THOMPSON'S THE ONE-PRICE SHOE STORE WE SELL FOR CASH ONLY.

We Sell Brenlin Window Shades

In the End the Cheapest Shade You Can Buy

They are made of closely woven cloth without that "filling" of chalk and clay which, in the ordinary shade, soon cracks and falls out in unsightly "pin holes." Sun won't fade it nor water spot it. It is supple—not stiff, yet always hangs straight and smooth. Made also in Brenlin Duplex—light on one side and dark on the other.

MISS VANDIVER'S LUNCHEON

A lovely luncheon was given Tuesday morning when Miss Rhoda Vandiver entertained at her home on South McDuffie street in honor of Mrs. Edward Hutchins, one of the summer brides.

The guests were greeted by Miss Vandiver and Mrs. Hutchins and invited into the living room. Later they were asked into the dining room where three attractive tables had been placed. Covers were laid for eighteen and a tempting five course lunch was served. The following guests: Mrs. Hutchins, Misses Julia Gilliard, Zoe Broyles, Edna Broyles, Louise Thompson, Linda Thompson, Elizabeth Harrison, Ruth Brownlee, Rosamond Birdine, Elizabeth Van Wyck, Louise Henry, Marguerite Henry, Jones, Cecille van Hasselt, Anna Tribble, Frances Tribble and the hostess.

MISS ANTRON HONORED

Miss Jean Anthony of Atlanta, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Sadler, was the honoree at an informal auction party Thursday morning when Mrs. Sadler entertained at her home on South McDuffie street. At the conclusion of a number of interesting rubber, a delicious hot lunch was served the guests who were Messrs. J. C. Stribling, Sam Prince, Keys McCully, Chas. Causey, Raymond Beatty, and J. C. Jones, of Augusta.

LAWN PARTY

A delightful lawn party was given a few night ago in Williamston by Misses Sylvene and Lois Mullikin in honor of their guest, Miss Ruby Davenport of Anderson. On the porch refreshments were served the guests who were Messrs. Lucile Duckworth, Lizzie Owen, Ruth Owen, Eva Callahan, Ella Freeman, Mamie Rogers, Genevieve Harris, Lola Hammond, Lola Irby, Calla Ellison, Meta Owen, Ida Browning, Dessie Owen, May Tollison and Sallie Wright. Messrs. Jess and Russell Duckworth, Prue and Irving Barnette, Geter and John Armstrong, Alie and Bob Hammond, Leon Burgess, Roy Griffin, Mac Rogers, Vance Cooley, Lester and Walter Tollison, Ansel Owen, Ernest Murphy, Wilton Hall, J. B. Huggens, Clara Davenport, Bob Garner, Joe Rogers and Joe Ellison.

CAUGHMAN-BARNETT

A marriage of unusual interest was performed this morning when Miss Nelle Aycock Caughman and William D. Barnett, both of Columbia, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter S. Beatty. Miss Caughman has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty for several days but the wedding had not been planned to take place at this time.

However, plans were changed and Saturday morning at 11:15 they were married, Rev. J. W. Speake performing the ceremony. They left immediately afterwards for the mountains of North Carolina.

Miss Caughman is a graduate of the College for Women in Columbia and Mr. Barnett of Clemson and the law department of the University of South Carolina, so both have friends all over the state who will be interested in this announcement.

THOMPSON-KING

Pendleton, August 5.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Sallie Thompson and Mr. Arthur King, solemnized in the Lutheran Baptist church at 5 o'clock on Wednesday. The church was decorated in bridal green and white. Before the arrival of the bridal party, Miss Alma Thompson at the organ, accompanied on the violin by Mr. Paul Thompson, rendered several selections. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered.

The first to enter were the ushers, Mr. Harmon Thompson, of Anderson, and Mr. J. M. King of Easley. They were followed by the ribbon girls, Little Lucille Thompson and Louise King, who opened the gates for the bridal party. Then came the bridesmaids and the groomsmen down the middle aisle. The bridesmaids were dressed in different colors and carried shower bouquets of gladiolus. They came in the following order: Miss Mittyene Brown of Anderson and Mr. Paul Robinson of Easley; Miss Alice King of Hartwell, Ga., and Mr. Guy Thompson; Miss Leda Poore of Belton and Mr. Ed Hamilton of Easley; Miss Avlee Elgin and Dr. Wade Thompson of Anderson; Miss Bess Hamilton and Mr. Wyatt of Easley; Miss Olive Williams of Greenville and Mr. L. J. Smitz of Easley; Miss Edith Bigby of Williamston, and Mr. J. C. Sitton of Anderson; Miss Pith King of Easley and Mr. John Thompson; Miss Robbie Thompson and Mr. Wyatt of Easley. The two dames of honor were Mrs. Rogers, Vance Cooley, Lester and Walter Tollison, Ansel Owen, Ernest Murphy, Wilton Hall, J. B. Huggens, Clara Davenport, Bob Garner, Joe Rogers and Joe Ellison.

The bride was very handsome in her gown of white duchesse satin with vol of little caught with orange blossoms and carrying a mammoth bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The only jewelry she wore was a diamond lavalliere, the gift of the groom. The bride came in with her father, and was met at the altar by the groom and his brother who acted as his best man, Mr. Clarence King of Easley. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. O. L. Martin of Anderson, with the assistance of Rev. E. V. Babbs of Easley. Lohengrin's wedding march was played as the party left the church. Changing to a traveling suit of tan with hat and gloves to match, the bride and groom left in an automobile for Anderson to take the train for the mountains of North Carolina.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. J. R. Thompson of this place. She is a graduate of Winthrop College and is richly endowed with nature's most priceless gift—a cheerful, sunny and sympathetic disposition. The groom is one of Easley's most prominent young business men.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, Miss Lucy Williams of Greenville; Mrs. Callie Thompson and Miss Grace Thompson of Princeton; Mr. J. C. Raggsdale of Easley; Mrs. Mamie Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Child's of Piedmont; Mrs. O. L. Martin, Mrs. Lizzie Farr and Mrs. Alma Penny of Anderson.

At noon on Wednesday after a rehearsal a reception was given the bridal party at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson.

McClure entertained with a miscellaneous shower at Mrs. McClure's home on Webb street. The guests were given little cards with a verse on them and after they were all put together and read it announced that Misses Felicia and Katharine McClure would shower Mrs. Townsend with many beautiful gifts for her new home from her friends present.

A delicious salad course was served the twenty-five guests present.

CARD PARTY

Mrs. Marshall Orr entertained most delightfully with cards Friday afternoon at her new home in North Anderson.

After a number of rubbers of auction the hostess served a tempting salad course. Those present were Mrs. Ernest Cochran, Mrs. Henry Orr, Miss Marguerite Evans, Mrs. Louis Gray, Mrs. T. L. Coly Mrs. Keith Provost Mrs. Sam Prince, Misses Bertha Cashin, Ruby Durant, of Blahopville, Madeline Ferris of Charlotte and Ella Mae Cummings.

ELKS' RECEPTION

One of the most delightful receptions ever given in Anderson was the formal opening Thursday evening of the Elks' new home on North McDuffie street. The entire house was thrown open to the guests and vases and jardeneirs of lovely lilies added their fragrance and beauty to the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Farmer Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Bond Anderson were in the ladies' sitting room to greet the callers. Many of the guests remained throughout the evening. On the first floor several tables were filled with card players and in the lodge hall the dancers enjoyed the one step and hesitation.

Late in the evening the guests were invited into the dining rooms where tea and sandwiches were served.

BATTLE OF BATESBURG

Columbia Military Companies Are on An Extensive Hike.

Special to The Intelligencer. Columbia, August 8.—The siege of Batesburg, the "metropolis" of "the Ridges" section, was begun Saturday evening at 5 o'clock when four Columbia companies under command of Capt. Dibert Jackson, marched out of the state house. The march on the Ridge section was begun shortly after 5 o'clock. At Brookland, the light infantry of that place joined in. Tonight the soldiers are camped somewhere between Lexington and Leesville. Sunday morning the Camden company of the national guard mobilized and will march to defend Batesburg.

The fight will take place some time Monday morning. The people of Batesburg are preparing a great welcome for the soldiers.

Mrs. Bennett Townsend was the guest of honor Friday morning when Mrs. Clarence Tolly and Mrs. Fletcher

McClure entertained with a miscellaneous shower at Mrs. McClure's home on Webb street.

The guests were given little cards with a verse on them and after they were all put together and read it announced that Misses Felicia and Katharine McClure would shower Mrs. Townsend with many beautiful gifts for her new home from her friends present.

A delicious salad course was served the twenty-five guests present.

OCEAN LINER ARRIVES Reaches Southampton, England, in Safety With Lives Extinguished (By Associated Press.) Southampton, August 8.—The White Star liner Oceanic which left New York August 1 arrived in Southampton today, proceeded north of the usual lane of travel with all her lights extinguished at night. No German warship was sighted. German reservists aboard the Oceanic were detained here but other passengers were not molested. When the steamer reached port the German officers were instructed to assemble in the smoking room. They there were taken in charge by a guard and marched away. The Austrians were not interfered with.

The McCoy Revival. Mr. E. V. McCoy requests that notice be given of the revival of the children grandchildren and great grandchildren of Eliza Ann McCoy, better known as "Aunt Annie," at Neal's creek church on Thursday, August 20. Neal's creek is six miles east of Anderson, five miles west of Belton and two miles south of Gentry's Crossing on the G. S. and A.

Death of Samuel Fisher. Samuel Fisher died at 4:30 yesterday afternoon at his home on Hammett street, Orrville, after an illness of two weeks. The funeral services will be conducted at his former home in this county this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The deceased was but 23 years of age.
