PRESS ASSOCIATION AT CHICK SPRINGS

WELL ATTENDED AND THOROUGHLY ENJOYED

BIG PICNIC DINNER

For the Association Will Be Served in Anderson Thursday Afternoon

Chick Springs, July 7.—The 40th annual session of the State Press Association of South Carolina is well attended, there being about 75 newspaper workers and their families here.

The opening session Monday night was a happy occasion. Most of the addresses of welcome and the responses, there was a feature which was a great treat—Mrs. Carroll Lumsden, of New York, a native of Anderson, and a member of the musical Miller family of this city, rendered a number of beautiful old plantation airs.

There have been some splendid papers read at this session, perhaps the best being by Miss Juanita Wylie, editor of the Lancaster News. Her paper was a great inspiration to the members, for they found in her splendid tribute to the newspaper worker a fine courage and beautiful faith which will make the newspaper men take fresh heart.

Hon. Fairfax Harrison Spoke. For the Tuesday night meeting, the feature was the address of Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway company. Mr. Harrison has been with the association all day and his charming personality and democratic ways have won for him the esteem of the entire newspaper fraternity of the state.

Wednesday the association will be given over to the "master printers" or managers of job printing offices. This will be the most helpful meeting of the whole association.

It is probable that the next meeting will be held at the Isle of Palms.

The session will close Wednesday night with an address by Plato Durham, a distinguished and eloquent North Carolinian. Thursday morning the members of the association will board special train on the inter-ban and after a ride over the lines, probably taking in Greenwood and Spartanburg for hurried visits, the party will come to Anderson arriving at 2 o'clock at which time a picnic dinner will be served by the Civic Association, and there will be an automobile ride around the city. The visitors will separate here, some going to their homes in the state and others returning to the springs.

NEIRO CONFESSES MURDER AND ROBBERY

Ray Springs, Miss., July 7.—Details of the hold-up and robbery of the pay car of the Gilchrist-Fordney company at Stevens, Miss., four miles from here on June 27, in which two men were killed and another wounded, were related by Mose Johnson, a negro, in a confession made tonight, according to a statement made by local officers.

Johnson was captured early today near Louin, Miss. He was brought here and placed in jail. Tonight he was guarded by the sheriff and a number of deputies. A mob gathered in the evening, but was dispersed.

In the confession Johnson said, it is alleged, that on June 25, he stole a revolver from a camp near Moss, Miss., and after some inquiry ascertained that the pay car would carry a large sum of money. Two days later he held up the pay car. He secured all but $140 of the $2,300 secured in a sink hole and proceeded to Forest, Miss., where he remained until yesterday when he returned and dug up the remainder of the money. He took $317.80 and again buried the remainder.

Tunnel Flooded. Bigue, Switzerland, July 7.—The Simplon tunnel was flooded today by a subterranean stream that burst through the retaining wall. A train was derailed in the tunnel but no one was hurt. Workmen are pumping out water and it is hoped to resume traffic tomorrow.

WELSH WON FIGHT IN TWENTY ROUNDS

clinches. Welsh again shone at in-fighting.

Round 3—Ritchie opened with a left swing. In a clinch Welsh landed on the body. Welsh got in a couple of jabs. Ritchie put a left to the jaw. Welsh followed with a right one to the same spot. The round ended with Welsh landing lightly on Ritchie's face. Ritchie again was cautioned for holding.

Round 4—Welsh fought for the body. In a clinch Welsh landed two or three left hooks on Ritchie's jaw. He followed with a right to the same spot. Welsh appeared the fresher, smiling when the gong sounded.

Round 5—Ritchie got one to the face, Welsh replying with a left to the jaw. Ritchie landed on Welsh's jaw, followed by a heavy body blow. Ritchie forced the fighting but was repeatedly cautioned for holding.

Round 6—Ritchie's left eye seemed slightly swollen. Welsh's left eye also was damaged. Ritchie played for the bad eye. Welsh dodged a right swing aimed at the bad eye. Welsh's footwork was much the quickest but his blows seemed to have less steam than the American's.

Round 7—Half of the round had passed before Ritchie began forcing the fighting. He landed twice on Welsh's face. Welsh responded. The American covered up well. It was Ritchie's round.

Round 8—The work of both fighters thus far has been good. Most of the fighting was aimed at the body. Clinches were frequent. Welsh appeared to be husbanding his strength in the clinches. He got in one good body blow and seemed the fresher at the end of the round.

Round 9—Welsh forced the fighting. He sent two lefts to Ritchie's face. Ritchie's blows continually fell short, while Welsh, setting a furious present blows to the body and had the best of the in-fighting.

Round 10—Welsh forced the fighting, scoring repeatedly on Ritchie's jaw. He eluded a right arm blow. Welsh had the better of the fight thus far.

Round 11—Welsh landed a sharp left on the face. Ritchie again failed to reach the spot effectively with his busy right. The fighting was hard and fast, Ritchie regaining some of his ginger.

Round 12—Welsh sent a left to Ritchie's neck. Ritchie repeatedly led with his left but Welsh eluded them. The Welshman scored three or four punches in this round but they seemed to make no impression on the American.

Round 13—Ritchie landed two to the face. Welsh showed up considerably. It was Ritchie's round throughout.

Round 14—The American sent a left to the body. He repeated with a right. The fight was fast and fierce to the end of the round. The round was Ritchie's.

Round 15—The first half of the round was a hugging match. Both men worked hard in the clinches, Welsh trying to wear his opponent down. There were a couple of rallies but no damage was done. The round was even.

Round 16—There was more in-fighting, each receiving a good tally on the face. The Welshman ducked a terrific right lander. The fight continued an exhibition of boxing by Welsh who played entirely for the face while the American tried for a body knockout.

Round 17—The men again went into a clinch at the sound of the gong. Upon breaking Ritchie landed a hard left hand swing on the face and followed it with a series of sharp body blows. Ritchie pushed the fighting and appeared stronger. Welsh covered well and was too quick for his opponent.

Round 18—Ritchie bled from the lip. This was a very fast round in which strength against quickness continued to be displayed, but the Welshman got a little the best of it.

Round 19—Welsh was getting all the applause, being the favorite with the crowd, but Ritchie was doing the fighting. Welsh landed a right on the face and got one in return. There was a sharp rally in which the honors were even.

Round 20—They started mixing it hard with both hands for the body. Welsh dodged a fierce left uppercut and gave the American a sharp left on the cheek. The fight ended with the swiftest kind of work. The Welshman pressing the American around the ring in the last few seconds. He was carried out of the arena amid great cheering, after being declared the winner on points.

LIPTON'S BOAT IS HIS BEST YET

The Shamrock IV Will Be the Fastest the Scot Has Ever Had

(By Associated Press) New York, July 7.—American yachtsmen, who are in close touch with the preparations being made by Sir Thomas Lipton for his fourth attempt to lift the American cup have recently received an interesting analysis of the preliminary showing of the Shamrock IV. According to the report the challenger designed by Charles Nicholson is likely to prove the most dangerous yacht ever sent over the Atlantic in quest of the famous trophy. Although the English yachting experts will not commit themselves regarding the chances of the challenger, yet the impression appears to be growing that if the Shamrock IV makes the ocean trip without straining, she will prove far more formidable than any of the Shamrocks of Valkyries that raced for the cup in 1893 and 1903.

The Shamrock IV men are being drilled harder than any previous cup challenging crew. Those who are inclined to be pessimistic, however, contend that the real test will come when the amateur skipper of the Shamrock IV endeavors to arouse the enthusiasm in the crew necessary for to bring about the utmost speed and harmony among its individual members. They hold to the opinion that a veteran professional like Captain Sycamore can always get better results from the men before the mast than an amateur. Time alone can solve this problem, which is of greater importance than would appear on the surface of the indications.
