SUICIDE HAD NUMBER OF ANDERSON FRIENDS

GIRL KILLED HERSELF IN ATLANTA, GA.

RELATIVES HERE

Father and Mother of Miss Helene Ebehardt Once Made Their Home In Anderson

Many Anderson people were horrified Sunday when the news was received. Anderson people knew Miss Eberhardt had taken her own life in Atlanta. Anderson people knew Miss Ebhardt and they knew her parents and such a report was hardly credited. However, press dispatches later supplied all the details of how the act was committed.

Miss Eberhardt's mother was a Miss Cater, an Anderson county woman and her father was also an Anderson man. He was born in the building which is now known as the Imperial hotel, just next door to The Intelligencer office. Many of the Cater family in Anderson county now were related to the Eberhardt family, among these being: Miss Helene Cater, Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, Mrs. W. Frank Ashmore and Leland Cater.

The following article from the Atlanta Journal of Saturday tells of how the young lady, melancholy over ill-health finally accomplished the deed:

"Miss Helene Eperhardt, 17 years old drank a solution of carbolic acid Friday evening about 10 o'clock at the Winnie Davis ice cream parlor, 217 Peachtree street, where she had been employed as cashier for about two weeks, and died in an ambulance between there and Grady hopital.

"It was not known until she was on her way to the hospital that Miss Eberhard had taken poison. She was thought to be suffering from nervous collapse. After the ambulance left, C. E. Robertson, manager of the shop, discovered an empty acid bottle behind the cashier's counter, and detected the odor of acid in the glass from which she had taken her last drink. Then he telephoned the hospital, but learned she had arrived there dead.

"Deliberate intent to kill herself is said to have been manifested by her during several hours before she committed the deed.

"Melancholia brought on by continued poor health is believed to have been the cause of the suicide. Mrs. J. B. Eberhardt, her mother, said physicians ordered her daughter to the country, and they spent some time in Hartwell, Ga., coming back to Atlanta about a month ago.

"The immediate cause may have been worry over her brother's presence in the expedition against Vera Cruz, Mexico. George Eberhardt, the brother, is a petty officer of the United States navy assigned to the battleship South Carolina, and has been taking part in the seizure of Vera Cruz. Miss Eberhardt had been reading newspaper extras a little too intently, says her mother.

"Miss Eberhardt was the daughter of the late Dr. J. B. Eberhardt, at one time a prominent physician in Atlanta. For some time past she and her mother had been boarding at 61 East Cain street. Mrs. Eberhardt was informed of her daughter's deed and hurried to the hospital to find her dead.

"In addition to the mother and the brother two sisters survive the deceased young woman. They are Mrs. J. H. Beresford and Miss Willie Eberhardt, of Brooklyn.

"Coroner Donehoo held an inquest at Patterson's chapel Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon in Hartwell.

"According to N. C. McDowell, soda dispenser on night duty at the Winnie Davis fountain, Miss Eberhardt took the poison in a soft drink which he mixed for her. The first he knew of it was when she came out from behind her counter and sat at a table, complaining that she was ill. A moment or two later she writhed with pain and asked that he call help. A physician and the Grady hospital ambulance were summoned. McDowell said that during the evening she had asked and received several soft drinks, and that she inquired of him whether he would come to her funeral if she were to die.

"The same inquiry was reported by Dewell Johnson, soda dispenser on duty earlier in the day. He said Miss Eberhardt, relieving the day cashier during the lunch hour from 1 to 2 o'clock, asked for several soft drinks and he remonstrated with her against the excess. She asked if he would come to her funeral, he said.

"Miss Eberhardt returned to night duty at [illegible] o'clock. Fifteen minutes later she sent a small boy employed as waiter at the fountain to a drug store for a 10 cent bottle of carbolic acid solution. The empty bottle was found in a waste basket behind the cashier's counter after she had been stricken."

DIED SUDDENLY

R. A. Evans of the Jackson Mills Village of Iva.

Iva, April 27.—R. A. Evans of the Jackson Mills village died suddenly Sunday morning. Mr. Evans [illegible] his usual good health apparently [illegible] was conversing with his wife when he suddenly ceased speaking, and was dead before a physician could be secured. He was a son of the late Geo. [illegible] man of honest upright character. He leaves his widow and several small children who have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. He was a member of the Baptist church and was laid to rest in the Iva cemetery Monday services being conducted by his pastor Rev. [illegible] Stone.

START AT ONCE ON COURT HOUSE CHANGE

COMMITTEE APPOINTED FOR THAT PURPOSE

DELEGATION MET

Architect Will At Once Draw Plans for $1,500 Improvement On County Court House

With every member of the Anderson delegation to the General Assembly in attendance, a meeting was held in the office of the county supervisor yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. At this time the delegation took up the question of making some changes and improvements in the court house and authorized a committee to proceed at once with the work. This committee is composed of J. Mack King, supervisor, James N. Pearman, clerk of court and Joe M. H. Ashley, sheriff.

Senator George W. Sullivan, who had been expected for the meeting, was detained by business and could not be present.

The meeting yesterday was called to order and W. W. Scott was elected chairman while Cline Summers was chosen as Secretary. The meeting then proceeded with the business in hand. The chairman read the act, passed by the last General Assembly, in which the delegation was authorized to expend the sum of $1,500 on the proposed improvements and the act says that a committee of three must have the work in charge. Following the selection of this committee the work of the body was completed and an adjournment was had.

The purpose of the proposed improvement is to give the clerk of court more room. He is so cramped in his present quarters that it is impossible for him to keep up with the ever-increasing business and more space for his affairs became a necessity. It is proposed that the supervisor move up stairs into one of the jury rooms while the Sheriff will move into the clerk's present quarters. The clerk of court will then move into the two offices formerly occupied by the officials named.

Mr. Pearman told a reporter for The Intelligencer yesterday that the committee would at once proceed with the work. An architect will be employed to draw the plans for the changes and within the next few days the work will be underway.

PERFECT PLANS FOR THE BANQUET

Arrangements Being Made For Giving the Bankers a Merry Time In Anderson

Practically all plans have now been completed for the serving of the splendid banquet on the occasion of the gathering of bankers of group No. 1, which is to take place in Anderson on May 6. At this time there will be over 100 bankers in Anderson for the day.

The entertainment committee held a meeting yesterday at which time they agreed to secure the services of Andrew King, one of the city's best known cafe men, to serve the banquet would be one of the most complete ever served in Anderson. Maple hall has been secured for the occasion and every comfort of the "frenzied financiers" [illegible] evening.

Many plans have been arranged for entertaining the visitors one of which, the automobile ride [illegible] will prove exceptionally [illegible]

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS THE GREENVILLE TEAM

MANY GAMES COMING UP FOR ANDERSON TEAM

WILL PLAY TODAY

Central High School of Greenville Will Battle With Local Lads This Afternoon

The manager of the Anderson High School baseball team has been very active for the past few days and as a result there are a number of games slated for the next two weeks. The Central High School team of Greenville will come to Anderson this afternoon and at 4 o'clock the fray will begin at Buena Vista park. The Central school comes with a splendid record of wins and the Anderson boys realize that they will have their hands full if they defeat the aggregation.

Anderson fans should remember that it takes money to defray a visiting team's expenses and they are duty bound to turn out and patronize the games better if they expect the local boys to bring any teams here. The last game played here was a failure from a financial standpoint and the athletic association of the high school can hardly manage to withstand many more such experiences.

On Wednesday the Bethelite team of Spartanburg will come to Anderson for a set-to with the home hopes. The Bethelites (whatever that may be) have the reputation of being a fast team. The manager of the local team has received the following list of players for the Wednesday line-up from Spartanburg: Loyless, catcher; Epps, pitcher; Brunson, O., 1st. Base; Earle, R., second base; Earle, J., short stop; Brunson Epps, 3rd. base; Kelly, left field; Howard, center field; Sams, right field; Earl, C. and Brunson, subs. From this line up the Bethelites seem to be a family affair, there being two Epps, two Brunsons and three Earls.

Friday the local team will go to Belton where it will play at the Belton park, the occasion being the O'Neal oratorical contest.

Tentative arrangements have been perfected for a game with Ninety Six High School on Saturday and if this game can be arranged the A. H. S. will go to Greenwood on Monday, playing there a return game with the Bailey Military Institute. The latter team won the first game played from the Anderson team, then lost a game and now will come the rub. The local boys say that they can win again from Bailey. If both these games can be arranged they will be played but if either Ninety Six or Bailey cannot play neither game will be staged.

On May 9 the Furman Fitting school team will come to Anderson for a game; on the 11th, the local boys will take to the road, playing Wofford Fitting school at Spartanburg on that day; on the 12th they will play the Central high school in [illegible] on the 13th, they will play the Furman Fitting school in Greenville.

Efforts are now underway to close contracts for games with Westminster, Honea Path and several other towns, while negotiations have been opened with the Fraser Academy for another game.

Anderson fans should go out this afternoon and help cheer the boys on to victory as well as assist in the [illegible]
