SENTIMENT FOR FRANK

Is Refleved that He Will Now Get Ris
His Liberty.

Atlanta, May 1.—In the confession of Rev. C. B. Ragsdale that the deferders of Leo M. Frank bribed him to swear he heard Conley confess the murder of Mary Phagan. Is believed by many people to be the beginning of the end in this famous case.
At the time when Detective William J. Burns was employed in the Frank case there was decided and manifest reversion of public opinion in At-

An Anderson Man To Dedicate Church.

Rev. J. M. Garrison, pastor of the Associate Exformed Presbyterian Associate Esformed Presbyterian Church of Anderson will leave today for Bessemer City, N. C., where he will dedicate the handsome new A. R. P. church next Sunday. This is one of the prettiest churches in the North Carolina town and it has been erected at considerable cost. Following the formal opening of the church Mr. Garrison will assist in a meeting which is to be conducted there. Rev. R. M. Stevenson is to supply the pulpit of the local church Sunday.

Wider Street

Much Appreciated. Anderson people made a number of ago. favorable comments yesterday on the widening of Granite Row on Court square. They said that the extra space for traffic meant more to the people driving automobiles and bug-gies than the city fathers could appreciate. The merchants doing business in that part of the city were also

He started off at a lively tro, and when the wagon ran up on his heels he hit up a little faster pace. Some of the ground and this noise lent a little more speed to the animals already rapid gait. Every package was thrown from the wagon and the negroes of the city had a big time in collecting the remains of the cakes and biscuit. The wagon was not dimaged when the horse finally came to a stop on University hill and the unimal suffered no injury.
