New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, April 15.—The cotton market today was under pressure in the early part of the session, but it steaded later and went to a small advance, closing at the highest of the day, a net rise of 3 to 4 points. Trading was not large in volume at any time.

time.

Better weather conditions were reported and telegrams from Georgia were that recent showers were bringing young cotton up fast. Selling of the new crop news supplied the offerings around the first call but the market was supported by the large spot trading in Liverpool. Also it was apparent that liquidation on the near months had about spent itself.

near months had about spent itself.

The report that cotton was being shipped from Liverpaol to this side to go on May contracts called forth some selling.
