

“WILD BEASTS AT LARGE”

SPECIAL TWO REEL FEATURE

At The PALMETTO THEATRE SATURDAY, APRIL 18th

If you can't forget your troubles while watching this show, they are pretty serious ones—THAT'S SURE. "Some thriller" this picture. You will wonder how it's done—How the subjects manage to escape with their lives! Actual physical danger has been braved in the production of this picture. You see the result in amazement, but you can't imagine the "ticklish" work of the actors in posing for and enacting the scenes of personal peril and adventure. It's enough to quicken the pulse to look at such a picture—See program for other two reels.

High School To Play the H. M. I.
The Anderson High School baseball team will leave today for Greenwood where they will play the Bailey Military Institute on Bailey's campus this afternoon. The team will be accompanied by a number of "rooters" and it is believed that the local boys will have an easy time with the capt team. The Highs are immensely proud of their new uniforms and will have to put up a little better game on that account.

Anderson People To Hit It In Style.
It was announced yesterday by Feaster V. Tribble, secretary of the local post of the T. P. A. that arrangements had been completed with the Blue Ridge railway for furnishing a private Pullman car to take the delegates from Post D. of the T. P. A. to the State

Columbia on May 7 and 8. All told there will be 20 representatives from Anderson to make the trip and the car will pick up other delegations at various points along the line. Great arrangements have been made by Columbia for entertaining the visitors.

Greenville Man Being Threatened.
Greenville people spending yesterday in Anderson told a very interesting story about one of Greenville's traveling men. Thos. G. Rettley, having received a number of blackhand letters in which his life was threatened. Mr. Rettley is well known in Anderson, having been here a number of times and he has many friends in this city. One of the letters he received contained a number of warnings, while the other letter consisted of drawings of skulls and cross bones. Mr. Rettley hardly knows what to make of the matter, according to those people here yesterday. He believes that it is a joke but he has placed the affair in the hands of the Greenville police and Postoffice Inspector Morganroth and he is expecting them to fork it out.

New Schedule Was Adopted.
The new schedule on the Piedmont & Northern lines went into effect yesterday morning and for the most part the traveling public seemed to be pleased. There are several changes in trains and Anderson also gets two additional trains, one more in-going train and one more going out. The most decided change is that of the afternoon. The car formerly leaving this city at 4:55 P. M. has been discontinued and instead there is now a train shortly after 3 o'clock and another a few minutes after 6 o'clock. It is believed that this change will meet with the approval of the public.

New Line For The Cox Store.
The Cox store yesterday added a new line to its business, this being a full supply of typewriters. The Cox company has secured about 30 machines of all makes and they turnish quite a display in this well known store. It will now be possible to purchase at home a machine of almost any standard manufacture and this at a cost as low as any other house. A representative of one of the well known typewriter companies brought the machines to the city and will be here throughout the day, instructing salesmen in the Cox store in the art of selling typewriters.

Wedding Party Here Yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCalla and their wedding party passed through Anderson yesterday afternoon, en route from Gaffney to Lowndesville. Mr. and Mrs. McCalla were married at Gaffney Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. McCalla was formerly Miss Partridge Brown, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown of Gaffney and has been teaching for two last year at Lowndesville. Mr. McCalla is a well known Lowndesville planter. The wedding couple will make their home at Mr. McCalla's country place near Lowndesville.

Farmers Held Up By The Rain.
Numbers of Anderson county farmers were in the city yesterday and most of the merchants reported that the day's business was decidedly improved over that of the last week. The farmers here yesterday came because the ground is too wet for mite recent rains to permit plowing. In most parts of the county this work cannot be resumed until some time next week. All of the farmers here yesterday said that they were getting in good shape and they believe that big crops will be planted.

Will Motor To Clemson Today.
Several automobile parties have formed for this afternoon to make the trip to Clemson college for the baseball game. Clemson is to play the Citadel this afternoon on Clemson's grounds and indications are that the game will be a good one. Clemson has had a winning streak for the entire season, capturing a number of victories. She won from Wofford college Wednesday, captured two games from Erskine college and has a number of other scalps to show for this season. On the other hand the cadets from Charleston have been putting up a splendid game and the exhibition this afternoon should be enjoyable.

Mr. Felton In Laurens Today.
J. B. Felton, superintendent of education for Anderson county, is en route today for Laurens where he will today witness the Laurens County Field Day exercises. Preparations for this event have been under way in Laurens for some weeks and it is said that the school officials of that county hope to surpass anything done by any other county in this section. Mr. Felton will also hold a conference today at Laurens with J. E. Swearingen, State superintendent of education, on questions concerning several Anderson county schools.

May Locate In Anderson.
A. L. Hillman of Gaffney spent yesterday in Anderson, looking over the city with a view to locating here. Mr. Hillman for a number of years was first sergeant of the police force of Gaffney and is a well known business man of that city. He has also been visiting Spartanburg and Greenville but was delighted with Anderson and may decide to combine.

DEATHS

Bride and Groom Returned Yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Simpson, who were married in this city Sunday, returned to Anderson yesterday after a wedding trip of a week. The couple visited Atlanta and several other Southern cities on their honeymoon. They are now located in North Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

W. R. Wallace.
W. R. Wallace, a well known Anderson county farmer, died at his home in the Lebanon section of the county yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. Mr. Wallace sustained a stroke of paralysis about three or four weeks ago, from which he never recovered. He was 48 years of age and was unmarried.

The Deceased Is Survived by four sisters and four brothers, as follows: Mrs. J. G. Williams, Mrs. S. A. Ray, Mrs. W. A. Dalrymple and Mrs. Lee Williams, all of Anderson county, and Miss Wallace of Texas. J. H. Wallace, J. C. Wallace and L. M. Wallace, of this county.

The funeral service took place yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. O. D. Martin.

Mrs. Mary A. Stephens.
Anderson was saddened yesterday afternoon by the news of the death of Mrs. Mary Anderson Stephens, which took place at her home on North Main street yesterday at 12:40 o'clock. Mrs. Stephens was 70 years of age.

She had always taken an active interest in the church work of the community, being a consistent member of St. John's Methodist Church, and her assistance in the undertakings of the church workers will be sorely missed.

Mrs. Stephens is survived by three daughters and one son, as follows: Mrs. Desale McAdams of Greenville; Mrs. Ella Matthews of Atlanta; and Mrs. A. P. Hammond of Anderson, and Will Stephens of this city who resides on Bleckley street. There are four grand-children to survive her: Mrs. Paul Murphy, John W. Davis, D. Fred Stephens and Robert Matthews.

It is understood that the funeral will take place some time this afternoon and the interment will take place at Silver Brook cemetery.

ALBERT N. CARPENTER Librarian of Congress is in the City For a Few Days.
Albert N. Carpenter is in the city for a few days having come down from Washington last night. He came in over the interurban, his first ride on that "mammoth" and said he was delighted to get some news after an absence of almost two years. Mr. Carpenter is looking well, and says he enjoys his work in Washington, that of Librarian of the house of representatives, which gives him an opportunity to study and also to meet the notables from all over the country.

He was pleased to see the improvements going on here, and took a look at the bridge, stand-pipe, court house and other points of interest, and shook hands with a great many of his old friends who were anxious to see him.

Having gone through the rub himself in making a success of a daily paper, Mr. Carpenter expressed his appreciation of The Daily Intelligencer and his best wishes.
