Misses Ruth and Russel Hembree served cool nectar on the piazza while the young folks played games on the lawn. Later a delightful sweet course in pink and white was served all while seated on the lawn and ended a happy event for all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot McCants entertained a few of their friends most pleasantly on Friday evening at their home just east of town. The evening was delightfully cool and the McCants' home was a very attractive spot beautifully situated among the trees.

The parlors and piazzas were most attractive with bowers, ferns and lanterns and were a fit setting for the bright and merry young people who filled the rooms during the evening; music lent an additional charm and the event was one of greatest pleasure to the young people who were so fortunate as to be Miss Ramsey's guests.

NEW HAVEN ROAD IS GIVEN CHANCE

In the New Discussion—Boston and Maine Stock Bone of Contention

Washington, July 18.—The New Haven Railroad will be given one more chance to avoid an anti-trust today agreed to a conference with a committee of the roads directors.

President Husted, of the New Haven board, made the appointment, but his telegram did not explain what new plan might be offered. The only point in controversy is how the railroad's Boston and Maine stock shall be sold. The Massachusetts legislature put a condition on the sale of the stock. The New Haven directors have agreed not to accept that condition. Mr. McReynolds is insisting the condition be accepted and it is certain the department will not agree to any solution not providing that the Boston and Maine be sold.

It was pointed out today that the New Haven committee might ask a committee legislature might have an opportunity to remove the condition. Although Mr. McReynolds has not stayed his anti-trust suit for many months, it was understood today he would not consent to such a delay. Failure of the committee to present some plan acceptable to the department probably would follow almost immediately by the filing of the suit.

"Spend the Day" Party.

Miss May Ligon charmingly entertained about a dozen of her friends at a spend the day party on Tuesday at her lovely home on W. Whitner street. The lawn was delightfully cool and attractive and it was here that the elegant basket lunch was served.
