

BIG FARMERS' DAY HELD IN ANDERSON

MORE THAN 300 MEN AND WOMEN ATTEND

FREE TREAT GIVEN

Trades Day Exercises Held Under Auspices of the Local Chamber of Commerce

With an attendance estimated at over 300, including the wives and families of farmers, the Trades Day Exercises held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday proved one of the most enjoyable and successful occasions of the kind yet held.

Yesterday was the fifteenth successive Trades Day held and like most of those preceding, brought out the home and slaves of the farmers of old Anderson county. And the spirit was fine, exceedingly so. Easily the leading social feature of the day was the serving of ice cream, strawberry and vanilla, to all who attended, which was handled by the popular soda dispensing corps of the Owl Drug Company, agents for the Hill Ice Cream Company of Columbia, who gave the ice cream complimentary to the farmers of Anderson and adjoining counties.

The exercises were to have begun at 10:30 A. M., but due to the fact that Dr. Riggs, president of Clemson college, addressed the members of the Farmers' Union at 11 A. M., the meeting was postponed until 1:30 P. M., when the entire program of exercises were carried out.

Address on Live Stock. Prof. R. A. Abrams of Starr, delivered the invocation, after which Mr. F. L. Sheely of the agricultural bureau of the Southern Railway, delivered a most interesting address on up-to-date farming and live stock production before the assembly. He said, in part:

Owing to the present drought, one may observe many farms where there are poor stands; in nearly all instances these bad stands are due to plowing the land too late, or in the spring, which if there is sufficient rainfall, took away with deep plowing what moisture had been conserved in the soil. Where the land was plowed deep in the fall, you will find almost universally splendid stands and everything in good shape.

"You should plow deep in the fall and at any rate before Jan. 15. If after then, you take the risk of a drouth, and if you get it, you lose your moisture. Deep plowing is absolutely correct, but it must be done at the right time, especially if there is an apprehension of aspring drouth.

Danger of Deep Plowing. "The danger of deep plowing in the spring is lack of rain; this does not occur, however, in the fall, so your land should be prepared and deep plowed in the fall, and you need have no cause to fear a short spring drouth, such as we have had this year. This applies especially to clover and other cover crops. By this method, clover or other cover crops can be turned over soon enough for a corn or cotton crop.

"Slow fertilizer has been used this year then ever before, and there is danger in using too much fertilizer, unless you also plant cover crops, because without the cover crop, the fertilizer will at up the substance of the soil, whereas with cover crops, this does not occur and your land becomes richer and richer each year. Fertilization without rotation and cover crop planting will ruin the best land in the world in ten years.

"Another thing; fertilizer cannot stand either a too wet spell or a too dry unless the land has been planted occasionally to leguminous or cover crops. Every farmer should raise some live stock, hogs and small grain and live at home. This will assist in giving a home supply of meat and also help to secure a proper plant bed, where bacteria can generate and draw the nitrogen from the air, which is very essential.

"Good lime can be used if the handling of the same is understood. It should be inspected first and properly subsoiled, as it is not a fertilizer, but assists in making the elements in the soil produce the right conditions for plant life. All livestock should be inspected before being purchased and handled along proper kindly basis."

Dr. Mitchell Talks. The next address, a splendid one, was delivered by Dr. Mitchell of the city board of health. It was a splendid presentation of hygienic milk production or sanitary dairying. The address was illustrated with samples of tubercular specimens taken from cows, and warned the farmer against using tubercular cows. He said all cows should be inspected and passed, and he offered the free use of the Anderson abattoir to any farmer desiring to have his cow inspected. Dr. Mitchell's address appeared in another department of The Intelligencer today.

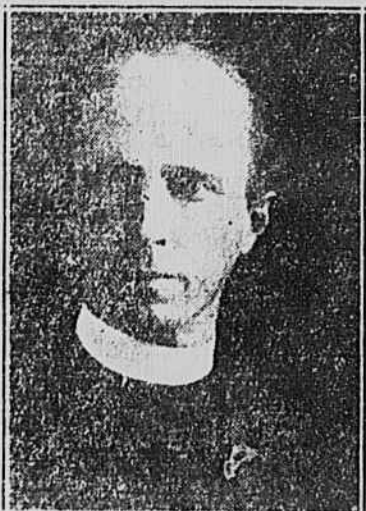

Mr. Rothrock Proud. County Agricultural Demonstrator, J. W. Rothrock, working in connection with the chamber of commerce, made a short and pleasing address. His talk was witty and lively and he stated he was proud of the splendid record being made in Anderson county in better and more up-to-date farming. He dwelt upon the growth of live stock and hog production and grain diversification.

The Cream Festival. After all, perhaps the best part of the whole program was the serving of the ice cream, more present with delicious ice cream, vanilla and strawberries, presented to the farmers of Anderson county by the Hill Ice Cream Co. Everybody had plenty and were happy with the cream, it was so rich and delicious. Grain Festival. It was announced by chairman S.

Will Be Blind. Chattanooga, Tenn., June 16.—Captain E. E. West, of Rome, Ga., formerly of the United States marine corps, who was found in a hotel room here yesterday with a bullet hole in his head, and a gun lying beside him, is reported by attending physicians to be somewhat better today. The chances of his recovery are favorable, but it is believed that the bullet which entered his temple severed the optic nerve and that Captain West will be blind if he recovers.

Out for the Senate. Rochester, N. Y., June 16.—H. Calder of Brooklyn, Republican, announced here today he would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Elihu Root. "I would not become a candidate," he said, "had I not been personally informed by Mr. Root that he would not accept a renomination."

SAVED FROM THE WRECK WAIT!

Rural Credits Shelved. Washington, June 15.—Rural credit legislation was side-tracked for the present session of Congress by the House banking and currency committee today. The committee decided an effort to put through the bill framed by the Bulkeley sub-committee would precipitate debate in the Senate which would last for weeks.

TWO MORE FOR OFFICE

Candidates Who Have Put Their Cards In The Intelligencer.

Two new names are in the candidates' columns of this paper. Judge W. H. Frierson, a well known attorney is announced for probate judge. Mr. Frierson is one of the most capable lawyers in the state and would fill the office in a most capable manner if the people should select him for the place. He is too well known in Anderson to need much comment. His father was for years pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Another candidate announced today is J. R. C. Griffin of Belton, No. 2, in the Eureka section, who is seeking the office of county auditor. He previously has had five years of office work and taught five years in the schools of the county, although he is at present farming. This is his first fling in politics and he is running on his merits and not as a coat-tail swinger. He has many strong friends.

Mr. H. A. Foster of Brushy Creek, who was the first man in the county to announce for any office, states that he dislikes the matter of going all over the county canvassing for votes, although he is willing to rest his fortunes with the people if they will just be governed by the expressions of his neighbors. Mr. Foster was in the city yesterday, and his announcement appears in the daily issue.

Sentence Commuted. Raleigh, N. C., June 15.—Governor Craig, on recommendation of members of the Supreme court and others, today commuted to 20 years imprisonment the death sentence of Jim McClure, a negro, who was convicted in Guilford county of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Honeycutt.

Every Elk Ought to Have an Elk's Tie PURPLE AND WHITE See Them in Our Window. T. L. CELY CO. Next Door to Chiquola Hotel.

We are pleased to announce the services of an Expert Watch Maker and Engraver, Mr. Henry Shafer, of Decatur, Indiana. If a watch can be repaired we can do it. WALTER H. KEESE & COMPANY - THE LEADING JEWELERS.

Trades Day Doing Good For Farmers of Anderson

So delighted were the farmers who attended the Farmers Trades Day exercises at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday with the treatment accorded them, that by unanimous vote the following resolution was passed: "Whereas we the farmers of Anderson county were recently entertained at today, June 16th, by the Chamber of Commerce of Anderson, at the regular Trades Day exercises for June, and value to the people of Anderson county, and are serving as a means of securing a better understanding between us, and the people of the towns and cities; and also are doing more than any other one thing to promote better farming and better rural conditions. Therefore be it hereby resolved that we the farmers of Anderson county who attended the Trades Day exercises today go on record as thanking the Chamber of Commerce for their cordial and painstaking treatment of us, and congratulate them on their methods of working for the good of our county. S. A. Burns, Chairman.

BELTON WEDDING AND RECEPTION

Popular Couple Wed in Belton and Receive Many Social Attentions.

Belton, June 16.—One of the prettiest weddings that has been solemnized in the new First Baptist church was that of Miss Blanche Green and Mr. W. T. Brooker of Columbia. This event occurred on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends.

The church was artistically decorated in white and green, pot plants being used. The effect was beautiful in the extreme. Music was furnished by Mrs. W. A. Clement and her daughter, Miss Margaret. The wedding party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Clement. They entered in the following order: W. H. Brunswick of Columbia, and Mr. G. McG. Smith of Greenwood, who were the ushers, came up the aisle, crossed at the altar and found places. They were followed by the two bridesmaids, Misses Florida Green, sister of the bride and Ethel Brooker, sister of the groom who, entered in the same order as the ushers. They wore exquisite lingerie dresses over pink and carried pink carnations. Then came the bride on the arm of the dame of honor, Mrs. W. D. Cox. Mrs. Cox's gown was a beautiful creation of pink crepe meteor and her flowers were carnations. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Brooker of Swainsboro.

Freed Vanderbilt. Nashville, Tenn., June 16.—That the general conference of the Southern Methodist Church, meeting recently at Oklahoma City, has voluntarily terminated its relations with Vanderbilt University and voluntarily renounced all rights it had, or may have, directly or through any agencies, to confirm the election of members of the board of trust of the University and that it is now the right and duty of the board of trust to fill vacancies in its body without requesting or receiving the confirmation of the general conference or any of its agencies, is the sense of a resolution adopted by today's meeting of the board.

Confederates Approve. Washington, June 16.—Resolutions adopted at the recent reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, pledging their support to the administration's course in the Mexican situation were presented to President Wilson today by General John Floyd King. He was accompanied to the White House by Secretary McAdoo.

Tempest Claimed Eight. Paris, June 16.—The death toll from yesterday's tempest stands at eight tonight. Eight others have disappeared, and seventeen were injured through the collapse of sections of streets.

Just Between Ourselves and The Lampost. THIS is a little heart to heart talk. It's meant for the business men of this territory, for those who advertise and for those who ought to. Friend, you must make your customers buy from you MENTALLY before they purchase in ACTUALITY. You must arouse and interest the mind before you can reach the pocketbook. Thought precedes action. Make the FAMILY CIRCLE a SHOPPING CENTER. First go after the money spent mentally by the fireside. Get your selling story ready for the psychological buying moment. Make it as effective as you know how. Give it a PUNCH. Make every feature a VITAL FACT. List the DETAILS. The people want to know all you have to say. Tell the WHOLE story. Hammer your persuasion home. The results then lie between your competitor and yourself. Remember, this newspaper takes you into the homes of the BUYING class of people. You can tell your story where it will do the most good. Tell it the WINNING way. We'll help you put ZING into your copy if you want us to.
