MAGISTRATE CREWS EXPLAINS.

Board of County Commissioners Reports Irregularly.

Laurens, March 21.—In the annual report of the board of county commissioners, submitted to the court and the grand jury at the spring term of court for Laurens county, just held, it is noted that the books of Magistrate W. T. Crews of Laurens township, have not been presented for examination as provided by law...

Attached to the general order prepared by the solicitor at the close of the court showing the record of cases continued, is Judge Bowman's special order dealing with the report as to Magistrate Crews, as follows:

That Magistrate W. T. Crews be and is hereby required to show cause on or before the first day of the next term of this court why he should not be required to submit his criminal docket to the county board of commissioners for examination and pay over to the county treasurer all fines collected by him...

Magistrate Crews was appointed a little over two years ago to fill out the unexpired term of the late John A. Hudgens. Having been nominated for the place in the primary election in 1912, he was appointed to succeed himself for a two year term.

NEAL'S CREEK

Among those who attended the surprise party at Mrs. Geer's home last Friday night were Misses Erskine, Inez Greer, Ouda and Allie Major, Lillie Mae Greer, Messrs. Tarmar, McCoy, Jim Smith, John Major, W. S. Greer, Clifton Erskine, Robert Greer, Walter Smith, Luther Greer, D. Erskine and Joe Major.

A number of girls and boys from Long Branch joined the above party and many interesting games were played. A rope was drawn across the door to surprise all who came in late. It proved to be successful in catching the Long Branch crowd.

Henry Geer joined the Long Branch crowd in the game called "Swallow the Club," and you need not doubt him being a full member. All report a fine time, but of course you couldn't expect it to be any other way with such a jolly crowd.

Mr. Henry Geer and Miss Mattie Pepper were out driving Sunday afternoon.

Mr. C. O. Bowie of Belton was out visiting Mr. W. S. Greer Sunday.

DR. BURT'S POSITION.

He Favors Helping the Negro and the Helpless Everywhere.

Editor of The Intelligencer. My attention has just been called to an article appearing in your paper of 16th inst from Victor I. Cheshire in which certain remarks made by myself in a sermon delivered recently in the First Baptist Church of Columbia.

I must think Mr. Cheshire knows I do not advocate social equality of those of every self respecting Christian minister of the south. The congregation of southern people to whom I spoke took no exceptions to my remarks. My ideas and convictions as to the relations of the white and colored races were fixed to the Christian home of my childhood, and have since undergone no change.

I am now, and always have been the advocate of justice and kindness, and the friend of the weak and helpless everywhere. If in this I must be understood and misrepresented for a time, I accept it most cheerfully.

I have no desire for newspaper notoriety and will not be drawn into a newspaper controversy. With this brief statement I shall ask no further space in your paper.

Hypocritical Religion Curses of Easy. New York, March 21.—A Salvation Army group, which marched down 14th street during the heavy snow caused more than usual interest to the pedestrians, when it was noticed that the leader wore no shoes or socks, and was clad in tattered black clothes of an ancient pattern, and a faded slouch hat. The leader was "Brewer" Brown, formerly a British prize fighter, who has been associated with the Canadian branch of the Salvation Army for some time past. He was converted by the Salvationists, and has stayed with them ever since. Brown, whose father was a prize fighter and a drunkard, said that as a boy he had wanted to go to church, but the ushers had always led him out by the ear because of his torn and shabby clothes. "There are thousands in New York today," he said, "who are cursed by the same kind of hypocritical religion which made them lead me out."

Can't Leave There. Spencer, March 21.—At a recent meeting of the committee of management of the Y. M. C. A. it was ordered that after April 1st all boys under 14 years of age will be forbidden staying at the Y. M. C. A. building after 9 o'clock at night. This is in keeping with the local curfew law and will be rigidly enforced.

Smoking with the state anti-cigarette law, all boys under 17 years of age will be forbidden to smoke cigarettes in the building.

Financial and Commercial

New York Cotton

New York, March 21.—The local old crop situation again appeared to be the dominating factor in the cotton market during today's trading, and prices made new high ground for the movement with March selling up to 13.09 or 16 points higher. The close was a shade off from the best upward realising, but steady and from 4 to 13 points above Friday's final figure.

Forecasts for unsettled weather in the south, with low temperatures in the western belt may have contributed somewhat to the upward movement as suggesting a further delay in new crop preparations. Final estimates place the Indian crop at 5,310,000 bales of 400 pounds, or an increase of 13 per cent over last year on an increasing 11.7 per cent greater.

Spot cotton steady; middling uplands 13.50; gulf, 13.85. No sales. Cotton futures closed steady. March, opened 12.97; closed 13.06. May opened, 12.22; closed 12.27. October, opened, 11.44; closed, 11.47.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, March 21.—Cotton displayed strength on the week end session in the face of poor cables and considerable profit taking by buyers of the earlier part of the week. The extremely cold weather in the west, and the possibilities of a blizzard over Sunday were partly responsible for the upward movement of prices while the continued large export movement created nervousness among shorts.

The March option was lifted to the 13c level by shorts covering. This was a net gain of 15 points. Other trading months made gains of four to seven points. The close was at a net rise of 2 to 16 points. Spot cotton quiet, unchanged. Middling 13 3/16. Sales on the spot, 355; to arrive, 1,565. Cotton futures closed: March 12.06; May 12.73; July 12.63; August 12.16; October 11.59; December 11.58.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, March 21.—Cottonseed oil was firm on covering due to reports of an improved cash demand and on new outside buying through commission houses, while refiners were believed to be calling the distant months. Closing prices were generally unchanged to three points net higher.

Cotton Goods

New York, March 21.—Prices for fall men's wear continue to harden. Cotton goods were steadier for the day. Some specialties in dress goods are calling weak. Underwear and hosiery are quiet.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, March 21.—The strength which developed yesterday in the stock market today was sustained only temporarily. The market forged ahead in the early dealings; then the Weekly Cotton.

New Orleans, March 21.—This was a week of rather narrow fluctuations in the cotton market, at the same time the undertone was firm and prices slowly advanced to new levels for the present upward movement. The net results of the week's business was an advance of 4 to 33 points. The high prices were made on Saturday and the low prices on Tuesday. At the highest the trading months were 6 to 33 points over last week's close; at the lowest they were 7 to 18 points under. The range was 20 points to 40 points.

COTTON FUTURES

Washington, March 21.—Senator E. D. Smith yesterday introduced a substitute for his cotton futures bill. The essential difference is that the original bill denies the use of the telephone and telegraph to the banned contracts in futures, while the substitute framed after consultation with the best legal authorities, contents itself with denying the use of the mails. It was feared that the first bill might be unconstitutional.

THE TEACHERS' CLUB

About three years ago in response to a call from R. A. Abrams, who was at the time, county superintendent of schools, about fifty teachers met in the court house.

After hearing Prof. Tate and Mr. Abrams talk, it was decided to organize a teachers' club. The organization was perfected and a constitution was adopted. The club selected G. S. Goodrich as president, and G. W. Chambers as secretary.

During the first year and the succeeding years, these two men, more than any others, have done much for the club. To them should go the credit of keeping the club together during the hard beginning, and their interest never flagged so long as it was needed.

During the second year Mr. Chambers was president, and Mr. T. L. Hanna was secretary. This year Mr. Hanna is president, and Miss Vera Pruitt is secretary.

The attendance has gradually increased from about 30 the first few months until now we have usually about one hundred teachers present. The meetings are held the second Saturday in each month, and the officers have always attempted to limit the session to one hour.

Seeing the importance of having all the teachers of the county in attendance, the county board has endeavored to arrange for a light lunch after each meeting.

Dr. Vance has very kindly allowed the use of the basement of his church and the kitchen adjoining.

The teachers appreciate this very much and are always glad to welcome Dr. Vance to their meetings. The teachers' club hopes to see Anderson county's school system all that it should be, and to accomplish this, it asks the support of every person in the county.
