A Newsy Letter From Pelzer

Pelzer, S. C., Special from No. 4 Mill, Aug. 11.—Your correspondent left Trolley car No. 6, on the Interurban at Smyth and gathered this batch of pleasing items concerning the good people of No. 4:
 The beautiful lawn of Living green that stretches for five hundred feet along the front side of No. 4 Mill—dotted with large beds of magnificently flowering canna, in variegated colors—gives the visitor a most pleasing and attractive sight, as well as affording the superintendent, Mr. J. Walter Kelly, a whole lot of pride and satisfaction. To hear him talk of it you would think that there are no others.

Mr. Kelly may be the youngest mill superintendent in these parts, but he has made good, always on the job, has the confidence and respect both of the company and all his help.

H. G. Harvell is boss carter at No. 4. Hence originally belonged to the great "Tar Heel" family, but he has been on his present job so long that he has forgotten all about the days he worked in tar, pitch and turpentine. Mr. Harvell is also very popular with his help. He is the superintendent's very efficient assistant.

Clayton M. Dockins has charge of the cloth room. We don't know where he is from, but some country or hamlet should have credit for turning out a mighty good and level-headed fellow. His help, girls, boys, women and men all think a lot of him. S. M. Paxton does the book work for this department and holds down the job all right.

N. B. Jameson (the boys call him Sam for short) makes the spinning room hum all the time. "Sam" is a good one" and all mill men know it. Jim Arnold, of Princeton, is the book-keeper and keeps the figures straight.

The yard master is Joe W. Blythe. A more faithful and conscientious boss has never held a job. Joe came to Pelzer from the Old North State in 1896, went right to weaving and by diligence and close attention has steadily advanced to a good position. He keeps eighteen hands busy and is daily shipping out brown goods to all parts of the world. Joe has a North Carolina mountain bear story. Stop by and let him tell it to you. He says it's true, too.

Ernest Chandler, who lives next door to the Second Baptist church, has a thing of beauty and a joy forever both in his flower and vegetable garden. We heard one of his neighbors say "and Ernest didn't leave all the work for his wife to do, either." We wish the good Lord would send Pelzer more like Ernest.

Mrs. J. S. Cobb, the wife of Rev. J. S. Cobb, of Greenville, has recently been visiting friends round No. 4.

William Arnold, of Princeton, is learning the drug business under Doctor McBreary, in No. 4 Drug Store.

BILL HAS BEEN PASSED.

Foreign Ships Less Than Five Years Old May Register at the President's Discretion.

(By Associated Press.)
 Washington, Aug. 11.—The senate tonight passed the bill to authorize the president in his discretion to admit to American registry foreign built ships less than five years old. The measure as it passed the house a week ago was amended by a vote of 26 to 25 to require American ownership of a majority of the stock of corporations seeking to register vessels hereafter acquired.

Opponents of the amendment, which was offered by Senator Cummins, claim it will be stricken out in conference. During the day various similar proposals had been voted down, those leading the fight for the bill declaring any such limitation upon the president's discretion would destroy the measure's value as an emergency step to meet the situation created by the European war.

Another unsuccessful attempt was made to delete the Jones amendment adopted Saturday, authorizing the president in his judgment to admit foreign built ships to the trade between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific coast.
 Senator Williams urged that this was a discrimination against Gulf coast and succeeded in having inserted an amendment to include Gulf and lake trade in the provisions of the amendment.

Will Investigate High Prices.

(By Associated Press.)
 Washington, August 12.—Three resolutions calling for information as to "war prices" on foodstuffs in the United States were referred to Secretary Redfield today by Chairman Adamson, of the house interstate and foreign commerce committee. All the resolutions call upon the department of commerce to explain why prices have gone up when the exportation of food practically has been stopped by the European war.

announcement by agents of the French line here.

GERMAN WAR SHIP IN PORT.
 German cruiser Leipzig steamed into this port tonight.
 As the custom house closed at 6 p. m. formal application for coal cannot be made by the German consul, Franks Bopp, until tomorrow. The Leipzig is expected to lay at anchor through the night.

The young men and boys of No. 4 keep right up with the times. They have a live camp of Boy Scouts, with a membership of 35 splendid young fellows, Smyth Troop United States Boy Scouts was organized January 1st, 1914, by Captain C. M. Dockins, with Tom Bass first lieutenant; Mild Henderson, second lieutenant; Curtis Turner, first sergeant; Will Bradley, second sergeant; Red Williams, third sergeant.

The boys named the troop "Myth" in honor of Captain Ellison A. Smyth. Through the kindness of Capt. Smyth and Mr. J. W. Kelly, the old opera house has been fitted up for the use of the troop. Baths a privy for all the troop have been installed. The baths are thrown open two nights in the week to the public. A charge of 25 cents per month is made which goes to the treasury of the troop.

Capt. Smyth pays for some of the best magazines, and other literature, which comes to the scout hall, and which they enjoy reading.
 Capt. Dockins says that only the best material is allowed in the troop. The troop gave a drill two Saturdays, which was old "Father's" day, and the boys did splendidly.

Mr. Dockins was commissioned a colonel in the United States Boy Scout shortly after the organization was launched in this country, several years ago.

Mr. Harvell has just returned, with his family, from a week's stay in the mountains around Erevard.

Overseer Dockins doesn't own an automobile but he says he has the prettiest pen of Indian game chickens in the state. We have seen them and we are ready to agree with him—they are beauties. He has about 70 fryers. We suspect, though, his two many sons, Foy and Joe, should have credit for raising them. We know some fellows who, if they took a look at that pen would go right to talking about "pitting" them. But Clay don't. He says he raised them to eat. But he lives right next door to the parson and in sight of the church.

Mrs. J. B. McCuen, who has been visiting her son, the Rev. M. M. McCuen, during the summer, has returned to her home in Anderson.

Miss Drake, of Easley, is visiting Miss Maude Dockins on Pester street.

Miss Dora Hunt, of Tryon, Ga., is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. B. F. Aiken and family, after a visit to her brother, the Rev. M. M. McCuen, has returned to her home in Anderson.

Cannon Brazeale, who has been on the farm in the Whitefield section, has moved back to No. 4 with his family.

Doctor J. G. McAuley, a graduate pharmacist, of Walhalla, is in charge of No. 4 Drug Store.

NATIVES ALARMED

Reported Naval Encounter Off New Hampshire Coast Causes Anxiety.

(By Associated Press.)
 Isle of Shoals, N. H., Aug. 12.—The sound of big guns, apparently to the seaward, on the open sea, late today, gave rise to reports that a naval engagement had taken place off the New England coast. The reports, however, could not be substantiated. Powerful glasses did not disclose war vessels.
 Inquiry among the coast defenses developed that mortars had been discharged at Fort McKinley, at Portland, Me., nearly forty miles away, in a northerly direction.
 Some color was given to the story of a battle by the statement of Captain Dennison, of the coastwise steamer Governor Dingley, at Portland, that he had sighted a vessel which he thought was a British warship apparently pursuing another steamship.

VILLA AND CARRANZA

viously announced program. The entire plan as given out by close friends of Villa shows that the fighting general has drafted a scheme with which the present federal army and especially the generals now supporting the Carral movement are entirely in sympathy.

Officials, incidentally, have been advised that while the federal army is evacuating Mexico City to allow a peaceful entrance of the constitutional army without subjecting non-combatants in the capital to the dangers of a battle, the federal forces, estimated at 40,000 have not finally determined what to do. The federalists what guarantees and General Velasco, minister of war to Carranza, has indicated in an official communication to Carranza that if guarantees are not given and amnesty declared a counter revolution undoubtedly will follow and an effort be made to join forces with Villa.
