

Who Is 'Hon.' J. H. Patten?

A man signing himself J. H. Patten, and claiming to be general counsel of the Farmers Union, has written a letter which is being circulated, in which he urges the people to vote against the re-election of Congressman Aiken. He makes only the same charges that have already been threshed out in the campaign.

Inquiry develops the fact that Mr. Patten is a professional lobbyist in Washington. It is admitted that he is a somewhat more respectable man than a lobbyist of the Mulhall type, but he is a lobbyist nevertheless. Men of his class can thrive only when there are new men in Congress. Old members know them and will have nothing to do with them. Those who want to know more about this man Patten should inquire of Senator E. D. Smith, or any of the older members of the Senate or House of Representatives.

Patten is a native of Boston and has never lived in the South. It is not believed that a Massachusetts Republican will have very much influence in a Democratic Primary in South Carolina.

The friends of Mr. Dominick must be in desperate straits if they have to go all the way to Massachusetts and get a man of the Patten type to give testimony against Congressman Aiken.

GOOD LANDS SOLD

Anderson Real Estate and Investment Company Sells a Good Farm.
The Anderson Real Estate & Investment Company yesterday sold the O. E. Callahan place of 30 acres to J. P. Atlas. This land lies between Oakway and Fair Play and adjoins other lands of Mr. Atlas, so that he will be able to give it his personal attention. The land through that section is well watered, fresh and very strong. This part of the country lies close to the foothills of the mountains and for that reason seldom suffers for rain.

STATEMENT BY RICHARDS

Colombia, Sept. 2.—Major John G. Richards tonight gave out the following statement:
"I will return to Spartanburg in the morning to resume the vigorous campaign that I am making for the governorship. I spent the past few days making speeches to large and enthusiastic audiences and am very much encouraged by the reception accorded me. I am receiving letters and telegrams from every section of South Carolina, promising a vigorous and enthusiastic support, and I feel confident that I will be elected governor of South Carolina by a good majority in the Democratic primary to be held September 8."
