New York Cotton

New York, April 8.—The cotton market was less active today and fluctuations were more or less irregular as a result of evening-up for the week end. Prices made new high ground for the movement at the start, and after midday reactions, closed steady at a net decline of 5 points on April, but generally unchanged to 5 points higher.

Unfavorable weather reports, and a bullish construction of the semi-annual report by the international federation of cotton spinners, showing smaller mill stocks of American cotton than last year, and indicating a consumption for 12 months of 15,000,000 bales, checked aggressive offerings on the decline, which carried prices about 5 or 6 points net lower during the middle of the day. Rallies followed on renewed covering and further buying of near month by leading spot house brokers, with July contracts reaching the highest level of the day in the late trading.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 1340; gulf 1365. No sales.

Cotton futures closed very steady.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, La., April 8.—The cotton market was featured by nervous fluctuations today. The清淡化 was to advance on the cold wave, but profit taking from the long side was heavy and held prices down. Realizing was largely due to the nearness of the Easter holidays. Price changes were narrow, no option showing a gain or loss of more than five points. The close was one down to five up, net.

Trade from the western predicted replanting of cotton in the eastern counties of Texas as the result of low temperatures now prevailing. Rains in the central portions of the belt also were considered to be detrimental to the new crop.

Spot cotton quiet, unchanged. Mid-day 13 1/2-14 sales on the spot 950; to arrive 1160.

Cotton futures closing: May 1228; July 1282; Aug. 1269; October 1176; Dec. 1176.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, April 8.—Cotton spot 1000; 2000, 1300; 3000, 1400; middling 725; tow, middling 695.

Sales 10,000; importation and export 500.

Receipts 1,000. Futures, scarcely steady.

Cotton Goods

New York, April 8.—The primary cotton goods market was quiet, but steady today. Worsted yarns of foreign manufacture were in even request. Buyers of domestic worsted yarns are marking time. Worsted yarns prices are very firm.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, April 8.—Cotton seed oil today was active, final prices showing a net advance of 2 to 7 cents on covering of shorts, buying by refiners as well as some fresh commitments on the long side, gauged by the strength of crude markets.

The market closed firm. Total sales 20,300.

Stocks and Bonds

New York April 8.—Speculative selling of stocks increased today, and the prevailing tendency was downward. Trading was heavier than at the opening of the week.

A violent slump in Canadian Pacific gave the market a setback at the opening. Subsequent gains in freight rates ordered by the Canadian Railway Commission led to large offerings of the stock. It was forced under 200 for the first time since 1911, showing a loss of seven points at the day's low price.

Precious metals, copper, and bearing traders covered stocks, but bolstered by the synthetic receipts.
