JOHNSON VICTOR IN PARIS FIGHT AGAINST MORAN

The Fight Went the Scheduled 20 Rounds Without Either Man Being Floored

Paris, June 27.—Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion fighter, tonight retained the title by defeating Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, in a 20 round contest on points. There was plenty of hard hitting on the part of Johnson but not a single knockdown, or anything that looked like a finishing blow. Moran's face was bleeding from cuts on the nose and under the left eye; Johnson showed no marks.

Towards the end of the fight the crowd cheered a good deal at some of the tactics of Moran who hung frequently on Johnson to save himself. When the gong rang Referee Carpenter immediately announced Johnson as the winner.

Spencer Eddy, former American minister to Argentina, sat near the ringside. Three feet behind him sat the Duke of Westminster, while not far away were the Earl of Sefton and other notables.

Here and there were dark faces, some of them negroes from Senegal, Dahomey and West Indies. Two negro members of the Chamber of Deputies from Guadeloupe showed intense interest in the contest.

It was an amazingly international crowd. Several hundred Americans were in the best seats.

After the fight Johnson pointed out that no champion of his age ever before defended the title and won. (He is 35 years old). He appeared little the worse for the battle.

"They thought I could not last twenty rounds," he said. "Well, didn't I am satisfied. I have done nothing for two years except ride fast. In another six weeks I will be ready to box anybody."

"Moran has a real hard punch with either hand. I know, because I have been there. If they always landed, there isn't anybody who could stand up against him. He is a good boy, all right, and I enjoyed the fight. Carpenter was a fine referee."

It was the first time a French champion had refereed a big match and Georges Carpentier expressed great pleasure at the experience. He thought it one of the best fights he had ever seen.

Asked if he would like to take on Johnson, Carpentier said:

"Johnson is a little bit too heavy for me at present."

Moran, in his dressing room after the fight, said:

gro smiled confidently as he met Moran's attack. Both led at the same time, each landing on the other's head without harm. Johnson landed on Moran's face as the gong sounded.

Round Five—Johnson appeared fresher and more confident as the round began. Moran landed hard on Johnson's jaw and the crowd cheered. Johnson retaliated with several blows to the body. Moran blocked several hard uppercuts and landed lightly on the negro's solar plexus, which amused the crowd.

Round Seven—Moran landed several hard ones to the negro's head, while Johnson got in a hard one to the stomach. Moran landed a left to Johnson's chin. Johnson then rushed Moran to the ropes without any damage. Johnson opened wider the cut on Moran's nose.

Round Eight—Johnson followed his old style of fighting on the defensive. He succeeded in putting three uppercuts to the Pittsburgher's jaw. In a clinch Moran punched Johnson's stomach, landed a six uppercuts and blocked the cuts from the negro. Johnson landed a hard right to the jaw.

Round Nine—sent a fine work to the body while Moran landed one to the head and several hard ones to the jaw. Johnson rushed the fighting somewhat. Moran received a left to the jaw.

Round Ten—They mixed it immediately at the beginning of the round. Johnson was successful in the fighting. The referee told the men to break-away. Johnson sent one to Moran's nose, Moran's seconds claiming a foul. The referee warned Johnson while the crowd booed the negro. Hard fighting was resumed. It looked as though Moran was weakening. This was all Johnson's round.

Round Eleven—Moran landed one on Johnson's head. The negro then rushed the Pittsburgher and received another warning for holding. Moran sent three hard blows to the body, the negro retaliating viciously with blows to Moran's jaw.

Round Twelve—Johnson succeeded in landing several uppercuts to the jaw and a straight left to the nose and also over the eye. Moran was breathing hard and it did not seem that he would last long. Moran cleverly dodged a hard swing to the jaw.

Round Thirteen—Moran led, but he could not land effectively, while Johnson sent one to Moran's jaw. The Pittsburgher landed hard on the negro's jaw which again drew a cheer from the crowd. Johnson stood back and smiled and then a hard right to Moran's jaw.

Round Fourteen—Moran tried hard but unsuccessfully for the negro's jaw. Several of Moran's blows brought smiles from his opponent. Moran ran into a punch on the nose and in making a futile swing at Johnson he ran through the ropes.

Round Fifteen—Moran avoided the negro who stood still laughing. Moran landed hard to the negro's face, while the latter rushed him to the ropes.

Round 16—Johnson forced the fighting. Moran landed to the stomach and the negro sent a left to Moran's nose. He followed this with five more in lightning succession to the same place. Moran landed two straight lefts to the jaw.

Round 17—Johnson sent a hard left to the jaw while Moran made a wild swing. Moran then sent a left to the negro's face which seemed to make little impression on his opponent. Moran sent another left to Johnson's face which brought a cheer.

Round 18—The negro sent one to the stomach, two to the face and then a hard left to the body.

Round 19—Moran went after Johnson in fighting and holding at the same time. He did no damage, however. His tactics caused adverse comment. Referee Carpenter frequently separated the men.

GREENVILLE TAKES LAST GAME FROM THE SPARTANS

Greenville, June 27.—Manager Stouch's club came back at Spartanburg in the third game of the series this afternoon, winning by a count of 5 to 3. The game was hard fought throughout, and at no time did interest lag. Check, pitching for Greenville, was at all times in control of the situation. He gave up ten hits, but keeping them well scattered, the visitors were unable to score but three times. The Greenville team will leave for Anderson Monday morning for a series of three games.

ASKED SPARTANS TO CLOSE STORES

Anderson President Sent Telegram To Baseball Fans of Spartan City Yesterday

More interest in baseball, was manifested in Anderson yesterday than has been evident here for several years and determining that the closing of the stores of the city would be a good thing for the city on Monday next, when Greenville come here for a series of three games, Porter A. Whaley, acting for the other signers of the message, sent the following telegram to Spartanburg:

"The Herald,
Spartanburg, S. C.
Merchants here will close for opening game Monday afternoon if petition is circulated with Spartanburg merchants to get them close for opening game there. Idea is to have great crowds in both cities on opening days. Can you not circulate such petition or get Chamber of Commerce to do so. Piedmont League is a splendid success.

BUNTS

Anderson fans will like Bill, the big right fielder and temporary manager of the Anderson club. He is quiet and unassuming, but he is a good ball player and he goes after the game from the word go.

Graydon, who is playing left field for the "home hopes" came from Abbeville county and he seems like an Anderson boy to the fans.

With any of Anderson's hurlers on the mound, Millwood catching, McCall on first, the Anderson team can win from any aggregation in the league without another player.

We hate to say it, but somehow we have a sneaking idea that Gaffney was mighty glad it rained yesterday.

If the fans don't like the work of Robinson tomorrow they are welcome to the scalp of the sporting editor of this sheet. "Pet" is some pitcher and with it he is a mighty clever fellow.

And Anderson can't produce ball players? What about Watkins on short stop?

No gladder words of tongue or pen, By heck, we have won again.

If Anderson doesn't want baseball the series to be played here tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday will tell it.

One fan said yesterday that the folks who are the head of the Anderson team didn't know anything about baseball.

If anyone should ask you, it will pay you to watch the work of that man on first base.

One very notable fact in connection of the Gaffney-Anderson series was that there was not a single question raised on any decision of the umpire and there was not one kick.

To give credit where credit is due, it must be admitted that Gaffney has a good ball team.
