The Bank of Anderson

The Strongest Bank in the County solicits your banking business. It is prepared to supply your needs in all phases of Banking. It solicits Savings accounts, Checking accounts and borrowers. All are welcome. Is your name on its books?

The BANK of ANDERSON
 The Strongest Bank in the County.

J. M. Holliday Gets In the Race.

Mr. J. M. Holliday, from near Holliday's bridge in the eastern part of the county, has announced his candidacy for county commissioner for the division including Honea Path, Belton, Martin and Broadway townships. Mr. Holliday is a substantial and successful farmer and has had several years of road experience, being at the present one of the sub-commissioners. "I stand for good roads and bridges," is his motto. He says that if elected he will try to serve all of the people impartially.

Cotton Is Now Looking Fine.

Encouraging reports are coming to Anderson every day from the farmers of the county and a short trip through Anderson county will convince almost anyone that the dry weather has done but little damage in this immediate section. Much of the cotton will be late and some of it is just now beginning to appear above the ground, but taken as a whole crop conditions should be very satisfactory. The last rain brought everything out wonderfully and one more rain will put Anderson county farmers in a very optimistic humor.

Bankers Back From Convention.

Among the bankers returning to Anderson yesterday from the State convention at the Isle of Palms was J. H. Anderson, who says that the affair was pleasant. Henry Moseley, a well known banker of Lowndesville, was in the city yesterday for a few hours enroute to his home. Mr. Moseley had likewise been attending the convention and he says that it was one of the best the State association has yet held. Everything had been prepared for their reception at the Isle of Palms and nothing was left undone. All bankers had a glorious time and Lee G. Holleman, the secretary, made every effort to look after the Anderson delegation's welfare.

Will Sell Cakes This Afternoon.

The Junior Philaetha Class of the First Presbyterian church has announced that it will conduct a cake sale at the Owl Drug store this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock and continuing until a late hour tonight. Many an unlucky husband will be tempted to bring home one of these cakes tonight for the simple reason that no Anderson man has a wife willing to cook Sunday cakes in a hot kitchen today when the choicest and most delicious cakes are to be purchased at this sale.

Mr. Speares In Anderson.

H. W. Speares, a well known citizen of Townville, has been spending a week in the city, attending to the affairs of the office of J. B. Felton, during that gentleman's absence, and will probably remain here for another week. Mr. Speares has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for county auditor but this has come from friends of his and he has authorized no statement that he is considering the matter.

Dr. Snider Is To Move Here.

Dr. L. H. Snider of Greenwood, a veterinary of that place, is now making arrangements to move to Anderson for the practice of his profession and is expected to arrive here within the next few days. Dr. Snider will have offices at the Fretwell Stable and will doubtless find that this is a very profitable field. He already has several friends in Anderson and will be warmly welcomed by them.

Soda Fountains For Andersonians.

Two soda fountains were sold here yesterday by F. G. Schaefer, representing the factory. One was bought by W. C. McHray for a new pool room he will open in the new Watson-Vandiver block; and the other is for the handsome new drug store to be built by Dr. Lewis on the site of the old Garrison building on South Main street.

Miss Coleman Is In The Hospital.

While on a visit to friends and relatives in Anderson, Miss Elizabeth Coleman of Blair was seized with a serious indisposition, and has been taken to the Anderson County hospital for treatment. Miss Coleman taught in the public schools here for some time and the news that she is ill will occasion much regret.

A Conference To Be Held Today.

A gentleman from Pendleton stated yesterday that a letter had been sent to a number of Gov. Blease's friends calling them into conference here today. He did not read the letter, but was informed that such a conference was requested.

Voters Are Slow About Enrolling.

Secretaries of the various precincts say that the voters are not enrolling at a very rapid rate and it begins to appear that many of the voters are going to let the time limit expire on them and then set up a howl of having had no chance to get their names on the club roll. The new rules of the party very clearly state that the books shall be closed by each secretary on the last Tuesday in July and within three days after that date the original book must be turned over to the county chairman. That official will have copies made of all books, and these will be filed with the clerk of court and will be open to public inspection at all times. And Anderson voters should bear in mind the fact that if their names are not on the rolls before the last Tuesday in next month they will not be permitted to vote.

Dead Man Had Friends Here.

Universal regret was experienced in Anderson yesterday when it became known in the city that James T. Ouzts, a well known and progressive merchant and farmer of the Mountain Creek section of Greenwood county, had committed suicide. Mr. Ouzts was well known in Anderson and had a number of friends here, especially among the traveling men of Anderson. He was 57 years of age and it is understood that ill health was probably responsible for his rash act. The accounts say that he went from his store to the field near by where some of the plantation hands were at work, borrowed a pistol from one of the negroes, returning to an outhouse near the store and shot himself through the temple.

Mr. Felton Pleaded With the Convention.

J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, returned yesterday from Rock Hill, where he has been attending the convention of the State Superintendents of Education which was held at Winthrop college. Mr. Felton says that he went to Rock Hill with the idea of enjoying the affair and he was not disappointed in the slightest particular. He says that about one-half of the superintendents attended this convention and that the papers read and the topics discussed will prove of benefit to all of them. The Winthrop college authorities and the people of Rock Hill, showed the visitors a good time from the moment they arrived until the hour of their departure.

Proceedings In Magistrate's Court.

Undaunted by the hot weather, Magistrate Bradwell had the nerve to fly into two cases yesterday and dispose of them in short order. It was entirely too warm to devote much time to the hearings but the defendants in each case learned the meaning of the "strong arm of the law." E. C. Grant, a white man, was charged with a misdemeanor and was adjudged guilty of this charge. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or to serve for 20 days on the public roads and in lieu of the coin, he took the days. Alma Williams, a ginger cake mullatto or slightly lighter than that, was charged with being drunk and disorderly conduct and she was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or to serve 10 days. She also took the days.

Pension Checks Were Received.

Four Anderson county people, entitled to pension under the law, were considerably disappointed some weeks ago when the rest of the pension money was paid out for this county and they failed to receive theirs. James N. Pearman, clerk of court, yesterday received the four additional checks, those being for A. Y. Shirley, Mrs. Mary E. McClellan, Mrs. Ann Bagwell and Mrs. Martha P. Martin. In some unaccountable manner these names were omitted from the Anderson county list when it was made out in Columbia, and Mr. Pearman has had some difficulty in getting the matter straightened out. However, the four checks reached Anderson yesterday and the four people named may call and get them.

Jury's Dollar For Refreshment.

Mr. J. Bailey Lewis, observing in The Intelligencer yesterday Mr. C. C. Langston's inquiry as to the origin of the custom of giving each jury dollar in each case in which it is engaged, comes up with the answer. He states that it is an old custom in this country, probably derived from England, to give the jury a dollar to provide for refreshment. In late years in this country the jury has been passing the dollar on to charity.

Boys Back From Florence Meet.

The eight members of the Anderson fire department attending the State firemen's tournament which has been in session in Florence, returned to the city yesterday. The members of the local department say that Florence deserves the thanks of the state for her hospitality. They say that they enjoyed the affair but would have been much better pleased had it been possible for them to enter the Anderson wagons in the tournament. The meeting next year will be held at Greenwood and Anderson wishes to serve notice right now that a portion of the prizes will come here from that event.

Planning for A Big Sale.

The Columbia Tailoring Company closed the doors of its establishment on West Whitner street yesterday, in order to prepare for the big semi-annual clearance sale of clothing which will begin tomorrow morning. This is one of the best known tailoring establishments in the city and these semi-annual sales long ago became a fixed date in the minds of many of Anderson's shoppers. The advertisements in regard to the sale say that some rare bargains will be offered.

Queer Egg Was Seen Yesterday.

Seeing a queer "freak of nature," or something of that kind is almost an every day performance in Anderson, but a really queer egg was brought to the city yesterday by A. G. Moorehead, of Sandy Springs and was exhibited at the office of The Intelligencer. The egg reemed just like any other egg, until a close examination was made, and it was then discovered that the face of a clock could be clearly discerned on one side. Mr. Moorehead says that the egg was laid by a plain, ordinary old Rhode Island Red hen.

Mrs. Osborne Seriously Ill.

Friends of Mrs. A. H. Osborne are distressed over the continued seriousness of her illness. Her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Blanton of Jacksonville, has been summoned to Anderson because of the crisis in her illness and will arrive today. Mrs. Osborne is one of the best known of the older ladies of this city.

Weather Is Now Slightly Better.

Anderson people were thankful yesterday afternoon when the clouds came up and shut off the burning sun. For some time it was not nearly so warm and fast night was really pleasant compared to those of the last few days. All indications are that a heavy rain will fall within the next 24 hours and the entire section will not only be benefited but suffering humanity will be relieved.

MARRIAGES.

Miller-Watson.

Abbeville, June 26.—A wedding of much interest throughout the state was solemnized at Beulah Baptist church Thursday at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Annie Louvina Miller became the bride of the Rev. Samuel Lawton Watson, formerly of Latta, but recently appointed missionary to Brazil. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Edwards, the bride's pastor. The church was decorated in green and white. The wedding march was played by Mrs. P. B. Warren. The bridesmaids and groomsmen entered coming down the aisles in the following order: Miss Daisy McCord entering the left, the Rev. M. G. White entering the right; Hoyt Watson and Miss Mattie Tolbert; Miss Pauline Watson and A. H. Miller. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Blanche Bradley. As the bride entered the left with her brother, T. W. Miller, the groom came in the right with Julian Watson, his best man.

The bride wore a lovely brown coat suit with accessories to match. She is the only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller and is a young woman of attractive personality, being a graduate of Greenville Female College. The groom is a graduate of Furman and also of the Seminary in Louisville, Ky. After the ceremony the bridal party left for Greenwood, where refreshments were served and a reception was given by Mrs. Lucy Seigwald.

The young couple left on a 7:35 o'clock train for Columbia and Latta. From there they go to New York, where, on June 27, they sail for Brazil.

The guests from a distance were: Mrs. Pauline Watson, Latta; Hoyt Watson, Bennettsville; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miller, Columbia; Miss Blanche Bradley, Statesboro, Ga.; Rev. White, Louisville, Ky.; Julian Watson, Georgia.

EARTHQUAKE IN BATAVIA

Batavia, Java, June 26.—Many were killed or injured today in an earthquake which caused widespread damage in Southern Sumatra. Buildings collapsed at Benkoelen, the capital, and telegraph and cable communication was interrupted. Sumatra is the largest island in the Malay archipelago, except Borneo. It has a number of volcanoes, some active and some believed extinct. The population is estimated at 3,500,000 among whom are about 5,000 whites.

GRUESOME EXHIBIT

Sunday School Convention Gases Men Tombstones. (By Associated Press) Chicago, June 26.—Most of the reports and addresses at the Sunday school convention here are cheerful, optimistic affairs, but the Scientific Temperance Federation of Boston, has chosen a gloomy but effective method to drive its lesson home. It is an exhibit of statistics with graves and tombstones as symbols. Demonstrating the number of deaths in Basle, Switzerland, in a certain period as the result of alcoholic indulgence a row of graves painted black is used, with the statistics on the headstones. Then there is a row of wooden figures in convict garb, accompanied by statistics showing that Rotary Clubs Disperse.

 Houston, Tex., June 25.—The fifth annual convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs closed here tonight. The board of directors voted to name a convention city for 1915, but was expected to do so within the next few weeks. Previous to the announcement each Rotarian city will be followed to vote for the city of its choice, but the directors have made no pledge to abide by the decision thus made.

Switching on Mileage.
 Washington, June 26.—The house today sent back to conference the question of mileage of representatives in congress. Yesterday the house voted for two cents a mile each way for senators, and the defeat today, 184 to 59, of a motion to recede from that agreement to the senate proposition of reimbursing the present twenty cents a mile, sent the whole question back to be threshed out again.
