Those in town last Saturday afternoon had the pleasure of listening to some very fine music furnished by the Belton Concert Band and at the close of the free concert it was heard on all sides that the boys under the leadership of Mr. Taylor, the photographer, had furnished a fine concert, one that will long be remembered.

The morning part of the day was a little cloudy and for this reason we did not have as many people in town as would have been the case otherwise. But as a rule, Saturday is a busy day in Belton and the merchants are always busy on these days, and we hope in the near future to have something else in the way of free attractions for those who come to Belton.

The Pastime Theatre is always open Saturday afternoon as well as on other days. But on Saturday the performance begins earlier in the afternoon than on other days. Many enjoyed the theatre Saturday.

The merchants and other business houses have some fine thing to offer you this week in the line of bargains. We want you to read their ads, as it will be to your advantage and when asking for an article you saw advertised, please mention the fact that you saw the article or articles advertised in The Belton Journal - your paper - a paper that has come to stay among us. One that will at all times take pride in speaking to the outside world of the good things in the city of Belton.

When you come to Belton call at our office. We want to meet you. Drop in and give us a bit of news. We need news while it is news. With your help we can give you an up-to-date and newsy paper and as we grow older and learn more of you we will be able to cover the newspaper field with more news and with better results. When in town call at the Journal office and give us the news of your community.
