Pond PIANO

has been constructed with special reference to this point. The Ivers & Pond action is elastic, responsive, and so easy that the most delicate child can play it without tiring the fingers.
