Anderson Men Have Won Trip.
By writing as much as $100,000 life insurance during the past year three Anderson men have been honored by the Southeastern Life Insurance Co., securing membership in the $100,000 Club of that company and receiving a free trip to Wrightsville Beach this summer. The trip will be made from Anderson on July 9, and the agents will have a week of pleasure and recreation at the famous seashore. The Anderson delegation is composed of Horace J. McGee, George W. Speer and James L. Farmer and these men are receiving the congratulations of other Anderson insurance men in being able to secure the trip.

Mrs. Bleckley Is Not Improving.
Anderson people and people in all parts of the State will learn with regret that Mrs. S. Bleckley is not improving. For some time Mrs. Bleckley has been very ill but it was hoped that her last visit to Baltimore hospital would make some improvement in her condition. This has not been the case and it is said now that her condition is serious. Fred Maxwell of Winston-Salem, one of her sons-in-law, arrived in the city yesterday to be at her bedside and all her other relatives are in the city. Little hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Automobile Thief Is Enjoying Life.
Information was received in Anderson yesterday from someone in the office that the man wanted here for stealing Mrs. Grayville Bealle's car at Calhoun Falls and also charged with stealing an automobile from John M. Steele of Greenville was just seen going in the direction of Hendersonville, N. C., driving the Greenville car. The man succeeded in getting the Greenville car yesterday, after he had broken down the car he had stolen from Mrs. Bealle on Sunday. He also witnessed the act of buying two gallons of gasoline from a Greenville dealer on credit, when he had never seen the merchant before.

Anderson Jeweler On the Lookout.
Anderson jewelers are keeping a close lookout for a man of Hebrew appearance about 25 years of age, supposed to be named Sam or Harry Gard since they received a circular from the Detective Agency advising that Durand & Co., Jewelers of Newark, N. J., are offering a reward of $10,000 for the man's capture and the return of the jewelry stolen by him. The man employed as a sample carrier in Chicago, Ill., and on April 23, about 5:30 in the afternoon, he stole two sample cases from a salesman for the company in Newark. Almost every imaginable kind of jewelry was contained in the two cases and the missing articles will total a value of many thousands of dollars.

Columbia Elks Are Getting Ready.
A telegram was received in Anderson last night from Brian Bell, exalted ruler of the Columbia lodge, 1190, B. P. O. Elks, in which it was stated that the Columbia lodge of Elks will be well represented when the first roll call is held at the State convention of the order, to convene here on June 17, and the message said that the Columbia branch would remain in Anderson until the last session of the State lodge is concluded. Columbia will introduce an innovation at this meeting of the State Association, and will bring a drum and bugle corps with them and it is also planned by this lodge to have a pair of live Elks from the ocean. The "Hello Bill" from Columbia will be the life of the meeting to be held here.

Mr. McKinney is Visiting Here.
Owens McKinney, who has been making his home in Cincinnati, O., for some time, is spending a few days in the city with his brother, Carlisle McKinney and other relatives. Mr. McKinney says that Anderson looks like a fine place to live.

Medical Society Met Yesterday.
The regular monthly meeting of the Anderson County Medical Society took place in the room of the Anderson chamber of commerce yesterday. Following the business discussion the following papers were read:

HAPPENINGS AT STARR

Two School Entertainment This Week.
Miss Rowie Wans Medal.
Starr, May 20.—The recital given by Miss Annie Halford's music pupils in the school auditorium Tuesday evening was a splendid success. The medal offered by Miss Halford for excellence in music was won by Miss Carrie Bowie and presented by Rev. J. L. Singleton.

Mrs. Gus Andrews and children of Anderson are visiting Mrs. B. J. Pearson this week.

Rev. J. L. Singleton is at home again, and conducted a ten days revival at Ava. Great good was accomplished.

Miss Betty Earle of Anderson was stopped here last Sunday.

Miss Bryan, after having nursed a patient at Starr the past week, has returned to Anderson.

On last Friday afternoon a number of patrons and friends of the school here were present at an old fashioned "spelling bee."

Webster's blue speller was used among the pupils from the fifth to the eleventh grades and they reflected much credit on their teachers and themselves.

Miss Eva Herron was the heroine, standing after all the others had taken their seats.

The Timrod Literary society of Starr High School will give an entertainment in the school auditorium Friday evening the 22nd in the form of a declamation contest for a gold medal. This will be the closing of the school. Prof. Abrams with his body of co-workers has taught a most successful term.

A St. Louis man's affairs declares it's all the fault of his wife, who once forced him to escort her home when she was lonesome.

Express Companies Upheld.
Jefferson City, Mo., May 20.—The fight of express companies to refuse C. O. D. shipments of liquor to dry points in Texas was sustained by the Missouri supreme court today. The case was the decision of Abram Rosenberg, of Kansas City, Mo., and who sought to collect from the Wells Fargo and Company's express and from the Pacific Express Company, the value of the liquor packages that they had refused to deliver.

Illinois Central to Improve.
Springfield, Ill., May 20.—The Illinois public utilities commission today handed down an order authorizing the Illinois Central Railroad to issue $15,000,000 bonds and also permission to sell lines south of the Ohio river. Of the bond issue $10,000,000 is on lines south of the Ohio for extending and $5,000,000 is for improvements.

They Are All Gone BUT—WAIT

The special sale on those swell white baby colonials made them hustle to their respective destinations. Well, they were coming good ones and everybody likes them.

You didn't get a pair? Sorry, but we keep telling you what good looking shoes we sell and how reasonable they are compared with some others.

In about ten days the sale will be more and you may have a pair for the same price—$2.45—but don't wait till the last minute. Just go to the phone today and call us to let us know you want a pair when they come in.
