A TIDAL WAVE KILLS OVER 1000 CITIES ON SEA OF AZOV SUFFER A HEAVY MORTALITY

OTHERS BY FLOOD Catastrophe Followed a Terrible Hurricane On Coast of Southern Russia

(By Associated Press)
Ekaterinodar, Russia, March 14.—More than one thousand persons perished today in the inundations of the towns of Stanitz and Achtyrskaja by a tidal wave from the sea of Azov. The wave struck the town during a violent hurricane which swept over the town of Kuban.

More than one hundred and fifty persons also were drowned in floods in Yaznkaja. A dam collapsed in the town of Temryk on the Taman Peninsula 98 miles northwest of this city, flooding the greater part of the city and drowning many persons.

Temryk is a historic town with a population of 16,000 people. It once was the seat of the Turkish fortress Adasa.

The towns of Stanitz, Achtyrskaja and Yaznkaja do not appear on any available maps and probably small places bordering on the sea of Azov. The province of Kuban, in which the stricken towns are located, is in Southern Russia and has coast lines on both black sea and the Sea of Azov. The population of the province aggregates about 2,000,000 persons, of whom two-fifths are Cossacks. The country is extremely fertile and grain is cultivated extensively. Cattle breeding also is conducted on a large scale.

WRESTLING WITH THE ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM

Senate Sub-Committee Struggling With Tentative Bill to Prohibit Interlocking Directorates Deliberately Formed to Foster Monopoly

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 14.—The senate sub-committee on inter-state commerce, appointed by secretary Newlands to consider the anti-trust legislative program, struggled for hours today with the proposal of the tentative bill to prohibit interlocking directorates. Some regulation of this kind, supplementary to the Sherman law, it was agreed was needed, but diverging opinions as to how rigid it should be developed among committee members.

The tentative bill on interlocking directorates, drafted after the delivery of President Wilson's message on trust legislation, is too extreme, in the opinion of some committee members, who fear it would prohibit men in business from engaging in dual legitimate undertakings advantageous to the general welfare. The danger, they believe is undertaking to control this phase of business and of overreaching the mark.

The committee propose, it was declared and in that it has the support of the President, to draft a bill which would be certain not to injure busi-

CARANZA BIDS FOR RECOGNITION

It is a note of a Mexican's Mexican disregard of international usage.

Tolls Exemption Means $20,000,000 Loss in Ten Years

New York, March 14.—The exemption of coastwise shipping through the canal from the payment of tolls would mean a loss for the first ten years of $20,000,000, said Prof. Emory R. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania tonight at a dinner of the University men of New York. The loss, he said, would have to be borne by the taxpayers of the United States.

Prof. Johnson was appointed United States commissioner of Panama Canal tolls by former President Taft and served as such in 1911-12.

ness, but to aid it, by making illegal, only such forms of interlocking directorates as are deliberately formed to foster monopoly or destroy competition.

The sub-committee practically has completed its tentative draft of the interstate trade commission bill, and temporarily laid aside same, pending the completion of the house measure with the same object. An effort may be made to harmonize these two bills before the senate committee makes public its draft. The house bill probably will be made public next week.

NO TOLL REQUIRED OF U. S. VESSELS

Statements to Contrary Labeled
"Monstrous Perversions of the Truth"

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 14.—Statements that government vessels would be compelled to pay tolls if the Sims bill repealing the exemption clause of the Panama canal act were enacted, were characterized today as "monstrous perversions of the truth and the most foolish folly enunciated since fools were discovered," by Representative Adams, chairman of the house interstate commerce committee.

"Such vessels are not mentioned in the contract for the Sims bill nor ought to be," the statement continues. "They are owned by the same owner who owns the canal and passes its vessels by right of ownership according to treaty. Owing both warships and canal, the government could pay tolls to nobody but itself, which would be concentrated nonsense."

The minority reports of the toll repeal plan were presented from the committee today.

To Assume Further
Activities

(By Associated Press)
Budapest, March 13.—Count Serge Witte, formerly premier of Russia, in an interview published here today is quoted as saying:

"Only the first act of the Balkan affairs has been played. It is now the intermission which may last for years or perhaps only for months. CENTRAL FOLKS IN UGLY AFFAIR

THREE YOUNG MEN SOUGHT
BY THE POLICE
THERE
HAVE RUN AWAY

Carried Young Girls From Their Homes For Immoral Purposes?

People from Central spending yesterday in Anderson told of a very ugly affair which has stirred that town from end to end and which may result in three young men being handled roughly. According to the story told the fathers of the two Central girls are making every effort to find the young men and if they are located the result will probably be serious. The girls, mere children, had been missing the afternoon session of school, but it was not until recently that they ran away from home.

News of the alleged atrocious affair reached the fathers of the girls in the case a fortnight ago but they kept quiet until this time in an effort to find the young men. However, it is said that they have now secured the assistance of the police, although no names will be given out and it is very difficult to obtain any exact account of the incident leading up to the report made to the police of Central.

Concerning the incident Farm & Factory of Seneca had the following to say yesterday:

"It is alleged that three young men, all about twenty years of age, left Central one Saturday night, recently with two young girls, neither of whom is more than 14 year old, going in the direction of Piedmont. It seems that the plans for the night were arranged before they left Central. In Piedmont the party was joined by a fourth man, who, it is understood had been spoken to by one of the young girls for some time."

From Piedmont they went to Piedmont where they were found by their parents several days later. "After the Saturday night trip the young men returned to their respective homes in Central. Search was started at once for the missing girls. Realizing that they would be found within a short time and that they would be connected with the awful affair, the men left the town and have not been heard from since."

"After the girls returned to their homes it is said that they told the story of the runaway from the minute they left, giving the names of the men in the party and the one who planned the trip."

TWO MULES KILLED BY LOCAL STREET CAR

BOYS HAD NARROW ESCAPE
AT TIME

ONE WAS INJURED

Mules Instantly Killed and Wagon
Was Wrecked When Struck
By Car

Two boys had a narrow escape and their team was practically demolished when they were struck by a Brogan mill street car of the G. S. & A. lines yesterday afternoon at 4:10 o'clock.

James Holbrook, fourteen years of age was driving the team and his brother was also in the wagon with him at the time. They were in Glenn street, coming into the city, while the car was outbound. It is said that the boy driving the team had started to pull across the track when the motor-man rang the bell and the boy then halted momentarily, the car continuing at a moderate speed. Evidently the boy changed his mind and acted to cross the track, getting the mules squarely in front of the approaching car. The motor-man endeavored to reverse but before he could do so he had struck the team.

An extraordinary feature of the case is the fact that neither of the mules were badly bruised or cut or mangled and it is therefore presumed that their backs were broken, since none of the lacerations were sufficient to kill either of them.

James Holbrook was painfully injured, his legs being badly lacerated, while his brother escaped without injury. The two who were with the team were assisted by the motor-man and conductor of the car and medical assistance was at once rendered to the boys. Dr. C. F. Ross dressed the boys' injuries and last night it was said that the patient was doing nicely.

H. K. THAW PLEADS FOR JUSTICE AND FREEDOM

Urges Those Who Believe He Has Received Sufficient Punishment To Write to Their Representatives in N. Y. Assembly
Asking Support of Golden Resolution

(By Associate Press)
Concord, N. H., March 14.—Harry K. Thaw has addressed to the people of the state of New York, in whose name is being conducted the contest to return the play of Stanford White to the Mattewan Asylum for the criminal insane, an appeal to end the case against him. A statement of the case was telegraphed today by Thaw to newspapers and press associations calling attention to resolutions which have been introduced into the New York assembly by John B. Golden, demanding that the prosecution be terminated.

Thaw, reviewing his two trials, sets forth that of the twenty six men confined with him in the Tombs in 1906 charged with homicide, 23 are free today and other men have escaped from Mattewan without being pursued. The statement concludes as follows: "I do not ask for sympathy, but only justice, which should be the inherent right of every man. For the deed committed, I ask no benevolence. It was done in a moment when sorrow wrecked my home, and when I was forced to realize that the happiness of a lifetime, which after marriage should have been mine, was taken from me. The deed was committed; my family, those near and dear to me, publicly exposed the closest scrutiny; my mother plunged into grief; and myself into a living death, and tortures of which I do not wish to re-tale.

"I am now a man, my youth passed; my resources impaired. My parents' charities have been extensive; I myself have assisted many in need. The future holds for me an opportunity to bring some peace and happiness to my aged mother, who in these eight years has known none and who has spent her declining years in untold sorrow.

"My adversary now seeks to place me in Mattewan—a living hell—there to spend the rest of my life, never again to take my place in my mother's home in her remaining years and in respectful confidence, I now appeal to the citizens of New York in the power of their sovereignty to stop the prosecution, and therefore ask that all people who believe that I have suffered punishment commensurate with my deed write to their representatives in their district at Albany before Wednesday to support and vote for these resolutions."

"GUS" BROYLES DIED SUDDENLY

Young Man Succumbed to Heart
Failure Last Night

Many Anderson people were shocked last night when they learned that A. T. Broyles, better known as "Gus" to every one in the city, had died from heart failure at the city hall. Death occurred about 8:30 o'clock.

The young man was well known in the city having conducted a general collection business in Anderson. He was that he had been known to many of his friends and acquaintances and it was said that he was generous to a fault, always ready to lend his last penny to any one in need.

He was 31 years of age and unmarried. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Broyles, one sister and two brothers. The family is one of the oldest and best in the county.

The first intimation that he was in distress was received by those around him when they heard him gasping for breath and lying at once went to his assistance, unloading his clothing and trying to locate the trouble. A message was dispatched to Dr. Frank Ashmore, asking him to come at once, but before his arrival, Mr. Broyles was dead. It is understood that he never spoke after he was seized by the attack.

The body was removed to the home and it is presumed that the funeral services will take place some time today, although no definite arrangements in regard to this had been announced last night.

During the Past
Three Years

Details of the affair were very meagre last night. The cause of the trouble was not ascertained. It is said that a pistol was used, the bullet taking effect in the woman's abdomen and that probably she would die.

BAUGH ALSO A VILLA VICTIM?

DECLARED TO HAVE BEEN EXECUTED BY REBEL
GENERAL

WANTS PRESIDENCY

Carranza Lives in Constant Fear of Associate General, the Former Bandit

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 14.—That Gustav Baugh of New Iberia, La., was executed by Pancho Villa at Juarez, was today declared before the house foreign affairs committee by El Prego Baca, of Albuquerque, N. M. Baca testified that such was in the same cell with a cousin of his, J. Baca of New Mexico, and a third man, Baugh and the other man were taken out and executed, according to the cousin's story, which Baca related. The cousin was released. Villa had imprisoned him because he didn't like the appearance of his hat.

Aspires to Presidency

Chihuahua, Mex., March 14.—"Villa, the one time bandit will be next president of Mexico. This is his ambition, and despite all reports to the contrary, it will remain his ambition until he either dies or is president." That declaration was made today by a friend so close to General Villa as to give authority to the assertion. It was prompted by reports that the coming to Chihuahua of General Carranza recognized as the civil head of the revolution, was to bring about conditions more satisfactory to foreign governments and to place in the seat of authority better advisers than General Villa appears to have in handling complications growing out of the killing of Wm. S. Benton, an English subject.

Carranza is now on his way overland from Mexico City to Chihuahua. His main building has been prepared in the official residence in which he is to perfect the details of government. But it was stated emphatically that the coming of Carranza was not to lessen in any way the power now wielded by Villa, who for months has been a dictator.

It has been unofficially stated that Carranza lives in fear of Villa, so much so that he would not sleep in the same room with him.

Early Attack Expected

El Paso, Tex., March 14.—Coupled with the arrival here today of General Felipe Angeles, Carranza's Secretary of War were persistent rumors that General Villa would leave for Chihuahua Monday night and that an early attack on Torreon might be expected. Angeles is one of the most expert artillerymen in Mexico and was especially requested by General Villa to forsake his political and administrative duties to command the big-gun arm of the service in the impending attack on Torreon.

Those familiar with Villa's methods say he will not begin the actual attack on Torreon until every detail of preparation has been inspected personally and until he has thoroughly surveyed the positions of his troops upon the ground over which they must fight.

Governor Colquhoun's Demands are Futile

(By Associated Press)
Laredo, Texas, March 14.—Two demands from Governor Colquhoun, submitted by Adjutant General Hutchings of the Texas National Guard to General Alvarez, commander of the Federal garrison at Nuevo Laredo, for the return of horses alleged to have been stolen from Clemente Vergara and for the delivery of Anastasio Rodriguez, alleged slayer of Vergara, were refused by the Mexican commander, according to reports here tonight.

In refusing to grant the demands, General Alvarez said that he could not possibly consider them in an official capacity as the matter should be taken up through the proper diplomatic channels.

"Therefore, I must refuse your demand," the note read, "and suggest the state of Texas, if it had no competent adviser, employ some person who will advise you that the demand for the return of cattle must go through diplomatic channels."

Agricultural Appropriation Bill

Washington, March 14.—The agricultural appropriation bill carrying $18,000,000 passed the house late today without substantial amendment. It now goes to the senate.
