

PALMETTO THEATRE TODAY'S PROGRAM

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S DUTY Kalem.

Two Reel Drama.

The young District Attorney successfully prosecutes the poss gambler.

WHILE WIFIE IS AWAY Selig.

and

DOE YAK, THE POULTRYMAN—Split Reel Comedy.

FOURTH REEL TO BE SELECTED.

Coming Friday, 6th Installment of "THE PERILS OF PAULINE."

4 BIG REELS EVERY DAY---10c.

THE MAN THAT PUT THE "MOVE" IN MOVIES.

GATE CITY NEWS

Atlanta, June 3.—When Feal Banks, a negro, was shot to death last night for stealing a five-cent "hot dog" sandwich another murder was added to the long list of tragedies which have given the gruesome name of "Dead Home" to a negro dance hall in the outskirts of Atlanta.

The sandwich man who fired the fatal shot, escaped in the turmoil before the county police arrived on the scene.

It was a typical Georgia negro night gathering, with "hot supper" features, dancing and banjo playing.

When Mrs. A. E. Cole, who was the forty-ninth candidate for divorce in a list of 67 unhappy spouses, found that tales of ordinary bad treatment did not constitute bona fide "cruelty" in the eyes of the law, she cut loose with the following specific description of the particular form of cruelty for which she was suing her husband.

"He kicked me out of bed, threw me from place to place around the house, drew a pistol on me, threatened to kill me, and said he had changed his mind and would hold me in all instead."

As soon as the gasping jury got its breath, she got her verdict.

Mrs. Nellie Barfield, another of the 67, got a verdict on the ground that her husband came home drunk at 2 a. m. and made her get up and cook him breakfast at that hour.

The small-town constables "put one over" on the city cops last night when they arrested on a joy-riding charge two Atlanta policemen in a police commissioner's automobile, with two of the police commissioner's pretty daughters.

They were arrested at Smyrna, on the charge of violating the speed laws. The two officers are being made the target for much sly wit today at the hands of their fellow blue-coats.

The whole board of Fulton county commissioners is now formally on record as favoring a searching investigation into the charges of graft, favoritism, maladministration and incompetency which have been lodged against those who have in charge the direction of the county's affairs.

Some of the commissioners believe there is a "nigger in the woodpile" and want to see him forced out into the light, while others believe that there is no graft or maladministration, but that since the charges have been made, the public has a right to an investigation to clear the matter up.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

Mayor Woodward's veto denying women the right to membership on city boards, while not intentionally directed at the suffragettes, since the mayor was simply opposed to enlarging the board, is taken by the suffragette leaders as another serious setback.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Insurance Money

Totals Figures, Official figures have been printed in The Insurance Press of New York, by which it is seen that tremendous amounts were paid out in life insurance in this state last year.

Little Interest In the Investigation.

There seems to be little interest in the action of Supervisor Mack King in regard to the dispensary election for this county.

Mr. Martin Preaches At Lowndesville.

The Intelligencer has been requested to announce that Rev. James L. Martin, D. D., preaches regularly at Lowndesville, on the first and second Sundays of every month.

Mr. Geisberg Is Ill In Atlanta.

A message was received in Anderson yesterday conveying the information that Adolph Geisberg, well known Atlanta hotel man, is critically ill at his home in that city.

Anderson Fourth With Automobiles.

According to figures made public yesterday, the public roads of South Carolina have been greatly improved as a result of the large number of automobiles purchased in this state during the last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Fisher Took Their Departure.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, with whom many Anderson people have become intimately acquainted during their stay at Anderson college, have departed from the city and are now en route to London, where Dr. Fisher will spend a year in rest and study.

Changes Made Oil Company.

Effective on June 1 a number of changes went into effect with the Texas Oil company's branch in Anderson.

Interesting Relief Of The Civil War.

Robert Moorhead of Anderson, route 2, spent yesterday in the city and while here exhibited a canteen which he used while a member of Company "C" Palmetto Sharpshooters.

Columbia's Mayor Coming to Anderson.

Among the well known visitors to come to Anderson on June 17-18 for the annual Elks Convention will be Dr. L. A. Griffith, mayor of Columbia.

Anderson Man On Regular Run.

R. F. Pennell has received an appointment as mail clerk from Anderson to Augusta on the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway and will assume his new duties within the next few days.

Baseball Question Is Being Agitated.

The question of securing funds for the Piedmont baseball league, an organization which Anderson has agreed to join, is being agitated in Anderson and the business men of the city are being approached on the question.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

Freight Cars Jumped Track.

A string of freight cars on the Blue Ridge spur track to the Equinox mill jumped the track while near the mill yesterday afternoon and did some little damage.

Change Coming In The Water System.

The Southern Public Utilities company has addressed an open letter to all its subscribers in which the water users are advised that a new system of charging for the water is shortly to go into effect.

Presbyterian Team Challenges The Town.

Since many of the college boys have returned to the city the Presbyterian boys of Anderson have organized a baseball team and challenge the city and all Sunday school teams in the state to combat.

PERSONALS

Joseph Giles, who is traveling the state of Georgia for a well known concern, has been spending several days in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Giles.

Mrs. Frank Wardlaw of Indiantown is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. Geiger on West Whitner street.

Miss Edna Mages of Mayesville is in the city, the guest of Mrs. William Muldrow on West Whitner street.

Miss Nina Russell has returned from Winston-Salem, N. C., where she has been teaching for the past session.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bell of Mobile, Ala., are in the city, the guests of Mr. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bell.

Miss Martha Bonham left yesterday for Greenville where she will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Proctor A. Bonham. Later she will go on to Baltimore for a stay of a few weeks.