

ANDERSON PLANING "HOME-COMING" WEEK TO BE HELD DURING MONTH OF OCTOBER

WITH COUNTY FAIR Proposition Is Being Considered By Business Men and Will Probably Be Worked Out

If none of the plans, now in the making, are interfered with, every man, woman or child boasting of Anderson as a birthplace, will be given the chance to come back some time during the month of October. Since the plans were put on foot to hold a county fair in Anderson this fall some of the business men have suggested that it would also be a splendid idea to hold a "home-coming" week and then the logical suggestion appeared that the county fair and home coming week be held at the same time. This is a splendid way to secure a bigger attendance for both events than might otherwise be the case and those in charge of the fair plans are immensely pleased with the idea.

THRIFTY FARMERS NEAR ANDERSON Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Perry Making Their Farm Near Town a Garden Spot

Nothing is prettier or gives a feeling of greater satisfaction than looking over a farm well tilled, and seeing the forces of nature controlled in such a manner as to conserve the fertility of the soil and produce the maximum crop on a given area. In this the farmer is king among men, and there is a feeling of independence and sturdy manhood developed as a consequence that can be found nowhere else.

SECRETARIES SLOW IN RETURNING ROLLS ONLY EIGHTEEN WERE RECEIVED YESTERDAY

OVER 30 OUT YET First Day For Returning Rolls Has Passed and Now Only Two Remain For Secretaries

Acting in accordance with the rules of the democratic convention for this state, the secretaries of the various democratic clubs in Anderson county are now returning their club rolls to S. Dean Pearson, county chairman. Mr. Pearson said last night at six o'clock that he had received 18 of the club rolls, these being brought in by the secretaries of the following clubs: Anderson, Ward 2, 3 and 4; Belton No. 3, Broadway, Bowling Green, Brushy Creek, Campbell's Store, Fork No. 2, Gluck Mills, Grove School, Hall, Hopewell, Long Branch, Mt. Tabor, North Anderson, Riverside and Tokaway and White Plains.

HAD EXPERTS TO GIVE TESTIMONY "Blue Law" Case Was Heard Yesterday, Which Resulted in Jury Acquitting Defendant

When a jury yesterday tried Norman Burriss, charged with selling a soft drink on Sunday while in the employ of the Piedmont Cafe, a verdict of not guilty was returned and the defendant was discharged. From this it would appear that a jury will not convict a clerk for an alleged breach of the "blue laws."

PLAN BRIDGE SYSTEM TO DEVELOP HIGHWAYS TO LINK ALL SECTIONS OF THE STATE

AUTOMOBILE TAX If Plans Do Not Miscarry Anderson Will Come In For Her Share of State Aid

Anderson county is just awakening to the fact that better highways are indispensable to the country as to progress and if the cities are to grow and during the last few months more interest has been manifested in this section over bettering the highways and solving the road problems than was ever known before. Therefore the news that the state of South Carolina is to aid in the work of linking together all sections of the commonwealth, through the bridge system, will be welcomed here.

PUPILS TO HOLD A GREAT REUNION Those Who Attended Mountain School Are To Gather Again On August 12

It is understood that plans are now underway for holding the reunion of the old students of the mountain Springs school. This reunion was by far and away the most successful held in Anderson county last year and so much interest was manifested at that time, it was decided to make the event an annual affair.

IVA ATTENDANCE IS BREAKING RECORDS BAPTISTS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY

THE SECOND DAY Interesting Reports, Splendid Addresses Were Heard By Crowd Estimated At About 2,000

No meeting of the Saluda Baptist Association has ever drawn better crowds than those now attending the convention which is in session with the First Baptist church of Iva. The attendance for the first day was rather disappointing, but it was estimated that at least 2,000 people must have been present yesterday when the noon hour was reached.
