GEORGIAN TYRUS FOUGHT BUTCHER

Cobb, the Peach, Is Arrested After He Breaks Thumb Over A Bad Fish

(By Associated Press) Detroit, June 20.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, centerfield of the Detroit American League Baseball Club, was arrested tonight in the butcher shop of W. L. Carpenter, on Hamilton Boulevard, while engaged in a fight with Harold Harding, 20 years of age, one of Carpenter's employees.

Cobb was taken to the Bethune Avenue Police Station, and held pending an investigation. Several friends offered to furnish bail for his release, but if Cobb is allowed his liberty he will not be able to play ball for several days. He broke his right thumb during the scuffle with Harding.

The only explanation which could be obtained from the ball player was that the butcher insulted Mrs. Cobb. Carpenter denied the charge but admitted that Cobb rushed into the shop and made allegation that he had and then started trouble.

A fish Mrs. Cobb purchased from Carpenter earlier in the day is believed to be responsible for the affair. Cobb claimed tonight his wife told the butcher the purchase was not satisfactory and during words which followed, Carpenter insulted her. Cobb said he went to the butcher shop to demand an apology from the proprietor.

Cobb was released tonight. No formal charge was made against him but friends of the ball player said they understood that court proceedings might be instituted.

Cobb late tonight declared Carpenter grabbed a cleaver when the two began their argument.

"I have a permit to carry a revolver and I told Carpenter that I had the means to protect myself," said the outfielder. "Our little affair was practically over when Harding butted in. He seemed to want trouble and I was so angry I gave him what he was looking for."

Cobb's injury may keep him from playing for a couple of days. A physician who dressed his hand said the thumb was strained, not broken, as first reported.

HALTING OVER SALE

Josephus Daniels, Has a Little Caution Over Battleship Problem.

Washington, June 20.—Secretary Daniels conferred today with Democratic leader Underwood, Republican leader Mann, and a number of other representatives. Senator Swanson of Virginia, and others in behalf of the proposed sale of their battleships Mississippi and Idaho to a foreign nation, said to be the Greek government, the proceeds to use for the construction of a new dreadnaught. Mr. Underwood told the Secretary he favored the proposition, because it would cost the government nothing. Mr. Mann declined to agree to the plan as it stood, but said that he had no objection to the sale if the proceeds were put into the general fund of the treasury. Representative Britton of Illinois, a Republican member of the naval affairs committee, favored the project, but said that its outlook in the House would be improved if the Norfolk "jock" project dropped from the bill. Secretary Daniels said that he could see no reason why, if a dreadnaught in keeping with the modern demands could be secured, without any cost to the treasury, there could be any objection to the plan. He said after his talk with members, the situation looked favorable to him. Mr. Daniels' visit to the capital was regarded as also representing the views of the president.

THINNING COMPETITORS

Noted French Author Shot Because He Conducted Crematory.

Paris, June 20.—Henri de Rothschild was shot and wounded in the leg in front of a Boulevard cafe tonight by the former owner of a crematory, who, when arrested, declared he had been ruined by the establishment by H. de Rothschild by a crematory designed for philanthropic purposes.

Henri de Rothschild is a doctor of medicine, an author of note and a large contributor to charity.

It has not been determined if the reason given for the attack is the real one.

Ell Blue Ascendant

Boston, June 20.—Yale added another victory over Harvard today, breaking the tie in the annual baseball series, 13 to 8. Outbatted almost 2 to 1, Yale took advantage of the wildness of the Harvard pitchers and perfected hits at opportune moments. Hanes' home run in the seventh with the bases full, clinched the game for Yale.

New York, June 20.—A crowd of world's series proportion came out today to see Charles Herzog, the old Giant favorite, as manager of the Cincinnati team. The visitors made a sorry showing, losing 7 to 2, although New York made only one clean hit.

Philadelphia, June 20.—Three home runs enabled Chicago to defeat Philadelphia today, 5 to 4. Saker and Schulte each put the ball over the right field wall with a base occupied in the first inning. By mixing hits with errors by Phelan and Vaughn, the home team tied the score in the third inning. After that Oeschger was given splendid support until the ninth when Zimmerman's drive for four bases decided the contest.

Boston, June 20.—Boston managed to defeat St. Louis 3 to 2, today, although James weakened in the ninth inning and passed four men, forcing in a run. With the bases still full and two out Snyder tapped to dead and forced out C. Mills, who ran for Cather.

St. Louis, June 20.—St. Louis scored for Baltimore in the first inning today and with another run in the eighth the visitors had a lead that St. Louis could not overcome and won by 3 to 2.

DUCKED PREACHER

Minister Was One Who Bore the Brunt of People's Disapproval.

London, June 20.—An artificial lake gave a crowd an opportunity today to vent their wrath on suffragist interruptors of David Lloyd George, chancellor of exchequer, who spoke at Denmark Hill, in south of London, but chivalrous discrimination was employed between the men and the women. After frequent complete immersion in the pond, he was rescued, half drowned by a man in a boat. During his address, the chancellor made it clear that the amending bill, which will be introduced in the House of Lords next Tuesday, simply will repeat the government's original offer of the temporary exclusion from the home rule bill of such counties in Ulster as vote for exclusion.

DEATHS

Mrs. J. L. Morgan. Townville, June 20.—Thursday night Mrs. Olive Tenhet Morgan, wife of Mr. J. L. Morgan, died at 11:30 o'clock. Mrs. Morgan had been sick for some time, but her condition was not considered serious. Her end came unexpectedly. Mrs. Morgan leaves her mother, Mrs. Tenhet, near Barnes and several sisters and brothers and her husband, who will be greatly missed. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church here for a number of years. The burial took place yesterday amid a large congregation of friends and loved one at Barnes. Services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. B. Hawkins.

Miss Marybel Stonecipher. Townville, June 20.—Miss Marybel Stonecipher died very suddenly on June 15 while on a visit to Anderson. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stonecipher near Eno. She was a Christian young girl attending the school here. She leaves a father, mother and several brothers. Burial services were conducted at the Dale Baptist church by Rev. T. C. Ligon and Rev. W. T. Hollingsworth.

THIRD BIG LEAGUE IN ORGANIZED BALL

MAJOR BASEBALL OFFICERS DECIDE STEP IS REQUIRED IN FIGHT

ADDUCE TWO PLANS

League Will Be Composed of International and American Association Clubs

New York, June 20.—That there will be a third major league in organized baseball, with all the privileges that the prefix "major" implies, operating after the close of the present season, is most assured. After a session here in which all the presidents of the National League club and several representatives of the International League, took part, the National commission today virtually decided that a third major league was necessary to combat the invasion of the Federal League.

SHOWED HER LOVE

New England Woman Shot Her Husband Because of Her Affection. Exteter, N. H., June 20.—Henry H. Folsom, a Boston lawyer, was found dead today with a bullet in his head on the road between here and New Market. His wife was standing over the body with a revolver in her hand, according to the police, and was arrested.

"I did it because I loved him," she is alleged to have told the police, who say she declared she was jealous of her husband.

After hearing Mrs. Folsom was held for the October grand jury. She said the court would not have understood if she told her reasons for the shooting.

Chief of Police Davis testified that when he asked Mrs. Folsom why she shot her husband, she answered:

"So he would not marry another woman."

The Folsoms were in a two seated carriage when the shooting began. It is believed Folsom was driving and his wife was in the rear seat. Five shots were fired, all taking effect.

Mrs. Folsom is about 40 years of age. Her husband was a little older.

OTHER PEOPLE OWN THEIR HOMES

Have they been more fortunate than you or have they been more thrifty? Well, the difference is this: you have been paying rent while they were paying for their home. Yours still belongs to the other man, though you might have paid for it. Your friend got what he paid for and owns his home.
