Sunday school which has done so much good in past years is in a flourishing condition. What a poor the money is when compared with character.

Mrs. G. M. Keck has two hundred little Lehigh chicks. No man should embark in the chicken business.

FROM NEPTUN

In the school bond election at Lebanon on the 13th inst., the bond issue was defeated by the small majority of the voters. The school board will continue to give money to help build good schools for the African residents with our own dear children must occupy a separate building there's hardly fit for a human root. The only thing that some men will save when it comes to doing something for the upbuilding of their community is their pocketbook.
