GREENVILLE WON SECOND OF SERIES

OSTEEN HAD LOCAL TEAM AT HIS MERCY — PITCHED FINE BALL

SCORE WAS 8 TO 5

Chick Watson Was Wild and Anderson Men Failed to Give Him Proper Support

Anderson's confidence was pretty severely shaken yesterday afternoon when the Greenville team defeated the locals at Bonna Vista Park by a score of 8 to 5.

Osteen, pitching for the visitors, was in rare form and managed to strike out 15 of the Anderson team.

The entire Anderson team had loosened up yesterday afternoon and it was seen after the first inning that the victory would probably be Greenville's.

The bright particular star of Anderson's team yesterday, was McColl, who secured three hits out of three times at the bat.

The following box score gives a pretty good idea of how the game was lost:

BUNTS

Gaffney saved our life and that's all there is to it.

We will get back today all we lost yesterday and quite a little more as well.

If Stouch could ever get off that grouch he would be a fine fellow.

Beefing at the umpire doesn't get you much in this territory.

One fan had not been to a ball game in so long that he gave the ticket taker two tickets yesterday and kept the two rain checks instead.

Anderson fans are taking a mighty good way to show the baseball promoters that they don't care for the game.

McCull can pick out a good one as well as the next man. Three safe singles out of four times at bat is some little record for one game.

Watch "Red" Childers hit a few in the set-to this afternoon. He will make up for lost time.

Today's game will be played in faster time than was yesterday's and it will be a better exhibition.

A cordial welcome awaits every lady this afternoon. No admission charged.

Wives, mothers, sweethearts and sisters—they will all be there for the game this afternoon.

The game will be called promptly at 4:30 and there will be a good crowd present to see it.

Spencer or Summey will work today for the local club. Spencer is another south-paw and Summey is the only right hander on the club.

Re-venge!!!

It was the best thing in the world for the Piedmont League that both Anderson and Spartanburg lost yesterday.

We are mighty glad to see that Gaffney has attained the distinguished honor of having a percentage.

Last game on the home grounds for this series. It is up to the fans to turn out today.

EVERY LADY MAY SEE BALL GAME TODAY

A FAST EXHIBITION

New Umpire Will Arrive in Anderson This Morning and Fans Expect Fine Game

Not one white discouraged by the disgracefully small attendance of yesterday, the officers and directors of the Anderson team of the Piedmont league were busy last night in making preparations for handling the biggest crowd yet seen at Bonna Vista park.

Every lady will be admitted to the park this afternoon absolutely free of charge, and if there is no husband, the brothers or sweethearts will be there and in all probability Anderson will show a record breaking crowd for this game.

WOMEN BELEAGUER PRESIDENT WILSON

Certainly it does. There is good room, and I have stated my conviction and the opinions of others who have different convictions, and I certainly would not wish to do so.

But that resolution is for an amendment to the constitution," said the president.

"The States would have to pass up on it before it became an amendment. Would it not be a state matter then?" persisted Mrs. Wiley.

"Yes, but by very different process, for by that process it would be forced upon the minority; they would have to accept it."

"They could reject it if they wished to; three fourths of the states would have to pass it," interrupted Mrs. Dorr.

"Yes, but the other fourth could not reject it," said the president.

"Mr. President don't you think that when the constitution was made, it was agreed that if three fourths of the states wanted a reform that the other fourth would receive it also," persisted Mrs. Dorr.

"I cannot say what was agreed upon. I can only say that I have tried to answer your question and I do not think it is quite proper that I submit myself to cross examination," continued the president.

"Thank you, Mr. President, for the courtesy," replied Mrs. Wiley.

"I am very much obliged to you. It has been a pleasant occasion," said Mr. Wilson in parting.

WHY THE "HOME RULE BILL" STIRS IRELAND'S TRANQUILITY

Review of the Important Legislation Which Caused the Recent Outbreak in Ulster, Threatening a Great National Crisis

London, June 30.—While there has been a halt during June in the progress of the Home Rule bill toward the statute books, it will make its third appearance before the House of Lords on June 30. It is everywhere accepted as a safe prediction that the Lords will reject it with the usual overwhelming majority and thereby bring the famous Parliamentary act into play for the first truly Revolutionary part in British history.

Under terms of the Act, Mr. Asquith who is the father of the present Home Rule scheme, will present the bill to the king for his signature, and with this it will become law. Unionist leaders have denounced this action as "coercing the King," but no one doubts that the royal assent will be given. So far as coercion is concerned, no one knows what are King George's personal views but the Liberals profess to believe that at heart he is one of themselves.

After the bill itself the Lords will be called upon to consider the amending act which will be introduced as a government measure. The present prospect is that the amending act will contain only Mr. Asquith's first olive branch of six years exclusion from the Dublin government for those counties whose it is referred to.

With Home Rule pending, Ireland remains remarkably free from the fierce enmities and riotous bloodshed which have been the order of the day during former home rule crises. The tranquility is not due to the strong hand of the British government, but on the contrary to the Irish people themselves who have taken the control of affairs into their own hands.

The Viceroy of Ireland, Lord Aberdeen, the Right Honorable Augustine Birrell, the literary celebrity who is Chief Secretary of Ireland, and the Irish Office in London are mere spectators of events. While they look on seemingly helpless, the real power in Ireland is passing into the hands of two armed bodies which have no official status and which exist in defiance of law. These armies are the Ulster volunteers, composed of Ulster Protestants which have been forming for more than a year and a half and the National Volunteers who have been enlisted only a few months and who have a very strong organization in Belfast itself, and in other parts of Ulster, as well as the Catholic counties of the South.

The National members of Parliament have become alarmed by the power of the army and are trying to gain control by swamping it with enlistments.

HONOR GIVEN VENEZUELAN

Last Tributes of Respect Shown by America to Dead. Washington, June 30.—Last tributes of respect to the memory of Dr. Pedro Ezequiel Rojas, late minister of Venezuela, were paid by official Washington today.

"Yes, but by very different process, for by that process it would be forced upon the minority; they would have to accept it."

"They could reject it if they wished to; three fourths of the states would have to pass it," interrupted Mrs. Dorr.

"Yes, but the other fourth could not reject it," said the president.

"Mr. President don't you think that when the constitution was made, it was agreed that if three fourths of the states wanted a reform that the other fourth would receive it also," persisted Mrs. Dorr.

"I cannot say what was agreed upon. I can only say that I have tried to answer your question and I do not think it is quite proper that I submit myself to cross examination," continued the president.

"Thank you, Mr. President, for the courtesy," replied Mrs. Wiley.

"I am very much obliged to you. It has been a pleasant occasion," said Mr. Wilson in parting.

from the membership of the Order of Hibernians. While the Ulster Volunteers, with more than a year's training, form a very efficient military force estimated at 80,000 armed men, their home rule ambitions are yet a comparatively crude body. The Covenant of Ulster has no such ambitions, but a fair supply of ammunition, and a few galling guns; their drill and signaling methods are thorough and up to date and even the regular army admires the swiftness with which they can be mobilized and displayed when they took charge of a good part of Ulster and distributed several thousand guns from the filibustering ship, "Tenny" before the government realized what was happening.

The drill of the Home Rulers is yet that of amateurs by comparison, but they are working hard, with many Irishmen who have been non-commissioned officers in British regiments as their trainers. Their chief want is money, while the Covenanters have the richest province in Ireland behind them, and large subscriptions from English sympathizers.

The common saying is that only a spark is needed for a terrific explosion. The very possibilities of lighting a spark amid such a powder factory compel the leaders to sobriety and caution.
