The promoter of this idea said yesterday that the vehicle would be comfortally fitted up and that the ride would be a very pleasant one. In all probability there will be a number of people to make the trip, from idle curionity as much as anything else.

SUNDAY BROUGHT USUAL KILLING

Rosamond Walker, a Negro, Was Shot and Killed By Arthur Collier at Long Branch

It seems that the negroes of Anderon county count that Sunday lost which may pass without a killing scrape. Last Sunday brought the usual affair but this time it seems that the killing was accidental and not inspired by malice. Rosamond Walker, a negro boy about 15 years of age, was walking through some woods in the Long Branch section of the county with Arthur Collier, a negro three years older than the dead boy, and his first cousin. Collier had a pistol in his pocket and Walker asked permission to examine it. When he handed the gun back to Collier it became entangled in Walker's fingers and when Collier tried to assist in getting the gun out of the b.y's hand, the wearon fired. The built struck Walker just above the heart and rang-ed through his heart, killing him in-
