OLD VET RETIRED.
Placed on Retired List as a Brigadier General.
Washington, Aug. 15.—The senate today passed a bill to place Lieutenant Colonel Janius L. Powell, now the only officer in the regular army who served in the confederate side in the civil war, on the retired list as a brigadier general.
Among other Confederates who have been retired as brigadier generals were General Joseph Wheeler and General Fitzhugh Lee. Powell was permitted to enter the army as an assistant surgeon by special act of congress in 1879.

SAFE FROM HARM
Foreigners Cannot be Forced to Leave United States Against Their Wish.
Washington, August 15.—In answer to many appeals for information from naturalized citizens and foreign residents as to conditions under which they may be returned to their native lands for military service, Secretary Bryan today issued a statement saying the United States was not a party to any treaties under which such persons might be compelled to return for military service and saying there was no way in which they might be forced to join the armies so long as they remain in the United States.

NEUTRAL NATIONS MAY MAKE LOANS
Government Opposed to Floating Loans to Nations at War
(By Associated Press.)
Washington, August 15.—The United States government today announced itself as opposed to the floating of loans in this country for the benefit of any belligerent European power. Switzerland, a neutral power, inquired if she might float a loan in the United States and was informed the restriction would not apply to neutral countries.
J. P. Morgan and Company, approached by private bankers who wished to know whether if a loan should be desired by the French government it could be floated in the United States announced that it would take no action the state department might disapprove.
The following announcement of policy was issued by Secretary Bryan today at the direction of President Wilson:
"Inquiry having been made as to the attitude of this government in case American bankers are asked to make loans to foreign governments during the war in Europe, the following announcement is made:
"There is no reason why loans should not be made to the governments of neutral nations, but in the judgment of this nation loans by bankers to any foreign nations which is at war is inconsistent with the true spirit of neutrality."
This principle represents an advanced attitude on the part of the United States on a much mooted question. Hitherto loans have been floated in the United States as well as other neutral countries for the benefit of the belligerents.
International authorities have agreed that while the loaning of money is forbidden to neutral governments her subjects might engage in the practice.
Switzerland Wants Money.
Dr. Charles Paul Huebner, Swiss charge d'affaires, who had a long conference today with Secretary Bryan, said he had no information as to the amount of money desired by Switzerland. He said it was not a governmental loan but a private banking transaction. He said Switzerland needed money to keep her forces in the field to preserve her neutrality and for her internal needs.

OFFICER MAKES USE OF SABER
Strikes Defenseless Woman With Sword and Cuts Away With It
Munich, August 15.—A civil court proceeding, growing indirectly out of a trial by court martial has directed attention to an extraordinary case showing once more the relations existing between military persons and civilians. The case in question is some months old, but it escaped notice at the time it occurred. The defendant before the court martial was a Lieutenant Selder, of the garrison in Ingolstadt. The facts as brought out on trial were these:
Lieutenant Selder's man servant had a quarrel with the domestic servant of the landlord of the house in which the lieutenant and his wife had an apartment, in the course of which the maid declared that "the lieutenants are a dirty pack who don't clean up their mess. They are a brood." The lieutenant's wife scolded her husband. "This female says we are a brood," she said, pointing to the maid. The lieutenant thereupon struck the girl twice with his sabre. "You are acting like a washerwoman to mix up in such a quarrel," said the wife of the landlord, who had seen the occurrence. "You ought to be ashamed as an officer to strike a woman with your sword."
The lieutenant struck the woman in the face with his hand, she raised a broom against him and he attacked her with his sword, cutting both her hands.
The court martial found Selder guilty and sentenced him to 45 days imprisonment in a fortress. The superior military court at Nuremberg, to which the lieutenant appealed, acquitted him on the ground that he had acted in self defense. Actions for insult against the two women resulted in a fine of $12 for the wife of the landlord and $2.50 for the maid. Their appeals were dismissed.

PELZER VOTERS TRIED HECKLING
Insisted on Knowing How Candidates Stood for the United States Senate
The meeting at Pelzer yesterday was a repetition of the opening meeting at Honea Path in several respects, there was continual heckling during the period allotted to candidates for supervisor, but the climax was reached when F. A. Abrams, candidate for auditor, attempted to speak. The badinage of words and questions as to "Who you fur" made it impossible for Mr. Abrams to finish his speech until the chairman had made an appeal to the crowd to give each candidate a respectful hearing. The candidates spoke in the following order: Candidate for supervisor first, for auditor second, state senate third, followed by candidates for probate judge and treasurer. There were about 350 present, with a few ladies and children in the crowd. After the appeal made by the chairman to the voters, there was little heckling indulged in, and all of the candidates were given a respectful hearing.

GOOD NEWS
London, August 16.—According to a Brussels dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph Company, timed 9:30 p. m. Saturday, an official statement has been issued saying:
"The situation of our army continues excellent. Victorious engagements against the Germans have strengthened its morale and the strategic dispositions remain advantageous for us. Explosions in different directions indicate that our engineers are destroying bridges."
"Contact was made today between French and Germans with advantage to the French."
"The forts continue to hold out."
"On all the main roads around Brussels entrenchments have been thrown up for the reception of any of the German cavalry detachments which may approach the capital. This step has been taken as a police measure not as a part of the military operations."
The correspondent says he has no means of verifying the report of the death of General von Emmich.

ABBEVILLE VOTERS HEAR CANDIDATES
Large and Orderly Crowd Attended Campaign Meet Yesterday — Same Speeches
Special to The Intelligencer.
Abbeville, S. C., Aug. 15.—A lively crowd of voters greeted the state campaign party here today and the best of order prevailed. It was the largest audience faced by the campaigners in the piedmont section of the state.
B. F. Kelley and A. J. Bethea, candidates for lieutenant governor, continued their wordy fight and each charged the other with being a "coat tail swinger." Mr. Bethea caused much applause by his statement that if he was looking for a coal tail that he would prefer Martin F. Ansel to the governor.
This is the home town of A. W. Jones, comptroller general, and he was given an ovation and some flattery.
Charles Carroll Simms bitterly denounced the course of Richard I. Manning. He also scored the alleged Blasphemism of John G. Richards, who has so far failed to state for who he voted in 1912 in the race for governor. Other candidates denounced the elimination conference which was held in Columbia.
Mendel L. Smith said that he did not want the vote of the Charleston race track gamblers and the blind tiger.

Of Two Evils.
The little boy in this story from "Touche a Tout" was evidently a firm believer in the old adage, "Of two evils choose the less." Turning a corner at full speed he collided with the minister.
"Where are you running to, my little man?" asked the minister, when he had regained his breath.
"Home!" panted the boy. "Ma's going to spank me."
"What!" gasped the astonished minister. "Are you eager to have your mother spank you that you run home so fast?"
"No," shouted the boy over his shoulder as he resumed his homeward flight, "but if I don't get there before pa, he'll do it!"
