

THE ANDERSON INTELLIGENCER

Founded August 14, 1860

188 North Main Street ANDERSON, S. C.

WILLIAM BANKS - Editor W. W. SMOAK - Business Manager

Entered According to Act of Congress as Second Class Matter at the Postoffice at Anderson, S. C.

Semi-Weekly Edition—$1.50 per Year. Daily Edition—$6.00 per annum. $2.50 for Six Months; $1.25 for Three Months.

IN ADVANCE

Member of the Associated Press and Receiving Complete Daily Telegraphic Service

A large circulation than any other newspaper in this Congressional District

TELEPHONES:

Editorial - 827 Business Office - 821 Job Printing - 693-L Local News - 827 Society News - 821

The Intelligencer is delivered by carriers in the city. If you fail to get your paper regularly please notify us. Opposite your name on label of your paper is printed date to which your paper is paid. All checks and drafts should be drawn to The Anderson Intelligencer.

A "put up job"—canning vegetables on the farm.

Anderson churches have fans—electric and blencher.

Whether or not it rains, the weather forecast made a change.

The new club rolls are here. Get your name on one at once.

How does J. G. Richards stand on the liquor question this week?

Anderson has two very good hotels, but the more the merrier.

Companions in arms—twins. The battle cry is a bottle cry.

How about some cooling off excursions on the Interurban these nights?

Let Anderson county be above any suspicion this year of election trickery.

It rains on the just and the unjust, but we haven't had enough to lay the dust.

When Teddy sees that Russian ballet, he will have another discovery to report.

The cost of the dust tax in Anderson this year can never be computed.

On account of Teddy's well known Annanias club, his new organization is known as the "Washington party." Antipodal.

Mr. Nettles is worse than the prickly heat for stinging up the South Carolina Conference.

The weather never gets too hot for Anderson county turtle soup to be good.

The white way is causing the public square to become an evening promenade.

A Greenville Shriner who lost his false teeth in Atlanta had to talk gum Arabic.

Curly headed Johnny can hand a clever wallop when he gets in his old time form.

However, there is a difference between a Blease candidate and Blease's candidate.

Just to mark the democratic simplicity of Kermit's marriage a Russian ballet was slipped in.

Every lover of good sport should go to the park Saturday and let out a few of the pent up yells.

For some crooks, religion is a cloak, but merely an umbrella for the person who goes to church to escape a shower.

We respectfully suggest that Secretary Daniels forbid the use of such naughty nautical terms as "a leg of the race." But this is the yacht, not the human race.

Harold Booker of the Greenville Piedmont commended the Augusta churches for installing electric fans, and then had it called to his attention that two of the Greenville churches had done the same thing. Which shows to our mind that Booker does not go to church.

gustaAub(m

REQUIREMENTS FOR VOTING The state democratic convention has declared existing rules of democratic clubs null and void. Democrats must reorganize themselves on the basis of the club district in which they reside in order to vote in primary next August. White democrats 91 years of age for those who will reach that age before the next general election, who have lived in South Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the club district 60 days, are entitled to enrollment on the book of their club district, provided they are citizens of the United States and of the state. The book of enrollment for each district will be opened by the secretary of the club on or before the second Tuesday in June, 1914. Democrats who wish to enroll in order to vote in the primary elections must present themselves in person to the secretary of the club, giving their age, occupation and postoffice address and street and the number of their home where these designations exist. In case he is unable to write, the applicant for enrollment must make his mark on the book of the club district in which he resides, and the secretary will put his name on the book. Notley will be given by enrollment of the clubs and where books of enrollment are to be opened. The books of enrollment will be closed and filed with the clerks of court on the last Tuesday in July.

WHAT HOTELS DO Spartanburg has two pretty fair hotels, the Gresham and the Finch, and yet that city is pulling for a new one, to cost around $250,000. The Herald is presenting the situation in that city says: "The hotel situation is laid before the people of Spartanburg this morning in all its details, and it is for them to decide whether or not the present movement is to bring to this city a realization of the greatest need it feels. A modern hotel, of a type as good as the best in all regions around about, is woefully wanted here and there are none to deny the fact. "This morning the hotel is so near and yet so far from being assured there is reason for all hands to come to the support of the movement and to contribute as they may to its success. No one thing can contribute more to the greater and broader development of the city than the erection of such a hotel and it is difficult to believe that Spartanburg is going to allow the present plan to fall through. "There are so many reasons for its success, so many purposes it will serve, in further stimulating the growth of Spartanburg, and these are all so apparent to the public it seems unnecessary to enumerate them at this time. It should be sufficiently attractive as an investment to those who have faith in Spartanburg's future to demand support, yet there are those who look upon the amount they invest in the stock of the company as a donation. Unless Spartanburg has attained her growth and progress is to halt from now on, and there are none who believe this, the investment will in the end prove remunerative. "The people of Spartanburg are amply able to build the hotel, they have done greater things for the greater good of the city, and we believe they will respond today to this movement. The fate of this community really rests in the hands of the larger property owners here, and they may in a great measure determine at this time the progress their city is to make in the immediate future, by their attitude to the very proposition. Let it go out to the world that Spartanburg has fallen down on her hotel matter and it will be years before we recover from the impression the announcement will make. A city's estimate of its own importance and its own possibilities is the one accepted by the outside world.

IS CARRANZA A SPORT?

There has been little difficulty in arranging matters between Huerta and the United States. The old fox knows that his day is done and he wished to end his regime as gracefully as such a person can do. Carranza would not go into the peace negotiations at the outset and for a very good reason. He knows that he is nearing the end of a victorious campaign and he did not wish to have an armistice or cessation of hostilities when the object of his bitter and bloody campaigning was just within reach. Now the situation is different. He is ready to strike the decisive blow. Within 48 hours he may have the federal armies dissipated over the whole face of the country. However, Huerta's elimination has been accomplished by the peace conference and Carranza may well afford to take his chances like a good sport.

From Cotton to Alfalfa.

Some persons are making good bargains in Alabama lands. According to the Birmingham Ledger, an estate of 495 acres in Greene county has been sold for $3,078, or about $6.25 an acre, and an estate of 1670 acres in Marengo county for $20,000, or about $48 an acre, both within one week. These lands are to be taken from cotton culture and devoted to alfalfa. And some persons estimate that alfalfa lands are worth $200 an acre.

The Past is Past.

The committee on the revision of the Articles of Faith had recommended the adoption of a declaration to the effect that all infants are saved. The recommendation was adopted unanimously. "Now, Mr. Moderator," said a delegate from Pittsburg, Pa., with preternatural solemnity, "I move that this be declared retroactive." But the moderator did not seem to hear him.

My goodness, Pat.

"My goodness, Pat," protested Mr. Skids. "The man was guilty? Why didn't you con-fess him?" "Begorra," replied Pat, hanging would, have been too good for him."—Judge.

RESOLUTE TOOK SECOND WHIRL

But the Vanitie Was Leading and Stopped To Pick Up Seaman Washed Overboard

Rye, N. Y., June 4.—The third race of the initial series for the America's cup defense candidate yachts was won on Long Island Sound to-day by the sloop Resolute after the Vanitie, in the lead, withdrew to assist in the rescue of two of her seamen, washed overboard during the first leg of the race. Once the Gardner-designed single stickler dropped out of the race the Resolute was assured of a hollow victory and the contest originally planned as an eighteen-mile race, was shortened half that distance. The Hershoff craft crossed the finish 53 minutes and 41 seconds after the start. Winning to-day's race gave the Resolute two out of the series of 3 matches begun Tuesday. The yachts will renew their contest Saturday. Off to a beautiful start the Vanitie took the lead. Suddenly the yacht heeled to and the crew was seen to be rushing about the steeply slanted deck. Yachtmen hurriedly adjusted their marine glasses, searching for a sailor or tackle that they felt sure had torn loose. It proved to be a far more serious matter for the yacht had lost two of her crew overboard and the seamen could be seen far astern struggling to keep afloat in the wake of the sloop. There was a rush of steamers and tugs and the distressed men, Alex Johnson and Oscar Olsen, were picked up.

WOMEN NOT SHRINERS

Solomon Had Too Many Wives To Start That Feature.

Atlanta, June 4.—An interesting writer in the current issue of the Annullty Messenger, which is the official organ of the Mason's Annullty, undertakes to answer the question, revived again recently by some of the fair sex at the Shrine convention, "Why can't women join the Masons?" The essential reason, according to the writer, is precedent. "Solomon, Israel's great and wise king, organized the first Masonic lodge. He well knew it would never do to initiate one of his wives without taking in the whole 700, to say nothing of the fess his 300 other lady friends would have made. "Most modern husbands can't control one wife as well as Solomon controlled his 700. Our women are so much smarter than men these days that if we once took them in the lodge, they would soon be holding all the offices. Another writer, discussing more serious topics in the same issue, tells of the magnificent growth and progress of the Masons' Annullty, which is the organization that provides for the widows and the children of deceased Masons. The statement shows that the assets of the organization are now seven hundred thousand dollars.

SHE RODE WITH LEE

Anderson Man Saw Belle Boyd the Confederate Spy. Maj. Wm. F. Lee of Co. D, Hampton Legion says that Belle Boyd, the sixteen-year old girl, was an interesting mounted figure by the side of Gen. Lee the day after the great battle of Sharpsburg. The army was assembled at Winchester for general review and her complexion with dark hair, while she enjoyed the splendid scene upon her prancing steed and in the protection of the great commander of Southern forces—was an inspiration to the soldier boys. Miss Boyd was born and reared somewhere in that valley. She became a spy through having been driven from her home in flight by bodies of Yankee soldiers one of whom she shot dead in her home when he entered in assault, then after the killing she fled for refuge to her countrymen and remained with the army during the war.

ATLANTA IS WICKED

Churches Do Not Appear to Show Much Progress There. Atlanta, June 4.—While revivalists of many denominations are working over-time in Atlanta to Christianize a city which they say is now so in name only, some of them are pessimistic about results. Attention is pointed to the fact that one Atlanta church, a Methodist house of worship on Boulevard, has been for some time past converted into a laundry, and that another discarded church building not far from Atlanta is being used as a barn. An evidence of this same tendency of falling off in Sunday worship and seeking recreation on the golf links, on picnics and in the city parks, is further seen in the fact that there are today several churches in Atlanta which erected, which have stood unfinished for years.

A SOLDIER OF FORTUNE

Fell From Window and Was Dashed to Death in Atlanta. Atlanta, June 4.—W. O. Childers, once a noted soldier of fortune, but recently in reduced circumstances, was dashed to his death from a hotel window on Walton street yesterday. The coroner is making every effort to ascertain whether the death was suicide or accident. Childers was once an expert civil engineer and is said to have done important government work in Central America. Some light on the possible manner of his decease is shed by friend who declare that when drinking Childers had a mania for sitting in open windows, and that once before, some years ago, he was almost miraculously saved from falling out of a window in the Grant building.

HERE AND THERE.

"Why won't you buy something at my table?" demanded the girl at the charity fair. "Because I only buy from the homely girls—and a hoosit." "They have a harder one making sales." "The girl was not offended, and he worked this right down the line.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Chicagoan who employs a Swedish maid overheard the following conversation the other day between the cook and the maid next door, also a Swede:

"How are you, Hilda?" "I well, I like my job. We got cremated cellar, cemetery plumbing, elastic lights—and a hoosit." "What's a hoosit, Hilda?" "Oh, a bell rings. You put a thing to your ear and say 'Hello,' and some one says, 'Hello, an' you say 'hoos-it.'" "That's right," encouragingly remarked the teacher. "Now, Paul, tell me why we put a hyphen in bird-cage." "It's for the bird to sit on," was the startling rejoinder.

A teacher was instructing her pupils in the use of a hyphen. Among the examples given by the children was the word "bird-cage."

The City Council of Chicago by a large vote recently passed the ordinance for the union passenger and freight terminals for that city to be erected at an expense of $65,000,000.

The traveling men of Beaumont, Texas, recently celebrated the opening of their fine and commodious club quarters in that city.

A well-known member of the Irish bar was on one occasion counsel for the prosecution at an important trial for murder. He had a box of lozenges in one hand and in the other a small pistol bullet by which the man had met his death. Between the pauses of his address he kept supplying himself with a lozenge. But at last, in the very middle of a high-falutin' period he stopped. His legal chest heaved, his eyes seemed starting from his head, and in a voice tremulous with fright, he exclaimed: "Oh-h-h! Gentlemen, gentlemen, I've swallowed the bullet."

S. G. Mason of Independence, Iowa, recently observed his forty-fifth anniversary as a salesman. He first started on the road for J. S. Sherman, a nurseryman at Rockford, Ill. He is now with the Webster Seed Company.

Genl. "Is there any soup on the bill of fare?"

Walter: "There was, sir, but I wiped it off."—California Pelican.

"Did you come back on an all-steel train?"

"When the waiters and porters finished picking me, I felt sure that it was."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

One of the bosses at Baldwin's Locomotive Works had to lay off an argumentative Irishman named Pat, so he saved discussion by putting the discharged in writing. The next day Pat was missing but a week later the boss was passing through the shop and he saw him again at his lathe. Going up to the Irishman, he demanded fiercely: "Didn't you get my letter?" "Yes, sur, Oi did," said Pat. "Did you read it?" "Sur, sur, Oi read it inside and Oi read it outside," said Pat, and on the inside yer said I was fired, and on the outside yer said, 'return to Baldwin's Locomotive Works in five days.'"—Lippincott's.

Take things as they are, then work consciously and persistently for the way you desire them to be, and your ideal will move upgrade.

Everybody Works Izst Father.

(From the National Monthly.) The men, who had formerly lived in the same town, met after a number of years and entered into conversation. "Did all your boys turn out well, Jim?" asked one of them. "Yes, indeed they did." "What's Albert doing?" "He's trying to discover a new germ," replied the father. "And Bob?" "Oh, Bob is tryin' his hand at a newspaper as being editor," was the old gentleman's reply. "And Charlie—what's he at?" "He's an actor. All this time talkin' about elevating the stage." "And what are you doing, Jim, now that all your boys are away?" asked the old friend. "Well," answered the old man, "I'm supportin' of Albert an' Bob an' Charlie."

HERE AND THERE.

"Why won't you buy something at my table?" demanded the girl at the charity fair. "Because I only buy from the homely girls—and a hoosit." "They have a harder one making sales." "The girl was not offended, and he worked this right down the line.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Chicagoan who employs a Swedish maid overheard the following conversation the other day between the cook and the maid next door, also a Swede:

"How are you, Hilda?" "I well, I like my job. We got cremated cellar, cemetery plumbing, elastic lights—and a hoosit." "What's a hoosit, Hilda?" "Oh, a bell rings. You put a thing to your ear and say 'Hello,' and some one says, 'Hello, an' you say 'hoos-it.'" "That's right," encouragingly remarked the teacher. "Now, Paul, tell me why we put a hyphen in bird-cage." "It's for the bird to sit on," was the startling rejoinder.

A teacher was instructing her pupils in the use of a hyphen. Among the examples given by the children was the word "bird-cage."

The City Council of Chicago by a large vote recently passed the ordinance for the union passenger and freight terminals for that city to be erected at an expense of $65,000,000.

The traveling men of Beaumont, Texas, recently celebrated the opening of their fine and commodious club quarters in that city.

A well-known member of the Irish bar was on one occasion counsel for the prosecution at an important trial for murder. He had a box of lozenges in one hand and in the other a small pistol bullet by which the man had met his death. Between the pauses of his address he kept supplying himself with a lozenge. But at last, in the very middle of a high-falutin' period he stopped. His legal chest heaved, his eyes seemed starting from his head, and in a voice tremulous with fright, he exclaimed: "Oh-h-h! Gentlemen, gentlemen, I've swallowed the bullet."

S. G. Mason of Independence, Iowa, recently observed his forty-fifth anniversary as a salesman. He first started on the road for J. S. Sherman, a nurseryman at Rockford, Ill. He is now with the Webster Seed Company.

Genl. "Is there any soup on the bill of fare?"

Walter: "There was, sir, but I wiped it off."—California Pelican.

"Did you come back on an all-steel train?"

"When the waiters and porters finished picking me, I felt sure that it was."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

One of the bosses at Baldwin's Locomotive Works had to lay off an argumentative Irishman named Pat, so he saved discussion by putting the discharged in writing. The next day Pat was missing but a week later the boss was passing through the shop and he saw him again at his lathe. Going up to the Irishman, he demanded fiercely: "Didn't you get my letter?" "Yes, sur, Oi did," said Pat. "Did you read it?" "Sur, sur, Oi read it inside and Oi read it outside," said Pat, and on the inside yer said I was fired, and on the outside yer said, 'return to Baldwin's Locomotive Works in five days.'"—Lippincott's.

Take things as they are, then work consciously and persistently for the way you desire them to be, and your ideal will move upgrade.

Everybody Works Izst Father.

(From the National Monthly.) The men, who had formerly lived in the same town, met after a number of years and entered into conversation. "Did all your boys turn out well, Jim?" asked one of them. "Yes, indeed they did." "What's Albert doing?" "He's trying to discover a new germ," replied the father. "And Bob?" "Oh, Bob is tryin' his hand at a newspaper as being editor," was the old gentleman's reply. "And Charlie—what's he at?" "He's an actor. All this time talkin' about elevating the stage." "And what are you doing, Jim, now that all your boys are away?" asked the old friend. "Well," answered the old man, "I'm supportin' of Albert an' Bob an' Charlie."

Who is more uncomfortable than the man wearing a heavy suit on a warm day? He is not only uncomfortable, but cannot enjoy the neatness of the man wearing one of our light suits. Come here and see how easy we can fit you in a Palm Beach or Mohair suit—you'll then find out what comfort is. Palm Beach Suits, $7.50, $8.50, $10. Cravenetted Mohair suits, $15, $18, $20. Order by Parcels Post. We prepay all charges. B.O. Craven & Co. "The Store with a Conscience"

AIRMEN DROWN IN SEA PLANE

Two Officers of the English Navy Went Down To a Watery Grave

(By Associated Press.) Portsmouth, England, June 4.—Commander Rice and Lieutenant Thomas S. Creswell were drowned today when a sea-plane in which they were flying plunged into the sea. The sea-plane was engaged with other aircraft in manoeuvres. A torpedo boat crossed Creswell's body which was strapped to the flying machine seat, but the body of Commander Rice was not found. The sea-plane was one of the largest in the service. It had a wing span of 65 feet, carried a 200 horse power engine and was equipped with wireless. It is believed the accident was due to an explosion caused by the ignition of escaping petrol fumes by a spark from the wireless apparatus.

SOUTHERN ADVOCATE

Rev. S. A. Nettles will Re-ire on the 1st of January Next. Columbia, June 3.—The board of managers of the Southern Christian Advocate in session at Greenwood reached a mutual agreement with the Rev. S. A. Nettles whereby he will be relieved as editor and publisher of the paper on January 1st, next, the agreement having been made to that time in order to give Mr. Nettles time to get the business affairs of the paper all settled up and for him to collect the obligations and other credits of the paper. Mr. Nettles was under contract with the board to publish and edit the paper until January 1, 1917 and when he gives up the place on the 1st of next year he will have served one year of the contract. During the suspension of Mr. Nettles after the South Carolina conference met at Rock Hill Rev. P. F. Kilgo acted as editor of the Advocate but when the general conference in Oklahoma City referred the South Carolina conference and sustained and exonerated Mr. Nettles of the charges he resumed the editorship of the paper and Mr. Kilgo resigned. Mr. Nettles desired to retire from the editorship and publishing of the paper and the board met at Greenwood Tuesday night with all present except two, Rev. W. P. Meador, presiding elder of the Greenwood district and chairman of the board presided. The announcement regarding the meeting was made here yesterday by Mr. J. W. Hamel of Kershaw who is the secretary of the board. He is passing through Columbia this afternoon en route from the meeting at Greenwood.

TODAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, June 5.—The day in congress. Met at 11 a. m. Debate was resumed on the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill. Railroad men discussed federal regulation of security issues before the Interstate commerce committee. Adjourned at 2:22 p. m., until 11 a. m., Friday to permit members to attend the unveiling of the Confederate monument at Arlington. House: Met at 11 a. m. Under agreement for seven hours continuous debate, Rayburn bill for federal regulation of railroad security issue was taken up. Sundry civil bill carrying appropriations of more than $107,000,000 was brought in by the appropriation committee. Representative Underwood returned to his seat after a week's rest at a health resort. Completed general debate on railroad capitalization bill. Foreign affairs committee favorably reported bill to pay $53,000 damages for property destroyed by fire in Panama City during the canal commission's work. Adjourned at 5:50 p. m., to 11 a. m., Friday.

MR. HOBSON ANNOUNCES

Prominent Young Farmer of Sandy Spring Gets Into Ring. Among the new aspirant for office in Anderson county, is Mr. D. S. Hobson, of Sandy Springs, who yesterday threw his chapeau into the ring for commissioner of District No. 2, comprising Pendleton, Rock Mills, Fork and Centerville townships. Mr. Hobson may be related to Hobson of Merimac fame, but there is no doubt of the fact that he is a progressive young farmer and business man and would make a good officer. He is a son of the well known citizen Thos. P. Hobson. He has had several years experience in building roads and bridges, and feels that he can represent his district as well as any man in it. He wishes it understood that he is making the race on his own merits. FRED STRICKLAND Anderson Man Receives Galle Honor at Columbia. (By Associated Press.) Columbia, June 4.—H. C. Wells of Enterprise, Ala., was elected president and Atlanta was chosen as the next meeting place at the final session here today of the interstate association of Mill Andersons, S. C., was elected secretary and treasurer. State vice-presidents chosen today included J. W. Washington of South Carolina and John Crabtree, North Carolina.