

QUALITY SUPREME

In Every Foot of Lumber Sold by

THE W. L. BRISSEY LUMBER CO.

NEWS FROM OUR SISTER CITY

Neway Items of Interest From Friday's Belton Journal

"BOB" CRAWFORD DEAD.

Confederate Soldier Passes Away at the Age of 73 Years.

R. C. Crawford better known as "Bob" Crawford, died at his home near Belton last Friday night after an illness of many months...

He was a soldier of the cross—a member of the Baptist church—and was 74 years old at his death.

Just three hours before Mr. Crawford died he asked his wife not to retire as he did not wish to be alone at the close of his earthly life.

CHEDDAR NEWS.

Mr. Charlie Thompson of Laurens is visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. A. O. Copeland and Mrs. Fred Copeland of Ware Shoals spent last week in Cheddar.

Misses Cheselo and Beulah Brooks and father of Union Grove attended services here on last Sunday.

Mr. Colwell, father of Mrs. W. N. Whit, is visiting in Cheddar.

The Sunbeam Band held a very interesting meeting on last Sunday afternoon. The program was arranged by three little Sunbeam girls...

Among those who attended the Women's Association at Honea Path last week were Miss Mary Copeland, Mrs. B. F. Carle, Mrs. H. Kelly and Mrs. J. J. and W. N. Copeland.

Mrs. McCuen, wife of Rev. M. McCuen of Pelzer spent Sunday in Cheddar.

Messrs. Tom Martin and W. N. Shaw attended the campaign meeting in Anderson last week.

"OLD POSSUM RIDGE DOTS."

The crops in this section are beginning to recover from the hail where it was not so heavy, but in some places it was so destructive that it looks as if it will be impossible to gather anything.

Mrs. J. M. Dunlap is very much improved from a recent illness, which her many friends will be glad to learn.

Mr. Smith, Gamrell, is visiting friends in Flat Rock.

A number of young people from the "Ridge" went to Williamston Tuesday night on a moonlight picnic.

Rev. W. W. Leathers, dined at the home of Mr. E. P. Gambrell Sunday.

Mrs. Selma Gambrell has returned home after spending a few days in Belton with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Griffin.

Mr. Claude Williamson spent Saturday night in Belton with his grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Williamson.

eat are coming on too. So after laboring hard let's get together and have a jolly good time.

Mrs. T. A. Hall of Antreville is spending awhile with her sister, Mrs. W. P. McMahan.

Miss Lucille Rogers and Mae Griffin are visiting at the home of Mr. H. C. Gambrell.

Rev. Dannah will preach at Union Grove church Sunday afternoon at 4

ONEY CREEK.

Rev. M. M. McCuen will start his series of meetings at Cedar Shoal church Saturday, July 26. A large crowd is expected to attend.

Misses Kate and Allen Culberson of Shmponville visited the Misses Holliday Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Ben Verdin of Tigerville spent Friday night at Mr. J. C. Cothran.

The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Owens died at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and was laid to rest in Shoal Cemetery Wednesday at 11 a. m.

Mr. J. T. Cothran killed a ground hog on his farm one day last week.

Miss Lela Hindman and Alpheus Patterson of Big Creek section were among the visitors in this community Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Cothran and sons, Reuben and Jim, attended church services at Daventon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David King spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley at Way Cross.

Miss Maggie Cothran was in Greenville Wednesday shopping.

WHITEFIELD NEWS.

This community was visited by a severe hail storm last week, which did much damage to the crops. Some of the farmers talked about planting peas where they had good cotton before the hail came.

We are glad to know that Mrs. Mary Dunlap is recovering from an attack of malarial fever.

Miss Jennie Armstrong has been visiting on route 2 Honea Path.

The Whitefield boys think they are some ball players, having won two games Saturday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Wyatt one of our leading farmers made a flying trip to Anderson Tuesday on business.

Dr. David M. Ramsey, president of the Greenville Female College, preached in Belton last Sunday morning and evening in the First Baptist church.

Dr. Ramsey is one of the ablest speakers in the state and has many admirers in and near here, he having been born and reared at Calhoun.

Many people from the country came in Sunday purposely to hear Dr. Ramsey preach. The church Sunday morning was filled to overflowing and those present heard one of the best sermons ever delivered in Belton church.

The text was taken from St. Luke 14-17 and was as follows: "And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden Come, for all things are now ready."

We hope that we may have the opportunity in the near future to hear Dr. Ramsey again.

DR. LAW PREACHED SUNDAY. Dr. John G. Law, who is well known in Belton, filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Dr. Law is from Walhalla and is a very forceful speaker and has many admirers in the city of Belton.

While here he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Parker.

DR. MARTIN TO PREACH. Dr. O. L. Martin of Anderson one of the ablest preachers in this section of the state, will preach at the First Baptist church in Belton next Sunday morning at 11:30.

known in Belton, having been pastor here for many years. He has many close friends here who will be glad of the opportunity to hear him preach.

A. D. JONES REUNION.

The second annual reunion to be given in honor of A. D. Jones will be held near Westlee, at the home of public is cordially invited to attend and bring well filled baskets.

The morning part of the day will be spent under the beautiful shade trees. After dinner there will be an address given by some young lady who has not yet been chosen.

We hope that every young man and lady who can will attend this second Jones reunion. Refreshments will be served. Don't forget the date, August 20.

Correspondent.

ROCK SPRING NEWS.

The crops of this community are looking nicely. Some of the farmers are about through work.

Mrs. J. W. O. Williamson and family visited her brother, Mr. J. B. McCoy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. King and little baby Cora Jane of Anderson spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. McCoy.

Miss Eunice Taylor of Long Branch was the guest of Miss Annie Mae Murdoch Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Furman McCoy in company with Mr. Volle Hanks of Long Branch attended the singing at Hopewell Sunday and they reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Holland of Anderson spent a few hours with his sister, Mrs. R. T. Martin Friday afternoon.

C. C. Smith a prosperous farmer of Belton route 4, was among those who called in to see us while in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Smith brought us some very fine peaches. Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ellison of Belton route 4, was among those who attended the senatorial campaign meeting at Greenville Saturday.

J. G. Harris and John Rally, two of Belton's prosperous farmers, attended the gain festival at Anderson Tuesday.

Little Misses Sara Culbreath and Sybil Parker of Belton are attending a house party in Hodges at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Nickles.

Miss Marie Childs and W. H. Trammell will leave Saturday for Asheville.

Mr. Trammell will return on Monday accompanied by Mrs. Trammell an children who have been in Asheville for some weeks.

Miss Childs will spend six weeks in Asheville before returning to Belton.

S. J. Kay and J. W. Smith of Belton were among those who had business in Pelzer and Williamston Tuesday.

J. M. Cox, Sr., the efficient postmaster at Coney Creek was among those who heard Rev. David M. Ramsey last Sunday.

J. Newton Cox of near town was here Sunday. Mr. Cox came up to hear Rev. Ramsey preach.

J. E. Tollison of Laurens spent Sunday and Monday in town guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tollison.

C. S. Sullivan a member of the firm of Sullivan Hardware Co., of Anderson, Greenville and Belton and a resident of Anderson was among the business men in town Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean and Claude N. Martin of Anderson were here Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Martin on O'Neal street.

Misses Eleanor Todd and Virginia Staley, two very popular young ladies of Due West who have been spending sometime in town guests of Mrs. W. R. Haynie on Brown avenue, returned to their home Monday.

A. D. Jones a resident of Belton route 4 was here on business Saturday.

J. B. McCoy & Sons, James R. Roe and Rex of the Neal's Creek section, were among those who called in to see us while in town Tuesday.

Miss Grace Campbell of Belton, left Sunday afternoon for the Campbell Store section, where she visited relatives.

Messrs. H. G. Campbell, Blair Rice, Loh's Seal and Dr. Ethan Frierson spent Sunday in Anderson with friends.

R. L. Cheshire, travelling representative for the C. A. Reed Co., of Anderson was a business visitor here Tuesday morning.

Dr. D. L. Donald one of Williamston's popular business men, was here on business Tuesday.

T. M. Vandiver candidate for the office of county supervisor for Anderson county was in Belton Monday shaking hands with the boys.

Victor B. Cheshire, a candidate for probate judge and a resident of Anderson was among those in town Tuesday shaking hands with his friends.

Dr. C. G. Todd and Will C. Chinkscals returned Monday afternoon from a trip to Montreat, N. C., and other points in the mountains.

Mrs. C. M. Wells and daughter, Miss Jewel of Florence are in town guests of the former's sister, Miss Bertha Shaw.

Mrs. R. M. Brewer and children who have been spending a week in Easley with relatives returned to their home in Belton Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Clatworthy of Honea Path, is in town this week the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Coy, Sr., on River street.

T. M. Maddox of Belton route 4 was here Saturday on business.

J. F. Fields, a progressive planter of Belton route 1 may be mentioned among those in town Saturday on business.

J. H. Gilliam, a hustling farmer of Honea Path route 1 was here Saturday with a twohorse load of water melons.

D. J. Wilson of Belton route 1 was in town Saturday on business.

Magistrate C. P. Kay and wife of Belton returned Monday from a trip in Abbeville. They were accompanied by their little son, Master Walter Kay.

J. L. Gentry a Confederate soldier, who is 78 years old, and a resident of Honea Path, passed through Belton Saturday enroute to Anderson.

Ray Fisher of Honea Path route 2 was a business visitor in Belton Saturday.

W. M. King of the Long Branch section may be mentioned among those in town Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Gambrell of Belton route 1, was here on business Saturday.

R. Parker Robinson of Honea Path route 2, was here on business Saturday.

W. J. Mitchell was here Saturday shopping. Mr. Mitchell resides on Belton route 1. He was accompanied by his son, Aaron.

Lee Hawkins of Long Branch Anderson route 8, was here on business Saturday.

James Mitchell of near Neal's Creek, had business in Belton Saturday.

B. Ballard the gentleman who has such fine cotton was here Saturday. Mr. Ballard lives on Belton route 4.

Dr. A. B. Weathersbee, of Belton, left the first part of this week for Earnwell where he will spend a few days with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Link of Anderson, who have been spending sometime in Belton guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gaines, left Tuesday for Abbeville, where they will spend a few days.

Mr. Link is with the Anderson Daily Intelligencer.

J. E. Burroughs a prominent citizen of Belton route 3 was a visitor to our town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Morrow of Anderson were among those who spent Sunday very pleasantly with friends in Belton Sunday.

Will N. Fields of Belton route 1 was among those in town Saturday shopping.

Misses Fannie Herring and Mary Freeman of Newnan, Ga., who have been the guests of Mrs. W. K. Stringer on Brown avenue for some time have returned to their home Friday.

These young ladies are very popular in Belton and several social parties were given in their honor.

Miss Florida Green spent several days in Honea Path last week with friends.

Miss Merrill Willson of Pendleton, who has been spending some time very pleasantly in Belton; the guest of Miss Margaret Clement; returned to her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Blake and family left Friday for Flat Rock, N. C., where they will spend some time, returning about the middle of August.

A. S. Fant one of our popular townsmen spent last Saturday and Sunday with his wife in Hendersonville.

J. R. Branyon a good farmer and a resident of Belton route 5 was among those in town Saturday shopping.

R. E. Harper a prominent planter of Belton route 4 was a business visitor here Saturday.

James T. Maddox an honored Confederate soldier and a citizen of near Belton was here Saturday on business.

Newton Banister of the Bethany section was here on business Saturday.

T. F. Ashley and T. J. Ashley both of Honea Path were among those who attended the campaign meeting in Greenville Saturday.

J. B. Brooks of near town was here on business Saturday afternoon.

A. C. Acker of Belton route 4 was among those in town Saturday.

J. O. Ragdale of Belton route 4 was in town on business Saturday.

J. B. Ashley a prominent farmer of Honea Path route 2, was a visitor to Belton Saturday afternoon.

J. O. Ragdale of Belton route 4 was in town on business Saturday.

W. A. Z. McMahan of Belton route 2 was a visitor to Belton Saturday afternoon.

W. A. Z. McMahan of Belton route 2 was a business visitor here Saturday.

J. E. Johnson of Cheddar may be mentioned among those who had business in Belton Saturday.

N. B. Cromer of near Belton was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

G. L. Brannon, representing the Oliver Typewriter Company with headquarters in Spartanburg was a business visitor here Monday.

H. P. McDaniel a prominent planter of Belton route 2 may be mentioned among those who had business here Saturday.

L. O. Cromer of Honea Path route 1 was among those in town Saturday.

Mr. Cromer buried his wife Friday in Anderson. She died after a few days' illness Thursday and leaves five children, the youngest only a few hours old when its mother died.

Mrs. Cromer was one of our noble women. Her friends were many and the community in which this good woman lived is heartbroken over the loss of their dear friend and neighbor.

The many friends of the loved husband sympathize with him in his sad bereavement.

R. E. Whitmire of Anderson was among those in town Saturday.

J. M. Holliday of Belton route 4 and a candidate for county commissioner in the approaching election was a visitor here Saturday.

W. H. Acker a Confederate soldier of Belton route four, was among those in town Saturday.

J. T. Clamp of Belton route 5 was here on business Saturday.

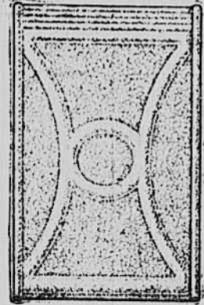

E. M. Holliday a prominent planter of Toney Creek was among those who had business in Belton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMahan, of Greenville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMahan, of Brown avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Guffert and little daughter, who have been spending several days in Greenville and Sullivan's Island have returned to their home in Belton.

Dr. Edward C. Frierson and H. R. Campbell who have been at Hendersonville for a week are expected to return home today.

BURRIS' SHINGLES

Has recently saved two houses from fire. One on Franklin Street, where Mr. Geisberg lives; One on McCully Street owned by N. C. Burriss. This is well worth considering when you build a new house or need a new roof.

JNO. T. BURRIS & SON.

Confederate soldier and a citizen of near Belton was here Saturday on business. Mrs. Trice has many friends here she having been with the Belton Mercantile Company for a number of years as milliner. W. N. Cox of Belton route 1 was here Saturday on business. R. D. Smith candidate for county commissioner attended the senatorial campaign meeting in Greenville Saturday. Grover Vaughan of Belton was among those who attended the senatorial campaign meeting at Greenville Saturday. W. R. Johnson of Honea Path route 6, was among those in Belton Saturday on business. W. A. Sheppard of Belton, attended the campaign meeting in Greenville Saturday. J. B. Ashley, F. O. Hawkins, T. F. Ashley and Oscar Wilson, all of Honea Path route 2, were among those who attended the senatorial campaign meeting at Greenville Saturday. A. C. Wright, a prominent planter of Honea Path route 6 was among those who called to see us while in town Friday. J. H. Banister of Honea Path route 2, had business in the city of Belton Saturday. A. W. Mitchell of Belton route 1 had business in town Saturday. Mrs. A. F. Copeland and little son, A. F., Jr., of Laurens county, are visiting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Kelly. Jacob O. Bolinger of Pelzer, a candidate for the office of treasurer for Anderson county was among those in town Monday. Mrs. W. R. Haynie and children of Belton left for Due West where Mrs. Haynie joined her mother, Mrs. Todd on a trip to relatives in Laurens. Rufus Keese of the popular firm of Sullivan Hardware Co. spent last Saturday in Greenville. Misses Mattie and T. Harris, Beulah and Jessie Huffman left Wednesday for Balsam, N. C., where they will spend a month. Mr. C. O. Bowle spent Monday in Anderson among his friends. D. K. Breazale a prosperous farmer of Belton route 3, was among those in town Saturday. Mrs. P. W. Dunlap and sister, Miss Anna Elgin are visiting in Christian, N. C., the guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Slayter. H. A. Cummings of Belton route 2, was a business visitor here yesterday. Mrs. A. M. Reed and daughter, Mrs. Cattie of Greenville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMahan, of Brown avenue. Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Guffert and little daughter, who have been spending several days in Greenville and Sullivan's Island have returned to their home in Belton. Dr. Edward C. Frierson and H. R. Campbell who have been at Hendersonville for a week are expected to return home today.