ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Reported Dead.

A Live Corpse: It was reported on the streets Sunday that V. B. Cheshire had dropped dead at his home, on E. Orr street. The report probably originated from a phone message sent up town for physicians to attend Mrs. Cheshire, who had suffered an attack of acute indigestion and had fallen while attending her household duties. Mr. Cheshire had left home only a few minutes before to get his mail and was on his return home when he met a messenger informing him of a sudden illness of his wife. Mr. Cheshire is still quite ill, but the attending physician states she will soon recover. "Vick" Cheshire was on the streets yesterday as well as Sunday and was the liveliest man in town.

Died While On A Visit Here.

David Flow of Mt. Carmel, N. C., who was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Irvin Breazeale in Anderson, died Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Flow arrived in the city some days ago to visit his daughter and then suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was 58 years of age and therefore little hope was entertained for his recovery. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Breazeale residence on McCully St. Mr. Flow is survived by two sisters and one brother, all of Charlotte, N. C. These are, Mrs. Maggie Holt, Mrs. Nancy Hunter and John Flow. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers yesterday: G. B. Clark, M. M. Stevenson, W. M. Addison, J. M. Sullivan, Jr., S. Dean Pearman and Calhoun Harris. The musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Muldrow, Miss Eubank Taylor and Mrs. C. S. Sullivan.

Former Players Of This League.

Anderson baseball fans are always interested in what is happening to ex-stars of the Carolina Association and they will therefore learn with interest that the Baltimore Orioles are now negotiating for the sale of Gleischnmann, the fastest first sacker ever seen in Anderson and a member of the pennant winning Anderson club in 1912. The statement from Baltimore says that the management there is up against it financially and is forced to dispose of some of its players in order to get the cash. The article also says that Shore, pitcher secured from Greensboro by the Baltimore team, is to be sold.

Mr. Felton Is "On The Job."

Despairing of being able to keep up with the rapid pace set by Anderson county schools in the way of advancement and progress, so long as he used a horse and buggy to visit the schools, the county superintendent of education decided that he must take some drastic action if he was to keep a watchful eye on the situation at all times, and therefore he has become a proud possessor of an automobile. Mr. Felton says that he knows very well that the schools will not be able to grow faster than he can get around in his new machine and that he hopes they will strike no more snags in the roadway of progress than he has as yet on the Anderson county roads.

Fork People Are Progressive.

People of the Fork section are among the most progressive people in the county and they have demonstrated this fact by announcing that they will hold an election on Saturday, July 28 for the purpose of determining whether or not they shall levy a six mills tax for general school purposes. Patrons of the Fork school say that there is little doubt about the extra tax passing and they believe that they will then be able to make their school one of the best in the county. They should be congratulated upon having such progressive people in their community and it is to be hoped that they will be successful in their efforts to get better school facilities.

Visitors Back From Greenwood.

The Anderson county people attending the political speaking at Greenwood Saturday said that on the whole it was a very enjoyable affair and vastly different from those of two years ago. The meetings now being held seemed to be characterized by better order on all sides. S. Dean Pearman, chairman of the County Democratic Executive committee, said yesterday that the Greenwood crowd was remarkably well behaved and that the voters seemed to pay strict attention to what the speakers have to say. Mr. Pearman does not anticipate any disorder for the Anderson meeting.

Tourist Season Is In Full Swing.

The tourist season is now at its height and hotel officials along the National highway say that they are entertaining more parties of autoists this year than ever before. This is particularly true of Anderson and it is indeed a rare thing for a day to pass without a number of visiting machines being seen in this city. Last Sunday was a big day for the autoists and dozens of machines were in Anderson, halting from every spot on the map, including the States of Florida and New York.

Mountains Are Growing Popular.

A number of people are leaving the city daily now for points in the North Carolina mountains to spend a week or 10 days. A number of them make the trip via automobiles and report that the roads are in fine shape. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Keesee and little daughter Ruth, will leave this morning for Hendersonville and Asheville and will make the trip in their automobile. Other parties will probably be formed today for excursions to the mountains and to the sea shore.

Another Pelzer Man May Enter Race.

Friends of Mr. S. T. Durham of Pelzer are making an effort to induce him to enter the race for County Commissioner from his district, and it is very likely that they will be successful. Mr. Durham, who is the son of Rev. T. D. Durham, a minister well known over the county, is a gentleman of considerable road experience, having worked under several administrations of county supervisors. Should he enter the race, he would make the race in his district lively.

Getting Ready For New Store.

C. S. Minor, proprietor of the well known Five and Ten Cents store of that name, has gone on a trip to the Northern markets to purchase goods for the handsome new store which he is shortly to open 220 South Main street. Mr. Minor recently secured a lease on handsome quarters and says that his new store will be one of the nicest places in the city. It is his intention to add a number of new lines and he will go after business harder than he ever has before.

A. M. Carpenter Visiting Here.

Col. A. M. Carpenter arrived in Anderson yesterday morning from Washington and will be in the city for several days, as the guest of friends. Col. Carpenter says that he hopes to have a few days rest in Anderson this time and that he does not anticipate any summons to return so hurriedly as before. Col. Carpenter is enjoying good health and his friends will see to it that he has an enjoyable stay in Anderson.

Team Now In Fine Shape.

The Anderson baseball team is now in better shape than it has been since the Piedmont League season was opened and Manager Bull says that he expects his men to go right back to first place and to stick there. Catcher Vaughan yesterday stuck his signature to an Anderson contract and this heady ball player will prove to be one of the most valuable assets of the team.

LINK THREE After Scalps In Hartwell, Ga.

A crowd of ball players representing Anderson left yesterday for Hartwell, Ga., where they battled yesterday afternoon with the Hartwell team. The local boys succeeded in getting a likely looking bunch of ball players together for the trip into Georgia and they anticipated an easy time in handling the crackers and they did so.

Regular Whirlwind.

Washington Post. According to the London Post the speed of stars increases with age; that being the case, we may expect a breezy farewell tour from Bernhard.

IN the WHIRL of the MOVIES

SCENE FROM "HIS SOB STORY."

"HIS SOB STORY" is a dramatic two reel feature by Reynolds Knight. It tells the story of a "down and outer" who gets a job as a reporter and is instrumental in joining a man and wife who have been parted for a number of years, and lands a good position for himself in the bargain.

Much interest centers in the actors and others who figure in the new serial, "The Million Dollar Mystery." Never before has such an array of talent in various lines been associated in the production of a film. Principal among them are James Cruze, Florence La Badie, Sidney Bracy, Lila Chester, Frank Farrington and Marguerite Snow. Harold MacGrath is the author of the serial story from which Mr. Lonergan furnished the scenario.

In "The False and the True" her eyesight is destroyed by an accidental discharge of dynamite and the man who pretended to love her refuses to marry her. The day for her wedding had been set and the false lover's place is taken by the man who really loves her. She never knows the truth until, through another accidental explosion, her eyes are opened and she learns the facts.

MIRIAM NESSBITT. Miriam Nesbitt is a great favorite with photo players and fans alike. Her charming personality has been instrumental in making her success assured as well as her ability.

In "A Train of Incidents" Bunny takes his pupil to Arizona on a fortune hunt. Florn Finch, with a like desire, takes her pretty charge to the same point. When they arrive in Arizona the young lady thinks Bunny is the man she must marry, and the young man likewise mistakes. The two young people try to escape their prospective helpmeets and by so doing learn "who's who," which makes them very anxious to marry each other. When they return to their elderly companions they find them of like mind and all start back east on their honeymoons.

TO PUT IN POULTRY PLANT.

F. C. Hare Appointed to Take Charge of New Branch at Clemson.

Clemson College, July 13.—South Carolina will have an up-to-date poultry plant at its agricultural and mechanical college and will also have extension work in poultry. At its recent meeting the board of trustees of Clemson College created a poultry husbandry branch of the division of animal husbandry and appointed H. C. Hare, who is well known in a number of counties in the state for his poultry work to teach poultry husbandry and to do extension work. Mr. Hare is now junior animal husbandman in the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry. For several months he was in charge of the poultry demonstration work in South Carolina in co-operation with Clemson College. Recently, however, he was recalled to Washington to complete some work which he had left unfinished when sent to South Carolina to take up the work here.

The trustees of Clemson decided to install a poultry plant and to establish extension work in poultry under the direct management of the college. Mr. Hare is a poultry specialist of several years of experience and has also had experience in the poultry publishing field. He has already established a wide acquaintance in South Carolina.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered with constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted that I try them. They helped me as nothing else would have done." For sale by All Dealers.—Adv.

DEATH OF S. M. CHRISTOPHER

An Octogenarian Follows His Wife To The Grave.

Special to the Intelligencer. (Via July 13.—Mr. S. M. Christopher, who had been ill for several days at the home of his brother, Mr. Jno. A. McAdams of Carwell Institute, died Saturday night and his remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon at Union church of which the deceased was a consistent member. Mr. Christopher was in the 80th year of his age. He had been in declining health since the death of his wife which occurred on the 13th day of April of this year. Mr. Christopher was a man of sterling worth, possessing all those noble traits of character which go to make a useful citizen. He will be sadly missed in the community in which he lived. He had many warm friends as was
