

"The Mystery of the White Car."

2 REEL GOLD SEAL.

FRANCIS FORD

"OUR MUTUAL GIRL"

The Mystery of the White car features Grace Cunard and Francis Ford. The greatest interest of this picture will be the fact that Harry Diver, the Anderson boy, drives the White car. Synopsis of the story is as follows: Where in Kelley, detective, goes into Mexico to save the president. A mysterious white auto carries him into the country. Kelley conceals it with "My Lady Baffles." A dozen times he corners her, only to be outwitted. She escapes in the auto without a driver.

Creditors Are Soon To Meet.

Notice has been given by G. H. Geiger, referee in bankruptcy, that the first meeting of creditors of the Fouché Drug Co. will be held in Anderson on May 6. This firm was duly adjudicated bankrupt on April 20. Trustee will be appointed for the defunct company at the meeting to be held next month and such other matters as demand attention will be considered.

Damage Done To Automobile.

J. E. Clinkscales met with an accident while driving along Main street yesterday. His automobile ran into an interurban car at a street crossing. Little damage was done, this consisting of a few spokes being broken out of a wheel. Mr. Clinkscales thought that the car had stopped for a few minutes and that there would be time for him to pass before it was again put in motion.

Hartwell Lady Comes to Anderson.

Miss Ruby Wilcox of Hartwell, Ga., has arrived in the city to take up the study of nursing. Miss Wilcox has entered the training department of the Anderson county hospital and will remain here until she completes the course. She is a young lady possessing all the requirements of a successful nurse and will doubtless make a fine record.

Joint Meeting Held Next Week.

On Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of the coming week Gen. M. L. Bonham, chairman of the committee, will call a meeting to consider plans and make preparations for the entertaining of the veterans at the reunion here next month. This committee will consist of two delegates from each chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and representatives of Sons of Veterans. At this time it is hoped that all plans can be shaped out so that the actual work of getting ready for the reunion can be put underway. There is little time left now and there is much to do and if the reunion is to be a success it will take the combined efforts of everyone in the city to make it such.

Are in Atlanta.

A number of Anderson music lovers have just returned from the Atlanta season which began yesterday. For several days the music lovers of the city have been departing. Mrs. R. S. Ligon and Gen. C. A. Reed will leave today while a large number went yesterday. Anderson will be well represented at this great event.

Churchman's Club Will Meet Monday.

The April meeting of the Churchman's club of Grace Episcopal church will be unusually interesting on account of the topic to be discussed. It has been announced that the subject for consideration at this meeting will be Charleston's Law and Order. The club will consider the various efforts of this body in every light. The meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. M. L. Bonham on Green.

New Installed In the New Name.

Crayton's drug store has been moved to the new building. With the improvements made on the interior of the building and the consolidation of the stocks of the two stores, this is easily one of the best drug stores in the city now. The interior of the new store has been installed and it presents a much improved appearance.

Anderson Man Attended Conference.

Wade A. Watson of Anderson is attending the National Drainage conference which is now in session in Savannah, Ga. All told there are 64 representatives from South Carolina in attendance at the very important conference and the delegation from this state seems to take a prominent part in the affairs of the meeting. It is said that Hon. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture, will probably be elected president of the congress when the election of officers is taken up this afternoon. At this time Anderson county people are especially interested in drainage matters and therefore they have been following the deliberations of the body with interest.

Fun Assailed His Own Father.

Rolden Bolton, a negro, will be given a hearing before Magistrate Brownwell's court this afternoon on a charge of assault and battery upon the person of his own father, G. F. Bolton. It is alleged that the negro struck his father a severe blow with a club which almost killed him. J. T. Belt, a white man, will be given a hearing before the Magistrate at 10 o'clock this morning on a charge of buying goods under false pretenses. Belt told the proprietor of the store that he would pay for certain purchases out of his time at the mill, when as a matter of fact, he had no time, according to the story told by the prosecution.

LOCAL BOY WON SECOND PLACE

Broyles of Anderson Was a Close Second For College of Charleston At Rock Hill

Dispatches reaching Anderson from Rock Hill last night said that F. E. Broyles of Anderson, representing the College of Charleston, won second place in the State Oratorical Contest, held at Rock Hill last night. R. J. Syfan of Abbeville, representing Wofford college, won first place while H. D. Smith of Yorkville, representing the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, captured the third honor.
