Young Lady Students Will Spend Monday in the City at Invitation of Anderson

The secretary of the Anderson chamber of commerce, Mr. Whisley, received a letter yesterday morning from the College for Women at Due West to the effect that 150 of the young lady students of that institution would come to Anderson Monday to spend the day.

Arrangements have been perfected for the students to take lunch at North Anderson and John W. Linder said last night that he would have everything in readiness for them by the time the noon hour arrives.

Arrangements have been made for showing the visitors every possible courtesy while they are here and they will be well cared for.
