New York Cotton

New York, July 23.—There was a distinctly bullish atmosphere about the cotton market today and while it showed some irregularity at the start, with first prices 4 to 5 points lower because of showers in Texas and earlier cables, subsequent weather developments were so unfavorable that the early loss was speedily regained and for the balance of the day the market exhibited pronounced signs of strength, reaching the top during the last hour.

Spot houses were credited with selling cotton early in the day against new crop purchases in the southwest but their brokers appeared to be buying cotton in the last hour.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, July 23.—Spot cotton easier; good middling 7.87; middling 7.35; low middling 6.85. Sales 6,000; speculation and export 500. Receipts none.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, July 23.—Reports of damage to the crop in the eastern belt by high temperatures and lack of rain caused a quick spurt in the price of cotton today after noon.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, July 23.—Cotton seed oil declined early under selling of September by rollers and local bear pressure but near deliveries steadied somewhat near the close on covering of shorts and with the late firmness in cotton and lard.

Cotton Goods

New York, July 23.—Cotton goods market was quiet today. Jobbers reported a fair trade. They were buying moderately for spring. Raw silk retained its strong position.

Grain & Provisions

Chicago, July 23.—Immense export rates and the certainty that black rust has crossed into Canada had much to do today with driving wheat prices up grade.

Money On Call

New York, July 23.—Mercantile paper 4 1/4-5.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, July 23.—Resumption of gold exports to Paris and filing of the government's suit to dissolve the New Haven, were the outstanding features of today's heavy and dull stock market.
