Shooting Was General Topic.
The one topic under discussion in Anderson yesterday was the shooting of Dr. J. H. McIntosh in Columbia, early yesterday morning. A few minutes after The Intelligencer was on the streets with the story people began to advance theories of how and why the shooting was done and for the remainder of the day nothing else was heard. Before the Columbia papers arrived in the city many of the people claimed that they did not believe Dr. McIntosh had been shot, or that if he was he might have done it himself, rather than face Coleman L. yesterday. However, when the accounts reached the city yesterday telling of the bloodhounds picking up the trail of the would-be murderer, these who advanced this idea changed their minds.

People Pleased With Air Dome.
The public seems to be well pleased with the variety of pictures shown at the Air Dome in North Anderson and they say that attending this popular amusement place is a fine way to spend the evening. A large number went up from the city last night and they were all enthusiastic over the splendid arrangement of the place, over the ice cream garden and over the entire arrangement of the place. A number of visitors, spending the night in the city, also took advantage of the opportunity to see the place.

Making Annual Inspection Here.
Col. H. D. Wise of Aiken has arrived in the city and was yesterday engaged in making the annual inspection of the books of Anderson county. Mr. Wise will inspect all the books in the offices of every county officer and he will then forward his report to the comptroller general from whose office he is sent out. The Aiken man has a number of friends in Anderson.

Rivalry Is Running High.
Much rivalry is becoming evident among the young men of the city over the approaching tennis tournament. Fred M. Burnett, of the Anderson Y. M. C. A. has been at work some time making plans for the tournament and he believes that he now has arrangements completed. It is planned to hold the tournament at an early date, during which both singles and doubles will be played and it is probable that two handsome trophy cups for the winners will be secured.

Farmers Needing Some More Rain.
Some of the Anderson county farmers said yesterday that while some sections of the county had been blessed with enough rain to last a while, other sections have not yet received as much as they need and it is reported that a few districts in Anderson county are again almost on the point of beginning to suffer. This has been a very strange season, with more rain than is needed at times and then more dry weather than the crops can stand.

Another Candidate Being Mentioned.
Several Belton people were in the city yesterday and while talking of things political, they said that a number of Belton people were very anxious to have J. T. West of that place enter the race for the house of representatives from Anderson county. They said that Mr. West had intimated that he would like to have the office, but they are so sure that he could be elected, they are anxious to have him announce. He is a farmer, a man of good education and a splendid business man, according to the description given by his friends.

Ladies Aid Will Have Cake Sale.
It has been announced that the Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a cake sale next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The dainty cakes will be on display and for sale at the Moore-Wilson company and it is already a settled fact that all the wares will be disposed of in short order, because the ladies of this society have quite a reputation for their cake baking.

Vacation Season Is In Full Blast.
Anderson is almost filled with young people during one week, when a number of young ladies select the days for a house party and then the next week the city will be deserted, so far as young people are concerned, with a house party going on in some other town. A party of young ladies from Greenville have been very pleasantly entertained in the city during the last week and a number of Anderson's young people will go to Greenville next week for a similar event.

Mr. Galley Enters Race For Commissioner.
Preston B. Galley, Jr., announces in this issue of the Intelligencer that he is a candidate for commissioner of District No. 1, comprising the townships of Corner, Hall, Savannah and Varennes. Mr. Galley is a prosperous and prominent young business man of Iva and his friends feel sure he will make a good run, and a good commissioner if elected. This is Mr. Galley's first entry into the political arena and he will make an active canvass for the office. He is opposed by only one candidate so far, Mr. Lawrence McGee.

Selling Land In New York.
Harry L. Wilkins, who is connected with the well known house of William Goldsmith & Company of Greenville, accompanied by the representative of one of New York's wealthiest real estate houses, spent yesterday in Anderson. Mr. Wilkins and Mr. Goldsmith have secured the agency for this territory for the New York Development company and they are selling lots in New York on an entirely different plan. They met with a great deal of success in Anderson and said a number of nice things about the city while they were here.

Crazy Man Brought In.
Deputy Sheriff C. H. Sanders has returned from the Mountain Creek section of the county where he went to get a negro, Walter Reed by name, who is said to be crazy. Reed complains that he has "a cold spot in his head," and it would seem that this is what has driven him crazy. He has been lodged in the Anderson county jail and will at once be taken to the State Hospital for the Insane.

Honeca Path Is Progressing.
There is no more hustling town in this immediate section than Honeca Path and people living there are determined that the town must be kept abreast of the times. Therefore it has been decided that a fire department will be organized and Honeca Path citizens, spending yesterday in the city, said that the new organization would be a "dais-ec."

Last Day To Register.
This is the last chance that the voters in the city of Anderson will have to register their names for the approaching general election which will take place on August 4. So far, only about 50 voters have enrolled and after 6 o'clock tonight it will be too late for an additional voter to get his name on the roll. T. P. Dickson is supervisor of registration and the book is in his office. The voter must register between 9 o'clock this morning and 6 o'clock this evening if he wishes to vote in the coming election.

For Protection Of The Prisoners.
It is understood that J. Mack King, county supervisor, is seriously considering the advisability of having all the prisoners of the county chaulang treated with typhoid vaccine. That the serum will do much toward preventing typhoid fever is a well established fact and the county official would be taking a wise step if he saw fit to have the work done. He is now conferring with the county physician, with this end in view.

Entire Country In Awful Shape.
George A. Cowan of Rock Hill, a popular travelling salesman, was in Anderson yesterday. He says that the accounts of the hail storm in York county have not been exaggerated and he has never seen anything as desolate as is that country for a space of 20 miles. However, the people of Rock Hill have come to the rescue of the stricken farmers and have raised a considerable sum of money which they will use for the purpose of giving the more dependent of the afflicted people another chance for the season's crop. It must be admitted that this is very commendable in the people of Rock Hill.

Anderson Man Lost His Horse.
When W. A. C. McWhorter of Denver went to get his horse yesterday afternoon, preparatory to starting for his home, he discovered that the animal was lost and notwithstanding the fact that he has been prosecuting a very vigorous search since that time, Mr. McWhorter has been able to find no trace of the missing animal. He left the horse hitched before the Webb corner. The horse was hitched to a Columbia top buggy, painted black all over, and the following is a description of the missing animal: chestnut sorrel mare, weight 825 pounds, fourteen and one-half hands high, 14 years old, white star in face.

OUTLOOK IS VERY BRIGHT.
Mr. John A. Horton Is Much Encouraged by His Prospects in Race for Congress.
Mr. John A. Horton, Belton's candidate for Congress attended the senatorial campaign meetings in the Third District last week and is very much encouraged in his race for Congress. Everywhere he went he received assurances of support, and was gratified to meet many old friends and acquaintances at the various points who are pulling for him. He was especially delighted with the encouragement he received in Greenwood, Abbeville, Oconee and Pickens counties. Of course it is admitted that Anderson county will give him a good send off.

Mr. Horton says that everywhere he goes he finds that there is a sentiment that it is about time to make a change and that he is receiving support from people he had not counted on.
Belton is proud of Mr. Horton and will give him practically a solid vote.

MR. COOK ANNOUNCES

Will Enter the Race for Treasurer of the County.

As has been discussed for several days, Mr. J. A. Cook has decided to enter the race for county treasurer and his formal announcement appears in this issue of The Intelligencer. Mr. Cook is a native of Anderson county and needs no introduction to the people, but to those who have moved here in the last few years something about him may be of interest.

Mr. Cook is a native of Iva, but has lived in the city of Anderson a number of years. For 13 1-2 years he was in the harness business and for the last 5 1-2 years he has been selling harness to the trade. He says his reason for entering the race is that he "wants the job."

Mr. Cook has been a prominent secret order man in Anderson and has been national representative of the W. O. W. He was a candidate for mayor two years ago and even against such a popular man as Lee Holleman, received a very complimentary vote.
