New York Cotton

New York, July 25.—Pronounced weakness developed in the cotton market this morning as a result of decidedly lower cables, reports of good rains in Texas and the gravity of the Austrian-Serbian situation. The opening was 18 to 20 points lower and from this level the market sold off a couple of points further in the early trade after which it gradually hardened until at the close it was steady and 13 to 18 points net lower.

The Texas showers furnished quite a controversy as some private dispatches reported rather general rainfall over that state and Oklahoma, while others insisted precipitation was light. As the government forecast was for partly cloudy conditions in the western belt over Sunday a better feeling took possession of the market after the early break, being emphasized later by some foreign buying and a report that Serbia would agree to the Austrian ultimatum under protest. The late rally was also influenced by the report of a Memphis crop expert who made conditions 79.1 against 78 last month and 81.9 a year ago. A southern crop reporting association was also rumored to have made conditions slightly under 78.5. Most of the reports from the eastern belt continued favorable and some advices from Georgia said the movement would be early.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 13.25; Gulf 13.50; sales none. Cotton futures closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, July 25.—Cotton fell nearly a dollar a bale today in the early trading on reports from unofficial sources, telling of good rains in Texas. First prices were 17 to 19 points off and the market stood at a net decline throughout the morning, although the initial decline was not widened. The close was at a loss of 7 to 8 points.

Another influence against the market was the foreign political situation. This was supposed to have been partly the cause of the more Liverpool market. The weather bureau noted showers at only eleven out of the fifty weather stations in Texas and the failure to confirm private accounts of almost general rains helped steady the market.

Bullish features of the morning were two private condition reports from well known bureaus. One put the condition at 78.5 per cent of the normal and the other at 79.1 as compared with the government figures of 79.6 for last month.

Cotton futures closed very steady.

Cotton spot steady, unchanged. Sales on the spot, 1,552; to arrive none.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, July 25.—Cotton, spot easy; good middling 7.75; middling 7.27; low middling 7.69; sales 3,000; speculation and export 200. Receipts 5,000.

Futures weak. July 7.04 1-2; August 6.64 1-2; September 6.54 1-2; October 6.56 1-2; April-May 6.58.

Cotton Goods

New York, July 25.—Cotton goods were quiet today. But prices were more active with linsens steady. Yarns were dull. Men's wear is not being bought as well as usual at this time of the year.

Cotton goods market have been generally quiet and some easing in prices is noted on print cloths, duck and several lines of unbranded brown goods. New prices based on tickings, and some lines of dress gingham show declines from last season, despite the higher cost of cotton. This is due, it is stated, by selling agents, to the necessity of making close prices to induce the placing of early orders to keep mills employed. Eight ounce tickings are down 1-2c a yard, discounts have been lengthened on staple gingham, and a few lines of print cloths are available at 1-8c a yard below the prices of ten days ago. The buying of fine and fancy cottons and dress gingham for the spring season of 1915 has been very moderate in volume. Curtailment of production on a large scale in both cloth and yarn mills, and manufacturers state they are not able to secure a fair profitable margin on goods to be made on contract. Some few lines of goods are maintaining their values steadily, notably bleached cottons, wide sheetings, pillow tubings, etc. Prices ruled about as follows:

Print cloths 28 inch, 64x64s, 3 3-4c nominal; 64x60s, 3 1-2; 38 1-2 inch, 64x64s, 5 1-8c; brown sheetings, southern standards, 8c; tickings, 8 ounce, 13c; denims, 9 oz., 14c; staple gingham 6 1-4c; standard prints, 5 1-4c; dress gingham, 9 1-4c.

Money On Call

New York, July 25.—Mercantile paper 4 1-2 a 5. Sterling exchange firm. Sixty day bills 485.50; for demand 488.15.

Commercial bills 4.84 3-4. Bar silver 53 1-8. Mexican dollars 40 3-4. Government bonds strong; railroad bonds heavy.

Call money nominal; no loans. Time loans strong; sixty days 2 3-4; ninety days 3 1-4; 1-2; six months 4 1-4.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, July 25.—War clouds overshadowed the leading markets of the world today. The Serbian crisis precipitated panicky conditions in London and on the continent. Absolute demoralization prevailed at the French capital with similar, if not worse, conditions in Berlin and Vienna.

London's depressed level at its close was responsible for the extreme heaviness of the opening here. Canadian Pacific losing 2.5-8 points with a loss quite as great for Northern Pacific, while many of the other international fell 1 to 2 points. The decline was accompanied by a greater degree of activity than on any previous day of the week.

Midway in the session vigorous support was extended, and the market rallied all around, some of the important shares closing with substantial net gains on more encouraging cables. Mercantile trade reports presented the usual mixed aspects, with increased optimism respecting the fall outlook.

Bonds were heavy, in keeping with the movement in shares. Total sales, par value, $1,239,000. United States coupon 48 gained 1 1-2 per cent and Panama coupon 35 1-2 per cent on call while Panama registered 2s declined 1-4 per cent.

Grain & Provisions

Chicago, July 25.—Frantic buying of wheat today resulted from the war scare. The excitement, however, was chiefly confined to a few minutes at the start when reports that Serbia would yield had not had sufficient time to take effect. After an advance that on some sales almost touched three cents a bushel, the market closed unsettled at a rise of 1 1-8c 1-4 to 1 1-2c at 5-8 net. Corn finished 1 1-4 to 1 1-2c last night and oats 2-8c to a sixteenth up. Provisions as a rule scored a gain that varied from 5 to 17 1-2c.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, July 25.—The cotton seed oil market was weak under renewed liquidation and stop loss selling prompted by a change of sentiment as a result of a sharp falling off in the demand and larger offerings of crude. Closing prices were 7 to 17 points lower for the near months, and unchanged to 4 lower for the distant positions.

The market closed weak. Spot 6.70a 7.00; July 6.70a 6.91; August 6.82a 6.84; September 6.78a 6.79; October 6.59a 6.66; November 6.49a 6.53; December 6.50a 6.52; January 6.52a 6.53; February 6.55a 6.60. Total sales 8,800.

THE BEE HIVE
New York, July 25.—An other case of bubonic plague, the eleventh since the discovery of the disease nearly a month ago, was announced today by Dr. W. C. Rueker, assistant surgeon general of the Federal Health Service. Joseph Schmitt, forty one years old, employed as janitor at 532 Camp street, was taken to the isolation hospital today suffering from the disease.

SIX AND TWENTY.
Williamston, July 25.—Generally speaking crops are in very good condition through this section. In many places the crops are so late that it will be almost impossible for farmers to make enough to pay for their fertilizer. This section will have its full quota of candidates in the coming election. We already have three for commissioner and we are certainly sorry that two of them will have to go down in defeat for they are all capital fellows and would make good commissioners.

W. A. Elrod candidate for treasurer is a former citizen of this place. He is a son of one of Piercetown merchants, J. H. Elrod. Andrew would make a good treasurer and when the votes are counted the man who beats him will be treasurer.

Conrad Johnston of White Plains and Miss Eula Davis of Mt. Springs were visitors to this section Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Pepper of Anderson made a professional visit to this section last Wednesday.

Jake Bargoll of Pendleton visited his daughter Mrs. Beattie Kay a few days ago.

J. A. Martin and P. M. Mahaffey were business visitors to Anderson Wednesday.

W. H. Frierson, candidate for Probate Judge, was hunting votes in this section one day this week.

W. A. Elrod of Frankville was visiting relatives here Sunday.

It is a good thing that the friends of E. D. Smith secured the services of the Jolly Band of Wild Hog to play for him at the campaign meeting for after the 25th of August his blowing will forever cease. On the 25th of August, 1914, they will be called on to do the "blowing" and playing and playing for on that date E. D. Smith will be killed politically, I think.

We see that Smith is claiming all the farmer votes. He ought to come to Piercetown for here 99 out of every 100 farmers are for Blease and this is no fable.

We see from The Intelligencer that some politicians are urging a division among the candidates as there was two years ago. We do not think this should be. We think the people in Anderson county should choose the best man for any and every office and vote for him and let the other fellow do the same. A man being for Blease does not add one iota to his fitness for office and being against Blease does not subtract one from his fitness. One of the best officers Anderson county has ever had was defeated two years ago because he would not commit himself to Blease or Jones and a better one will never be elected.

An effort is being made to get a singing school for this place to begin about August 15.

It is reported that A. W. Pickens, our popular merchant and farmer, will enter the race for the house of representatives in the coming election. It is his decision to run Anderson county will never have the chance of electing a better man to represent her and he ought to receive every vote cast in the county.

Miss Mayme Massey of Mt. Springs was visiting Mrs. A. M. Martin Friday. C. N. Murphy and A. M. Martin were business visitors to Anderson Saturday.

The protracted meeting will begin at this place on the first Sunday in August. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. Crim of Pickens.
