ANDERSON WON A BEAUTIFUL GAME

PITCHER'S BATTLE YESTERDAY BETWEEN ROBINSON AND INGLE

SCORE WAS 2 TO 1

Robinson Yielded Only Three Hits To Gaffney Team and Home Hopes Registered Victory

The best game yet played in the Piedmont league on the Anderson grounds when Robinson and Ingle...

Robinson had things breaking his way yesterday and with splendid speed and good control he held the Gaffney team where he wanted them.

Hits were few and far between. Gaffney being able to garner only three off Robinson while Anderson scored only five from Ingle.

Anderson's first run was scored in the fifth inning. Ripley grounded out, pitched to first and was followed by McColl, who got a clean single.

Anderson scored again in the seventh inning when Wilson went out first to first; Hooper struck out on three good ones, Childers drew a pass and walked to first and then Bull hit for two bags, bringing in the second runner.

While there was no sensational playing done, the game was full of snap and ginger and was played in fast time. It was a beautiful exhibition and that tells the tale.

It was a shame and disgrace on Anderson yesterday that the crowd was so small for such a magnificent game. A cross roads village would have turned out more people to see the game, but it is already an assured fact that three times as many people will be out today to witness the exhibition and owing to the fact that ladies are now admitted free to all games, there will doubtless be more feminine faun to see the exhibition this afternoon.

The box score gives a good idea of how Anderson won the game yesterday:

Representative Named. Washington, July 6.—Representative Edward W. Pou of North Carolina was recommended to President Wilson today by Senator Simmons for appointment as associate justice of the District of Columbia supreme court. Mr. Pou has been a member of the house continuously since the first-seventh congress. He is 51 years old.

BUNTS

Big baseball, what?

If Anderson fans don't come out today to see such baseball as is now being furnished, our idea of them will be unprintable.

The best team in this league is to be found in Anderson, and that's no joke.

"Pat" Robinson is just a shade better than anything seen around these diggings. Some stings with his hits, is that boy.

One of the hardest workers on the team is Ripley. He is fielding all the time and he hits like a fiend. The fans feel some confident when they see him in the game.

Ingle is a good pitcher, but he is not quite good enough to beat Anderson.

Mr. Eldon will probably learn this afternoon that a pitcher can't win all his games.

Anderson will have quite an aggregation to pick from for the hurling honors this afternoon. Bland is a new pitcher with a long string of victories behind him and can show the real goods.

How about the game put up at short by Anderson's man yesterday? He errored, but he did that because he took a chance on everything in sight.

A man is almost ashamed to admit that he lives in Anderson, after taking a look at that crowd of 100 people yesterday.

If Anderson people can't turn out more fans to see a game than she did yesterday—this burg must be in bad shape.

Yesterday's battle was as good as any ever seen in the Carolina Association and it is up to the fans to support such baseball.

Do or die. Either come out and see the games or admit that you don't want baseball here.

"Schmidt" Wood and his crew of Gaffney players will put up a game fight for the engagement this afternoon, but—

There was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in Gaffney at exactly 5:21 yesterday afternoon.

Have to admit though that the Gaffney fans are game and so is the team.

The game today begins at 4:30 o'clock; ladies are admitted free; a big crowd of fans MUST come.

Three hits for Gaffney and five for Anderson shows that the exhibition yesterday was no run-away.

Today and tomorrow will mark a crisis in the baseball situation. It is up to Anderson people.

Maybe Anderson folks don't mind "quitting." A "quitter" is defined as a thing to be despised. How does that word sound, anyway?

If we can get 300 Anderson people out today it will be enough to at least make a presentable showing.

The Gaffney team last night had a big time, making fun of Anderson's attendance. They had a right to do so because in Gaffney their team draws between 700 and 800 people.

The situation is simply this: You can't pay park rent, street car fares, game guarantees, etc., with no money and baseball players can't eat hot air. In the words of the illustrious "Plutarch" Todd, "something must be did."

It's a mighty poor man if he can't claim a wife, mother or sweetheart, or maybe a sister. Get hold of her this afternoon and let her see a good baseball game.

Curry came very near breaking up that exhibition in the ninth inning. But then "Curry" doesn't get you any more in the league than does "Close."

To the Clerks—Ask your boss man to let you off this afternoon for the game. If he refuses, tell him he is a slight-wad and let her see a good baseball game.

All aboard at 4:30. Meet you there, sure.

Flag Raised

Anderson People To Get First Glimpse of Rag Won in Carolina Association

The attendance at this afternoon's game will be far better than that of yesterday afternoon but today's crowd will be increased when the game is called tomorrow. The additional attendance will be due to the fact that Anderson fans will have an opportunity tomorrow to see, for the first time, the pennant which was won by the Anderson team of the Carolina Association in 1912.

Furman Smith, who is one of the biggest hearted men and one of the best posted men on baseball in all this country, said last night that he would cheerfully furnish the flag for this one public appearance and said that he knew the fans would respond to this call. It is worth 25 cents for the privilege of looking at this flag alone and in addition to that the game will be a good one. The attendance will be increased and the fans will help to keep baseball in Anderson.

How about you? A majority of the people in Anderson are good sound, level headed business folks and they will understand that 100 people at 25 cents each, furnish only $25 in gate receipts. The guarantee to the visiting team is $35 per game and then there comes the salaries of the Anderson players; in addition to the cost of balls and other paraphernalia. Therefore, the fans will see that the game here yesterday cost the local management about three times what the gate receipts amounted to.

One man in the grandstand yesterday remarked: "Local people don't know what sort of baseball is being played here. This game is as good as any I ever saw in the Carolina league." That is the explanation of the whole affair in a nutshell. Because Anderson had a high priced team in the field when the Carolina league was running, they have concluded that the team now representing the city is a back lot affair. And that's just where they are wrong.

If you care anything about baseball, come out today and tomorrow and see the team play against Gaffney. If you don't care anything about baseball, try to muster up enough pride in your city to help along by going for one afternoon.

If you don't care anything about baseball and don't care anything about Anderson, either, then move out of town. How about you?

Pitchers

Summy Will Probably Officiate For Locals and "Two-Hit" Miller For Gaffney Team

There will be little left to be desired in the way of pitching this afternoon. The management of the Anderson team announced last night that Summy would probably hurl for Anderson while it is expected that Miller will pitch for Gaffney.

Anderson used a southpaw and Gaffney a righthander in yesterday's game, but there is no reason to believe that these facts will reverse the score. Such an idea is preposterous.

However, it must be admitted that Miller is a good pitcher because he let Spartanburg down with two hits and when he walks into the box it inspires the Gaffney team with confidence.

Summy is a good pitcher and Gaffney knows that but they do not know quite as well as they will after the game is over this afternoon.

In a recent exhibition with Greenville Summy caused several batters to fall upon their faces and grovel in the dirt, afraid of being struck by a ball, when as a matter of fact the balls went square across the plate and strikes were called.

He has the widest breaking curve ever seen around this town and he has a few special favorites left in store to trot out for the edification of the Gaffney crew this afternoon. In other words you might say that he is planning to put the Gaff in Gaffney at Beuna Vista park this afternoon.

Anderson women have shown time and time again that they are more public spirited than some of the men of the city and the Anderson team has turned to the ladies of the city for help in its hour of need.

Ladies Free

Anderson Club From Staring Into Bankruptcy's Face

Anderson women have shown time and time again that they are more public spirited than some of the men of the city and the Anderson team has turned to the ladies of the city for help in its hour of need.

The ladies are all to be admitted to the park free from this time on and therefore it may be a pretty hard thing for one to understand how the ladies are to help, if they are to pay no money.

The team does not want one cent of any lady's money. All they ask is that every lady, in return for being cordially welcomed at the park and admitted free of charge, bring some man along with them. Maybe all the ladies can't find big, handsome, strapping, robust fellows, but if you can find one of that kind, do the best you can. Get some saw-ed off, caved-in, spindly-stanked fellow. Get some sort of a man, even if you are ashamed of him after you get there.

Seriously, the team must have some financial support and if the ladies will help they can manage to get more men out to the game this afternoon than anyone would believe.

Common observation shows that won move in mysterious ways, their wonders to perform, and the baseball management is relying upon each and every "feminine fan" performing some wonders today and tomorrow.

A Necessity

Anderson's Baseball Fans Must Understand That Present Support Is Very Inadequate

A majority of the people in Anderson are good sound, level headed business folks and they will understand that 100 people at 25 cents each, furnish only $25 in gate receipts. The guarantee to the visiting team is $35 per game and then there comes the salaries of the Anderson players; in addition to the cost of balls and other paraphernalia.

Therefore, the fans will see that the game here yesterday cost the local management about three times what the gate receipts amounted to.

One man in the grandstand yesterday remarked: "Local people don't know what sort of baseball is being played here. This game is as good as any I ever saw in the Carolina league." That is the explanation of the whole affair in a nutshell.

Because Anderson had a high priced team in the field when the Carolina league was running, they have concluded that the team now representing the city is a back lot affair. And that's just where they are wrong.

If you care anything about baseball, come out today and tomorrow and see the team play against Gaffney. If you don't care anything about baseball, try to muster up enough pride in your city to help along by going for one afternoon.

Rained!

No Game Was Played Yesterday Afternoon In Spartanburg With Greenville Team

With Greenville on top of the percentage column yesterday, she failed to draw ahead of Anderson and remained this morning in the same position that she occupied yesterday. This is due to the fact that the game between Greenville and Spartanburg was rained out in the fourth inning yesterday afternoon. At the time it became necessary to call the game the score was 2 to 1 in favor of Spartanburg and dispatches from that city said last night that the Spartan crew would have had an easy time in winning had the game been played to a finish.

The Manager

LeRoy McCall Made a Success Of Handling Local Team Against Gaffney Aggregation

LeRoy McCall, the speedy first baseman, outfielder and pitcher of the Anderson team, managed the local fellows in the fashion yesterday and showed that he had some ability along this line. "Mac" is one of the best ball players in this village. He secured two pretty hits yesterday and played an all-round jam-up good game.

He did some splendid advertising yesterday in the way of letting the fans know that there is such a thing as baseball in town and it was McCall said last night that his paint through no fault of his that the attendance was not better.

brush would be seen on every window in town today and he will also have an automobile tour made of the city, with one of the local fans to announce today's game through a megaphone.

There is going to be a good crowd at today's game if the sheriff has to be pressed into service and the fans made to go.

How about you.
