The War of Business

Clear Eye, Strong Arm, Good Health, are Secrets of Success. The man with the punch, both mental and physical is the big business success of today. His bodily health is the force behind the business possibilities. The business world has no time to listen to the groan story. Sour stomach, malaria, indigestion, coated tongue and a hundred other bodily ills come from an out-of-order liver.

THE STANDPIPE MAN

For about two weeks, I have been away from town, and have not been able to gather data for any news of special importance for you at this time but I just want to call your attention to one fact. While nosing around in Belton a few days ago, it struck me that a white war would be mighty nice for the town and would improve the looks of things immensely. Now the ladies of the civic league have been taxed to their utmost lately in their zeal for the library and I do not feel like calling on them to help in this move, but they seem to be the ones that have the push and vim that will make such a step go.

Mr. Adger Cobb and little daughter of Ware Shoals spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Smith on River St. Mr. and Mrs. Rose Mitchell, and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cox, Sunday. Mrs. Jessie B. Lewis had as her guests for Sunday Mrs. T. C. Poore, Mrs. Lucy Stringer, Miss Eva Stringer, Miss Leda Poore and Miss Sadie Kirkpatrick. Dr. E. C. Frierson, Mr. Lewis Seal, Mr. Henry Campbell, Miss Helen Woodside and Miss Eliza Neville went to Greenville to hear the Easter music at the First Baptist church there Sunday night. They took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Woodside and returned to Belton after the services were over.

MAJ. JNO. G. RICHARDS' PLATFORM

States His Position On the Question Which He Thinks Are Prevalent in the Race For Governor

To Democracy of South Carolina. In becoming a candidate for governor I do so with the full realization of the responsibility which I assume, and in submitting my platform for your consideration I also cheerfully offer my past record, both public and private. It is impossible, of course, at this stage to give my platform in its entirety, but I desire to state in unequivocal terms what my position is upon some of the more important questions that are of vital interest to the people of this state.

Gunmen Died Without Confessing

Ososning, N. Y., April 13.—The four gunmen convicted of the murder of a chair at Sing Sing prison at the break of dawn this Easter Monday morning, the four who died, Frank Seligman ("Whitey Lewis") made the only statement. Even he did not fully assert his innocence. "Gentlemen," he intoned, as they strapped him in the chair, "I did not shoot at Rosenthal. The man who said I did was perjured. For the sake of justice, gentlemen, I say I did not. The witness Simons—"

Morbid Thousands Try To See the Dead

New York April 13.—The bodies of the four gunmen executed in Sing Sing prison today were brought back to this city. That of "Whitey Lewis" Seligman was given immediate burial in a Long Island cemetery. Emotional thousands followed the undertakers to the Williamsburg bridge, over which the hearse and six carriages passed on the way to the grave. "Where 'Guy the blood' Horowitz lay dead, in the home of a Harlem church member, a crowd of thousands was called to prevent people from entering and viewing the body. The sexton resorted to a ruse to get rid of the crowd. He had a hearse back up to the door and to it an altar cloth was placed and driven away. Many were deceived and left.
