Kellogg-Haines Singing Party as They Appear In Light Opera

LIGHT OPERA by the well known Kellogg-Haines Singing Party will be another most enjoyable event of Chautauqua week. One of the operas which this company presents is "Lovely Galatea," the entire production being given in addition to light selections from other operas.

Where, however, the date of this company comes on Sunday at a Chautauqua they will present selections from the oratorios instead of grand opera or will give a sacred concert.

"THE TANGO LEG."

Atlanta, Its Usual, Comes in on the Philosophic Afterall.

Atlanta, April 27.—Atlanta society women, particularly the matrons who are also mothers as their ages were, are suffering in many instances with [illegible] "the tango leg," which has become as distinguished a badge of having [illegible] as may be.

The tango leg which has manifested ably arrived, according to the [illegible] of [illegible], is not a species of St. Vitus' dance, as might be surmised by those who haven't seen it. It is a kind of muscular rheumatism and muscle fatigue, coupled with stiffness of the knees. It comes from dancing long and violently, becoming overheated and then cooling off suddenly. "Any standing could produce it, in which there is a good deal of bending of the knees," said a physician discussing the symptoms, "but so far as general complaint until the advent of the tango."
