

BELTON PAGE

DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF BELTON AND VICINITY, AND AS A MEDIUM FOR COMMUNICATING NEWS AND ADVERTISING.

INTERESTING BUDGET OF NEWS AND NOTES FROM BUSY BELTON

CLAUDE A. GRAVES, Correspondent.

Belton, April 1.—Spencer Taylor, the night operator of the Southern Bell Telephone company here, is confined to his room.

The many friends of chief of police, J. E. Martin will learn with pleasure that he is able to be out again after a week's illness.

Mrs. W. K. Stringer of Belton, left this week for quite a lengthy visit to relatives in her former home, Newnan, Ga.

Mrs. I. M. Still and daughter, Francis and little Jessie Saunders Cox are visiting the family of Mrs. L. W. Cox.

The civic league will meet Monday afternoon at the Library room in the Stringer building at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. L. M. Ford and children have returned to their home in Elberton, Ga., and Mrs. Heard leaves Saturday for Washington, D. C., where she goes to visit her sisters, Mrs. James H. Patterson; Mrs. Alice B. Latimer will go to Elberton to keep Mrs. Heard's children, while she is away.

The many friends of W. C. Hearin will regret to learn that she is sick at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Greer.

E. W. Ashley, Sr., of near Hones Path, was among those who had business in Belton yesterday.

C. D. Hodge, of Easley, has recently rented the store the L. P. Williamson market and will run a 5, 10 and 25c store there. Mr. Hodge has a larger store of a similar nature in Easley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vaughn of Belton, left this morning for Wallaha, where they will spend two days, guests of their son, Edward Vaughn.

Madames A. L. Fani, R. L. Parker and J. S. Adams, all of Belton, are in Hones Path attending the Presbytery.

Belton, April 2.—M. E. Babb and C. Chapman, two prominent farmers of the Toney Creek section, were among those in town today.

E. H. Ackers, a Confederate soldier of a prominent family who resides in the Toney Creek section, is recovering rapidly from an attack of the grippe.

Mrs. W. A. Martin, who resides near Williamson, left Sunday, while walking near her home and broke one of her legs. Medical attention was given Mrs. Martin immediately and she is now doing nicely, though she is 68 years old.

Death of a Little One

Belton, April 2.—The three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Major of Belton died Wednesday, after three days of illness of pneumonia. "P. E." the little fellow, was a bright and handsome boy and had many friends. The interment will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Belton at the New Creek cemetery in the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends. Rev. Mr. Martin will conduct the funeral services. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved parents in their sad hour.

Split Log Drag

Used With Effect

Belton, April 2.—Jas. A. Farmer, a prominent farmer of the Toney Creek section was among those in town yesterday. Mr. Cox stated that he wanted the genial and efficient county superintendent to be in the county seat in order that the picture can be placed on the public school building of the Toney Creek section.

We judge from Mr. Cox's conversation that the modern piece of machinery has never been seen in this section of the county. He went on to state that if the citizens along Toney Creek road would use the split log drag as he is doing, there would be no need of Supervisor King bringing this hand-made machine to this section of the county.

The split log drag is doing very deft work on the piece of road being worked by Mr. Cox. He stated that he is certain about the picture of the road machine though, Mr. Cox says either will do, as he is so much in love with the split log drag, so easily pulled by one man.

Major Mitchell suggests to Mr. Cox that he stop at the "Little Inn" while in Belton and see the new road which he is building on the bridge of his roads before using the split log drag.

The Band Concert

Was Grand Success

Belton, April 2.—While the Belton Civic League was successful in giving an up-to-date performance at the Pavilion Theatre Wednesday night, they were somewhat disappointed not to have a larger house. The result was a very fine house.

GROWING CHILDREN

They Should Be Protected Against Internal Unhealthiness as Well as External Contamination.

The delicate organs of the maturing child are more susceptible to the influence of disease and infection than are the more seasoned organs of grown-ups. Malaria takes an early and strong hold on the child's liver and causes headaches, coated tongue, indigestion, cramps and many other dangerous conditions.

These are the signal posts of warning nature provides that your child may be relieved of impending sickness.

The proven remedy, CARSWELL'S LIVER AID which is purely VEGETABLE liquid compound should be in your medicine chest ready to administer at the first sign of a disordered liver.

Fifty cents purchases a large bottle at Pierson's Pharmacy, Belton, S. C. under the absolute guarantee that price will be returned without quibble if you want it.

Vonita, Ga., and Fair Play are visiting their father Dr. H. S. Heller who is critically ill.

TOWNVILLE NEWS

Mar. 31.—Last Wednesday evening at Beverdam, home of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Earle, they entertained at an elaborate dinner for a committee of some of the leading Sunday School workers of this section. Among some were, Revs. W. S. Myers, W. E. Hawkins and T. S. Hollingsworth and the laymen D. C. King, E. C. Ashill and J. W. Walter Wickson. The plan was to inaugurate a house to house canvass of every white citizen within a radius of 5 miles of Townville, this first Sunday in April at 4 P. M. at the Methodist church the first preliminary, and Sunday at the Baptist church an all day rally at which time it is expected to have some of the most prominent Sunday School speakers in this section of the Inter-denominational Sunday Schools of the State.

That evening was very pleasant as well as profitable one to all of the visiting friends.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Myers spent a few days recently at Sandy Springs. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ashill visited friends and relatives in Laurens last week.

Miss Lucie Burkett of Anderson is visiting her friend Miss Marjorie Gask. Mrs. Patterson who has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. L. Taylor at Laurens returned to her home in Laurens.

Messrs. R. A. Price and E. C. Ashill visited Spartanburg this week, at which time Mr. Price purchased a handsome automobile.

Mr. Granberry Dickson of Denison Texas is visiting relatives.

Quite a number from here attended Field Day in Anderson.

Messames W. E. Myers, R. A. Price, Key Jones and others attended the exercises of Field day last Friday.

Drs. Mood and John Heller of Laurens are in town.

ICE CREAM

Commencing today ICE CREAM will be served at our fountain every day throughout the season. Orders taken for Cream.

short notice at $1.00 Per Gal

DONALD & WILSON CO.

BELTON, S. C.

BEANS! BEANS! BEANS!

We have the best varieties of bunch Beans, as follows:

Red Valentine, Black Valentine, Yellow Six Weeks, Black Wax, Redcocks 1890 to 2, Burpees and Giant String Beans, Green Beans and anything in the seed line that you may want.

Remember, we will give away $10.00 to the man who orders the largest quantity grown from our seed. Come in for your wants in the first line.

Red Valentine, Black Valentine, Yellow Six Weeks, Black Wax, Redcocks 1890 to 2, Burpees and Giant String Beans, Green Beans and anything in the seed line that you may want.

Remember, we will give away $10.00 to the man who orders the largest quantity grown from our seed. Come in for your wants in the first line.

Red Valentine, Black Valentine, Yellow Six Weeks, Black Wax, Redcocks 1890 to 2, Burpees and Giant String Beans, Green Beans and anything in the seed line that you may want.

Remember, we will give away $10.00 to the man who orders the largest quantity grown from our seed. Come in for your wants in the first line.

Red Valentine, Black Valentine, Yellow Six Weeks, Black Wax, Redcocks 1890 to 2, Burpees and Giant String Beans, Green Beans and anything in the seed line that you may want.

Remember, we will give away $10.00 to the man who orders the largest quantity grown from our seed. Come in for your wants in the first line.

LIND RETURNS FROM MEXICO

PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF PRESIDENT ON VACATION

DIPLOMACY FAILED

No Prospect of Herita Yielding the Rights of Government

That Means

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 2.—John Lind, former governor of Minnesota and for eight months the personal representative in Mexico of the president of the United States will sail from Vera Cruz tomorrow en route to Washington aboard the presidential yacht, Mayflower.

The announcement of Mr. Lind's prospective visit was made by President Wilson with the explanation that his envoy had requested a vacation from his labors in a tropical climate, and as soon as that had been obtained he would return to Mexico.

The president declared that Mr. Lind's departure for the United States should not be construed as in the nature of a resignation, but as a temporary change of policy by the Washington government toward either faction in Mexico. He said that no negotiations of any character were now pending between the Huerta government and the United States, and that the recent conference between Senator Forthwell F. Rogers, America's minister of foreign affairs and Mr. Lind had developed nothing tangible or important.

Mr. Lind's trip to Washington, nevertheless, evoked speculation in official circles about the diplomatic situation in Mexico, and there were indications from what Secretary Bryan told reporters that while the envoy's request for a vacation had been granted, no definite plan had been made for his return, and that the administration was disposed to leave the question open for the present. It is believed that both the president and Secretary Bryan just now see no reason for Mr. Lind not going back to continue his observations of conditions in Mexico, but are not planning them as to the future. Mr. Lind's movements hitherto being dependent entirely upon day to day developments.

The president told inquirers that there was no special reason why Mr. Lind should come to Washington, as his reports had been comprehensive and accurate.

Except for the five day trip to Pass Christian, Miss., last January, aboard the yacht cruiser, Chester, when he had no labor, Mr. Lind has been constantly observing Mexican affairs during periods alternately critical and tedious.

When he visited the president at Pass Christian, Mr. Lind spoke of the ill effects upon his health, but declined the president's invitation to return to the United States preferring to continue his work of observation. This request for a vacation at this time was regarded as significant in official circles. It was taken to mean that Mr. Lind was not at all satisfied with the situation in Mexico City through diplomatic persuasion and that affairs would not be bettered by the Huerta forces marching south. General Huerta's message to Congress yesterday, in which he expressed a determination to remain in office until after his country is at least strengthened.

But the latter here that Mr. Lind saw no chance to affect the situation in Mexico by his continued presence and consequently sought the vacation.

While no important business was pending, upon his own counsel and discretion it is believed, will depend largely whether he will return to Mexico.

Mr. Lind's trip to Washington, nevertheless, evoked speculation in official circles about the diplomatic situation in Mexico, and there were indications from what Secretary Bryan told reporters that while the envoy's request for a vacation had been granted, no definite plan had been made for his return, and that the administration was disposed to leave the question open for the present.

It is believed that both the president and Secretary Bryan just now see no reason for Mr. Lind not going back to continue his observations of conditions in Mexico, but are not planning them as to the future.

Mr. Lind's movements hitherto being dependent entirely upon day to day developments.

The president told inquirers that there was no special reason why Mr. Lind should come to Washington, as his reports had been comprehensive and accurate.

Except for the five day trip to Pass Christian, Miss., last January, aboard the yacht cruiser, Chester, when he had no labor, Mr. Lind has been constantly observing Mexican affairs during periods alternately critical and tedious.

When he visited the president at Pass Christian, Mr. Lind spoke of the ill effects upon his health, but declined the president's invitation to return to the United States preferring to continue his work of observation.

This request for a vacation at this time was regarded as significant in official circles. It was taken to mean that Mr. Lind was not at all satisfied with the situation in Mexico City through diplomatic persuasion and that affairs would not be bettered by the Huerta forces marching south.

General Huerta's message to Congress yesterday, in which he expressed a determination to remain in office until after his country is at least strengthened.

But the latter here that Mr. Lind saw no chance to affect the situation in Mexico by his continued presence and consequently sought the vacation.

While no important business was pending, upon his own counsel and discretion it is believed, will depend largely whether he will return to Mexico.

Birds-Eye View of Great Parade

A great many people looked forward to the first County Field Day for Anderson schools, held a week ago, as an event primarily for the school children and an affair in which the people of the city and county would not be interested. That they were wrong is shown by the crowded streets in the accompanying picture. The Intelligencer photographer snapped the picture of the floats as they were coming around the corner of the Plaza and here will be seen some school creations of which the county officials and the people of Anderson can feel proud.

FACTS ABOUT CLEMSON COLLEGE

ALSO SOME INTERESTING FIGURES PRESENTED BY VYRES.

RIGGS IN A SERIES OF ARTICLES WRITTEN FOR "THE TIGER"

Clemson College, March 21.—Specialist Dr. W. M. Riggs, President of the College, has written a series of interesting articles for The Tiger, the weekly newspaper published by the Clemson students. The first article was on "The College," the second on "The College Finances" and the third, just published, on "Clemson College in 1924," a sort of prophecy of what the next ten years may bring forth.

In his first article, President Riggs has given information about the College's main channels, the current expenses of the College, and the public service work. Of the expenditures for the College, $25,448.35 will go to new buildings, and $148,633.32 for the operation of the institution for the teaching of the 324 students. The public service work will take $100,512.88, as follows: branch experiment station, $11,689; fertilizer inspection and analysis, $44,835.80; extension and demonstration work, $20,500; agricultural education, $15,000; miscellaneous, $2,538.

Experimental Station. The South Carolina experiment station is financially a separate institution, and none of the Federal funds that come to it can be used for the College of the public service expenses. The amount received, $30,000 annually, can be used only for agricultural research work done under the close supervision of the office of experiment stations at Washington, D. C.

Of the funds received from students, $105,081.67 last year, only the part coming from tuition is used by the College. The rest is held in trust for the students and is spent to their benefit for food, clothing, laundry, heat and lights, medical service, etc.

From the President's Pen. Following is, in part, President Riggs' article on "Clemson College in 1924."

As well as to operate a college with an enrollment of 440 the first session was the last that confronted the trustees and officers of this institution at its financial crisis. The year 1924 was a year of financial disaster for the State treasury, the college has gone forward building its plant as fast as money could be spared from operating expenses. For the first five years, the fertilizer tax averaged $100,000; for the second ten years, $125,000.00; and for the past five years, $250,000.00. With this support—how much less than many people have supposed—she is your wife, struggling with you to make the partnership a business success, does not mean that she has lost her appreciation of law.

ely. Hasn't been too long since you remembered her in his way?

HANKS BROS. JEWELERS

Belton, S. C.

The Anderson Intelligencer Job Printing Department. ANDERSON, S. C. BELTON, S. C. Book and Job Printing, Commercial Printing, Bank and Cotton Mill Work, All Kinds of Legal Work, LOOSE LEAF LEDGER WORK, and ALL OTHER RULED FORMS. Orders Taken for Fine Engraving. Give Us Your Next Printing.