The Staff of Life

No statistician has ever figured out how much bread goes into a man's stomach in the course of an average lifetime. One thing is certain. It's the biggest article and the most important in the whole list of food supplies.

Mr. Feutchberger of the Anderson Bakery has sought to give the people of Anderson bread as near like that which Mother made as possible, and in doing so he has evolved "OLD HOMESTEAD" bread. It is bread that human hand never touches. It is bread made of only the best quality of flour. It is bread into whose composition go only those materials which Mr. Feutchberger has personally inspected.

EXPLODED A BOMB CAUSING DEATH

for threatening to shoot John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Cross examination disclosed that all the eleven Tarrytown defendants, out on bail, met here last night with Alexander Berkman, anarchist, and others to devise a way to aid the persons facing trial Monday. Present at this meeting, according to statements to the authorities, were Carl Hansen, a member of the staff of Mother Earth, and Carl Berg, 24, a carpenter, a Tarrytown defendant.

Blown to Pieces. Hansen was blown to pieces in the explosion. Berg is missing and is counted among the victims. The other persons known to have been killed were Mary Claves, 65 years old, a cigar maker, who occupied an apartment adjoining the one in which the explosion occurred.

In support of the police theory that a bomb was being made for use in Tarrytown a search of Caron's apartment disclosed two dry batteries, wired for use; a loaded revolver, cartridges and partly constructed black-jack, together with a bowl of yellow substance thought to have been used in bomb construction.

Statements to the police indicated that the meeting last night ended about midnight. Caron, Hansen, Berg and a fourth man, Mike Anspenli, who came here from Chicago about two weeks ago, left together and went to the apartments where the explosion occurred, at 1226 Lexington avenue. Hansen's sister, Miss Louise Berger, who rented the top floor apartment, occupied by herself, Hansen and Caron, told the inquisitors the four men reached home at 1 o'clock.

There were no traces of an explosive or of the material for making any anywhere in the apartment. Miss Berger said. The explosion occurred at 9:25 a. m. and she was notified of it, she declared, while at the Mother Earth office.

Explains Gathering. Alexander Berkman said the group allied with him happened to be at the Mother Earth office when the police arrived because they had gathered to go on a Fourth of July picnic. Berkman denied he had counseled violence at the coming Tarrytown trials. He and others planned to go to Tarrytown, he said, and listen to the proceedings. He denied that he had written threatening letters to Tarrytown officials. "You did send a telegram sometime ago to the Judge at Tarrytown, demanding the release of the I. W. W. prisoners, didn't you?" asked Deputy Police Commissioner Rubin. "Yes, I sent a telegram containing resolutions condemning the arrest and brutal treatment of the men and women," replied Berkman.

"The resolution was adopted at a meeting of the Ferrer group and I was instructed to forward them to the judge."

Berkman said he was unable to account for the presence of the explosive. He volunteered to produce himself and his followers at the coroner's inquest.

May Saved By Absence. There were 35 apartments in the Lexington avenue building. All except two were occupied. The loss of life was not greater, according to the police, because so many of the dwellers had started off early to spend the holiday at various resorts. Of the many known to have been injured seven were removed to hospitals. Some of those who received minor hurts, were in buildings across the street. As far distant as two blocks, persons were thrown down by the shock.

The entire top of the Southeast front of the building crashed into the street, tore a thirty foot hole in the sidewalk and partly filled a stretch of the new Lexington avenue subway excavation.

Tomorrow a systematic examination will be made of the ruins in search of evidence that may support the police theory that a bomb was to be taken into the Tarrytown court room.

With Caron and Berg dead from the explosion, nine defendants remain to be tried at Tarrytown Monday.

Lawyer Killed Carpenter. Macon, Ga., July 4.—V. C. Thomason, a carpenter, was shot and killed here today by A. W. Stokes, a lawyer. After Thomason fell it is alleged Stokes fired three more times, all of the shots taking effect. Stokes went to the sheriff's office immediately after the killing and surrendered. He alleged he shot Thomason in self-defense. A coroner's jury ordered him held on a charge of murder. The lawyer alleges Thomason paid undue attention to his wife.

Journalist Pardoned. Havana, Cuba, July 4.—President Menocal today pardoned Enrique Maza, the Cuban journalist, who in August, 1912 was sentenced to two years and a half imprisonment for assaulting Hugh Gibson, then charge d'affairs of the American legation here.

Socialists Stated. Greensboro, N. C., July 4.—The socialist State convention in session here today nominated H. J. Olive, of Asheville, for United States senator and H. C. Jenkins, of Morganton, for State corporation commissioner, and passed a resolution to petition President Wilson to initiate Federal ownership proceedings against the Colorado coal mines. Copies of the resolution were ordered sent to Governor Ammons, of Colorado, and John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

A CORRECTION

Attention is called to a correction in the name of a candidate for commissioner from the 3rd district. The name has been run as W. H. Elrod, when it should have been W. H. G. Elrod. Mr. Elrod is making an active canvass for votes and feel sure he will be among those at the top when the votes are counted.

Harvard Won Race

Hehley-on-Thames, July 4.—Harvard second eight today defeated the Union Boat Club of Boston in the final Challenge cup and took the coveted trophy for the United States for the first time in its history, which dates back to 1839. Boston got away first but soon became ragged and Harvard passed them, keeping a good lead to the end. Harvard won by a length and a quarter in 7 minutes and 20 seconds.
