

SOCIETY

For Mr. and Mrs. Holroyd. Miss Rhoda Vandiver requests the pleasure of your company at dinner, Wednesday, September the ninth, at eight o'clock, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Holroyd.

Lawn Party. Misses Anne Gambrell, Evelyn Browne and Lydia McCully entertained with a lovely lawn party Tuesday evening on Misses Browne's and Gambrell's lawns. Japanese lanterns were strung across the lawn and in the ivy covered arbor lighted with lanterns Mrs. P. K. McCully and Miss Jean Cunningham served delicious nectar. After an interesting contest of "how many peas in the jar," Miss Frances Marshall was awarded the first prize, a box of candy, for the most correct guess and Miss Laurie Smothers a stick of red candy for the most incorrect.

Mrs. Gambrell, Mrs. Jess Stribling, Misses Caroline Vance, Lal Cunningham and Jessie Browne served the guests a tempting ice course and mints. Those accepting invitations to this charming party were Misses Caroline Banks, Victoria Earle, Annie Earle Farmer, Marcella Quest, Lula Hammett, Laura Glenn, Anna Bell Glenn, Francis Marshall, Virginia Marshall, Hazel Murphy, Elizabeth Kistler from Charlotte; Thelma Osborne, Sara Stevens, Dorothy Sullivan, Lucia Sullivan, Marie Edmonds, Elizabeth Wright, Sara and Carolyn McCall, Lydia and Kathryn Burriss, Edna Thompson, Clarice Townsend, Sabal Wigginton, Virginia Gilmer, Laurie Smothers, and Julia Ledbetter; Tom Bailey, Todd Barton, Clarence Brown, Sam Green, Cal Harris, Wade Humphreys, William Martin, Harry Orr, Jr., Harmon Geiger, Dean Russell, James Smith Pat Sullivan, Fred Tolly, John Thompson, Sandford Vandiver, Edward Vandiver, Julian Webb, Jeff Webb, Ernest Cochran, Jr., Richard Laughlin, John Will Robertson, Frank Whitte, Andrew Hood, Pierce Browne, Dan Ledbetter, Clair Cobb, and Paul Rich.

King-Lewis. A pretty wedding was solemnized last Sunday when Miss Sallie King and W. H. Lewis were married. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. King, on I street, the Rev. S. B. White officiating. Misses Willie Mae Coleman and Emma White were the bride's maids and Miss Ruth King her maid of honor. Woolie Daniel acted as best man. The bride wore a lovely wedding gown of white and her bouquet was roses and ferns. Immediately after the ceremony a course dinner was served the bride and other guests.

After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will make their home in Easley, where Mr. Lewis holds a responsible position at the Easley Cotton Mill.

Tolbert-Watkins. A large concourse of relatives and friends assembled in the First Methodist church Saturday evening, August 29th, to witness the marriage of Miss Mamie Gray Tolbert, of Laurens, and Mr. Thomas Del Watkins, of Anderson. The church was unusually beautiful, decorated in a simple and effective manner with ferns and palms placed in the chancel and organ loft. The attendants were Misses Lois Watkins, sister of the groom; Lois Gray, of Gray Court; Sadie Sullivan, Charlotte McGowan, of Laurens; Messrs Albert and Ellis Gray, of Gray Court; William Mahon, of Spartanburg; R. C. Gray, of Laurens. The maids were attired in lingerie dresses and white lace picture hats and carried pink and white asters. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Tolbert, sister of the bride, was gowned in a lovely Greek costume of white and blue with white picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses, tied with tulle. Promptly at 7:30 o'clock Mrs. C. H. Flicks began an appropriate musical program and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bride was led to her father's side. She was lovely in a modish traveling suit of blue with accessories to match, carrying a bouquet of white roses, orange blossoms, fern and tulle. She was joined at the altar by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. R. W. Watkins. The wedding was solemnized by Rev. J. R. T. Major, using the ring ceremony.

Mrs. Watkins is a very popular and intellectual woman, a graduate of Winthrop college, and is greatly admired for her sweet, womanly character. Mr. Watkins is principal of the schools of Thomasville, Ga., and an energetic and successful teacher. After the bridal trip, they will be at home at Thomasville. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Deaton, of Spartanburg; Mrs. M. B. Koon, Mrs. C. C. and Mrs. W. B. Martin, of Greenville; Misses Sadie, Dora, Leslie, and Jessie Harris, Louise Gray, Lois Watkins, Clinton Watkins, Roy Watkins, and Wayne Watkins, of Anderson; Mr. Wakefield, William Mahon, of Spartanburg; Albert and Ellis Gray, of Gray Court. Parties for Wedding Party. Miss Margaret Tolbert was hostess at an elegant six-course luncheon in honor of the Tolbert-Watkins bridal party Tuesday morning at her home on West Main street. The home was beautifully decorated in pink and white, the same color scheme being effectively used in the refreshments and place cards.

Friday evening Mrs. Frank P. McGowan entertained the members of the Tolbert-Watkins bridal party at a sumptuous dinner at her home in the eastern part of the city. Pink roses, candles, and shades lent the same effect to the color scheme that was so beautifully carried out at the wedding itself. After the conclusion of dinner, the evening was delightfully spent in conversation and in other diversions. Miss Sadie Sullivan entertained the female members of the Tolbert-Watkins bridal party at a very delightful affair Friday morning. A delicious salad course and tea was served, the color scheme of pink being carried out in decorations and refreshments. The game of Fofy Two furnished an entertaining feature of the morning. Beautiful Birthday Party. Mrs. T. A. Wigginton entertained with a beautiful party Wednesday afternoon at her home on Greenville street in honor of the birthdays of her attractive little daughters, Rosamond and Adelaide Wigginton. The color scheme of the afternoon was pink and white, and this was carried out in many pretty details, especially in the souvenirs given the guests. The little folks played games and had a good time generally, and later in the afternoon were invited in to enjoy the birthday cakes which sparkled with their pretty pink candles. The table was adorned with pink streamers from the chandelier and pink shaded candles cast a soft glow over the children's faces. Little Miss Adelaide Wigginton and her little friends were invited in to the dining room first and her cake held six candles, and after they had all been served little Miss Rosamond Wigginton and her guests were taken in and found her cake with the seven tiny candles. Delicious ices, cakes and candies were served and punch was served during the afternoon. Many pretty gifts were received by the popular little hostesses.

new home was given a number of useful gifts for her kitchen by the guests present. Mrs. Townsend assisted by Miss Ewbank Taylor served a tempting salad course. The guests were Mrs. Joe Fretwell, Jr., Mrs. Raymond Fretwell, Misses Ernie Harrison, Rosa Simpson, Pearl Maass, Annie and Ruth Anderson, Lucy and Lillian Maxwell, Carrie Fretwell, E. Z. Templeton, Ewbank Taylor, Bell Norris, Emma Calcart, Florida and Gene Harris, Kathleen Norrkey, Linda Thompson, Jessie Browne, Caroline Vance, Jean Cunningham, Miss Langley and Mrs. G. B. Greene.

Sewing Party. A delightful little sewing party was given Thursday morning when Miss Anna Tribble entertained a dozen girls at her home on North Main street. A delicious salad course was served the guests who were Misses Jean Cunningham, Lalla Marshall, Laura Horton, Elizabeth Fretwell, Agatha Spellman, Lydia Bewley, Lou Ellen Ligon, Lorona Cummings, Lunelle McGee, Ruth Anderson, Rhoda Vandiver, Lucile Burriss, and Frances Tribble.

Young Women's Society. A number of Anderson people accepted invitations issued by the Young Women's Society of Mt. Creek Church for Tuesday evening, for a party to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Masters at their country home five miles from the city. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and in a beautifully decorated corner refreshment punch was served throughout the evening. Tempting refreshments were served the guests.

R. E. Lee Chapter. The meeting of the Robert E. Lee chapter on Friday afternoon was the sweetest at the same time the saddest in its history. Since the last chapter gathering, the two oldest and best beloved members of the organization have answered their last roll-call. As long as life and strength remained to them, the Robert E. Lee chapter had no more loyal or interested members. Their sweet faces and gentle manners brightened every meeting, and truly urgent was the cause that prevented their attendance. Then this first gathering after their falling on sleep, was dedicated to them. Mrs. Sallie Seaborn Sloan, and Mrs. Lizzie Hammond Bleckley, Resolutions in honor of Mrs. Sloan were read by Mrs. R. C. Webb, resolutions in honor of Mrs. Bleckley, by Mrs. J. P. Sullivan. A beautiful letter of appreciation to the chapters love, and attention to Mrs. Bleckley was written by her daughter, and read by Mrs. J. M. Paget. Mr. O. L. Martin, a former pastor, and a warm friend of Mrs. Sloan, then told the audience something of Mrs. Sloan's beautiful life and character as he knew it. Mrs. Grace Cochran in a sweet way told something of her early friendship and school girl associations with Mrs. Bleckley. She also read a letter which she had received from Mrs. Bleckley last winter from Baltimore, a variable voice from the tomb. Mrs. Nora Hubbard, in a talk straight from the heart spoke of her associations with Mrs. Bleckley in W. C. T. U. work. Gen. Bonham paid a beautiful and heartfelt tribute to Mrs. Bleckley as he has known her. A tribute of love written by Mrs. R. C. Webb lovingly recalling the associations of a lifetime with her friend and kinswoman "Cousin Lizzie" was read by Mrs. J. R. Vandiver. Mrs. Vandiver paid feeling tribute to both Mrs. Bleckley and Mrs. Sloan as she has been associated with them in chapter, and in social life. Mrs. B. F. Wilson read a beautiful testimonial of love and appreciation of Mrs. Sloan. Music for the occasion was arranged by Mrs. George Butler, and was furnished by Mrs. Wm. Buldrow. Mrs. W. H. Nardin and Miss Martha Bonham in beautiful and appealing solos, and a chorus of the well known hymn "There'll be no dark valley where Jesus comes," in commemoration of a characteristic incident in Mrs. Bleckley's life. Some years ago on one of her many trips, she with a party of people was walking through a very dark tunnel. A woman slipped and fell, and in her fright screamed. The black darkness prevented the crowd from seeing what had happened, a panic was imminent. Mrs. Bleckley's unflinching quick wit came into play. She started singing that hymn, which was taken up by others, the tumult quieted, and a panic averted. At the close of the hot afternoon, Mrs. Bonham and Miss Welsh, assisted by Misses Martha Bonham and Rhoda Vandiver, served a cooling tea with cake to the audience. Each guest present went away with a feeling of renewed love for, and pride in the two noble women, who had so long been among them, gentle sustaining spirits, worthy of all emulation. Mrs. M. L. Bonham, and the Members of the Various Clubs, especially the R. E. Lee Chapter of the City of Anderson, S. C. My Dear Mrs. Bonham: We desire to express to you, and through you, the members of those clubs who purpose to meet and do honor to the memory of her whom you all loved so well, our love and appreciation of your intended action. Love, because you are her friends, and appreciation for all that you did to make her a happy member of your club. We rejoice with you that she in return gave so much, and added so much to the pleasure and usefulness of all the organizations, and that you feel greatly her loss we are fully aware. Especially do we feel and appreciate your love and sweet tenderness to her during those dark and shadowy days when she lay prostrate on her couch, her every moment full of pain and agonizing hours we ever forget those dark and dark hours when she kept her eyes fixed on plants and flowers, and sometimes, when a moment of peace would come, her beautiful eyes would gaze long and lovingly upon them, and she would inhale their sweet perfume. And then again your almost daily visits to make inquiries, and your sad and tearful faces as you went away utterly powerless to stay the grim monster, or allay the relentless hand of disease, your hearts would be uplifted to God in prayer for her relief. At last the hour came, you heard the sad tidings with genuine grief, for you all loved her, and felt a personal loss. You came and sent pale sweet flowers, and entwined the ivy and laurel into wreaths and garlands, and laid them about her loved form. You whispered words of comfort and hope to those who were nearest and dearest. You followed with hushed footsteps to the grave, and at the close of a brilliant day as the sun was sinking in the western sky, and evening lit her faint star, you saw the curtain of night fall upon her so loved and honored, and now you meet today to tell of her noble deeds and mingle your tears together. It is indeed good to know that her friends will always remember her, and will think of her thus: There came a Soul to the Gate of Heaven—gliding slow. "A soul that was ransomed, and forgiven, and white as snow. To the Golden Gate of Morn they carried her, and the angels all were silent. Now, open the gate, and let her in, And fling it wide. For she has been cleansed from pain and sin— The angels were silent, and we know that she entered in." Sincerely your friend, MRS. J. F. FRETWELL AND SISTERS Sunset Forest, Sept. 4th, 1914.

Senior Philathea Picnic. Thursday afternoon instead of having their regular social meeting the Senior Philathea Class of the First Presbyterian Church spent the afternoon in the Varina Brown park in North Anderson. A beautiful picnic luncheon was spread and a thoroughly good time enjoyed by all.

Eshew-Auld. A number of Anderson people have received the following invitation: Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Lawrence Eshew request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mary Lois to Mr. Julius Augustus Auld Wednesday morning, September the sixteenth at half after eleven o'clock. Baptist Church Pendleton, South Carolina.

Garvey-Jones. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. L. announce the marriage of their daughter Ruth Brinkerhoff to Mr. Theodore Jones Thursday morning, September the 28th at eighty-thirty o'clock. At home in Anderson, S. C., after a two weeks' bridal trip to Knoxville and Hendersonville, Greenville Piedmont.

For Mrs. McLean. Mrs. William McLean was the guest of honor at a delightful but informal party Thursday morning when Miss Alberta Brock entertained at her home on South McDuffie street. The guests were asked to bring their sewing and after an hour spent in this way the hostess invited the guests into the dining room, where an elaborate course luncheon was served. Those accepting Miss Brock's hospitality were Mrs. Melissa, Mrs. Louis Horton, Mrs. Morrison, Misses Marie Spivey, Ruth Fretwell, Ella Mae Cummings and Lela Thompson.

Afternoon Party. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Macriest was a charming little hostess, Wednesday afternoon when she asked several of her little playmates to spend the afternoon with her. After an exciting game of "Hunt the Peanut" the little guests were served cream and cake. A pink and white color scheme was used in every detail.

Card Club. Miss Ella Mae Cummings was hostess to the members of the Calhoun Street Card Club Friday afternoon. Two tables were filled with congenial players, and after a number of interesting rubbern Miss Lorenz Cummings served the guests a tempting salad course. Those enjoying this party were Mrs. Levin Sanders, Mrs. Keith Fretwell, Mrs. T. L. Cely, Mrs. G. B. Greene, Misses Caroline Vance, Lillian Cunningham and Caroline Vance.

Junior Philathea. Mrs. Bennett Townsend, the teacher of the Junior Philathea class of the First Presbyterian Church was hostess to the members of her class Thursday afternoon at her home on North McDuffie street. This was an unusually interesting meeting as Misses Florida and Gene Harris, who have recently returned from Europe, showed the class many pictures and told of many of their delightful and exciting experiences. Miss Pearl Maas gave a vocal solo, Miss Annie Anderson an instrumental solo and Miss Carrie Fretwell a reading. At the conclusion of this program and a short business session, Miss Clarice Townsend and Georgia Harris arrived, wearing their raincoats and bringing a huge umbrella filled with a shower for the hostess. Mrs. Townsend, who has recently moved into her she would inhale their sweet perfume. And then again your almost daily visits to make inquiries, and your sad and tearful faces as you went away utterly powerless to stay the grim monster, or allay the relentless hand of disease, your hearts would be uplifted to God in prayer for her relief. At last the hour came, you heard the sad tidings with genuine grief, for you all loved her, and felt a personal loss. You came and sent pale sweet flowers, and entwined the ivy and laurel into wreaths and garlands, and laid them about her loved form. You whispered words of comfort and hope to those who were nearest and dearest. You followed with hushed footsteps to the grave, and at the close of a brilliant day as the sun was sinking in the western sky, and evening lit her faint star, you saw the curtain of night fall upon her so loved and honored, and now you meet today to tell of her noble deeds and mingle your tears together. It is indeed good to know that her friends will always remember her, and will think of her thus: There came a Soul to the Gate of Heaven—gliding slow. "A soul that was ransomed, and forgiven, and white as snow. To the Golden Gate of Morn they carried her, and the angels all were silent. Now, open the gate, and let her in, And fling it wide. For she has been cleansed from pain and sin— The angels were silent, and we know that she entered in." Sincerely your friend, MRS. J. F. FRETWELL AND SISTERS Sunset Forest, Sept. 4th, 1914.

There came a Soul to the Gate of Heaven—gliding slow. "A soul that was ransomed, and forgiven, and white as snow. To the Golden Gate of Morn they carried her, and the angels all were silent. Now, open the gate, and let her in, And fling it wide. For she has been cleansed from pain and sin— The angels were silent, and we know that she entered in." Sincerely your friend, MRS. J. F. FRETWELL AND SISTERS Sunset Forest, Sept. 4th, 1914.

Mrs. S. I. Finley, who lives near Iva, was hostess at a delightful lawn party Thursday evening. A number of Anderson girls and men went down in machines and a thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all. Delicious food was served.

Announcement Party. One of the most interesting, and also most delightful parties of the week was given Thursday afternoon when Mrs. John A. Pruitt entertained at her home on Greenville street. Over all the house a pink color scheme was observed. Quantities of pink roses filling the vases and bowls. After the guests had all arrived little Miss Evelyn Pruitt entered disguised as Dan Cupid. Each of the guests was given a tiny letter and when opened a message was found, signed Dan Cupid, announcing the engagement of Miss Ruth Pruitt and Edwin Kinney, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride on October the 1st. In the living room the color scheme was used. A tall arrangement of roses was the central decoration and around this were pink shaded candles. Hanging from the chandelier was a beautiful wreath of roses with a dainty little cupid perched upon it. Mrs. O. D. Burriss and Mrs. G. T. Johnston served the guests block cream in the pink and white. Those accepting this invitation were Misses Anna Bell and Pal Dean, Marie Madgett, Edith Brooker, Frances and Mary Riley, Louise Higby, Lou Lattimer, Joseph Hembree, Mae Hellams, Vera Pruitt, Kathleen and Lunelle McGee, Nell Pruitt, Lois Reese, Clara Sargent, and Pearl Gideon.

Engagement Announced. Abbeville, Sept. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hines, of Abbeville, announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Mary Gilliam Hodges, to William George Harper, the wedding to take place the latter part of October.

Dancing Party. One of the most delightful parties enjoyed by the members of the younger society set was the dancing party given Friday evening when Miss Alberta Fryer entertained at her home on West Whitner street. From nine to twelve the dancers were served a tempting punch by Misses Annie Earle Farmer, Victoria Earle, Virginia Gilmer and Cal Harris, and at midnight cream and cake was served. Miss Farmer's list of guests included Misses May Ligon, Julia Ledbetter, Molly Ligon, Frances and Lela Anderson, Mary Stark Watkins, Emily Sullivan, Helen Harris, Mattie Mayfield, Lillian Busby, Grace Fripp, of Charleston; Esther Lassiter, Evelyn Hoke, of Birmingham; Clara Birdline, and Lal Cunningham; Paul Browne, Ralph Smith, Walter Robertson, William Sullivan, Robert Burris, Walter Quest, Dan Ledbetter, Roger Barton, Miss Ligon, Geo. Prince, Roy Major, Bob Webb, John Townsend, Oscar Martin, Ralph Thompson, Louis Osborne, Harold Sullivan, Floyd Parks, Glenn Lassiter, and Barwell Lindley.

Miss Edmonds Entertained. Miss Macie Edmonds entertained most delightfully Saturday afternoon at her home, West Market street, from four to six. Many delightful games were played and late in the afternoon delicious refreshments served the guests.

For Mrs. Workman. Mrs. Paul Workman of Rock Hill who is the attractive guest of Misses Lela and Mae Russell was the guest of honor at a delightful porch party Tuesday morning. Tables were placed on the porch and the guests spent the morning playing Bunco. After a number of interesting games a luncheon was served on the tables.

Dinner for Visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Russell entertained most delightfully on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Paul Workman of Rock Hill. Covers were laid for the following guests and a course dinner was served: Mrs. Workman, Miss Lela Russell, Mrs. C. E. Burtis, Mrs. Minnie Milford, Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Breaux, Mrs. A. G. Fretwell and Mrs. Morrimer McCown.

A Parents' Post Party. The Wesley Philathea class of the St. John's Methodist church have sent out invitations to friends asking them to assist them in a parcels post party on Friday afternoon and evening. These packages will be contributed by different ones, and sold for 10 cents without anyone knowing just what is in them, but they are assured that all will contain articles worth the money. Cream and cake will be served.

Ald Society of St. John's. The Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the church. Wilson Memorial Hospital Plans. The first meeting of the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Association was held during past week in Rome, Ga. Many of the members were girlhood friends of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson when Ellen Axson she was a prominent figure in the social life of this city in the Georgia hills. Steps will be taken toward a permanent memorial. While plans have been definitely formulated, it will take the form of a hospital to be called the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Hospital. All through the spring and early summer the citizens have been planting flowers in every available place, and tending them with loving care. It was their wish that the streets of Rome should be abloom with lovely flowers during "home coming week" in October, so that everywhere Mrs. Wilson passed fragrant blossoms would smile a welcome to the first lady in the land. It was to be a beautiful expression of a beautiful idea. Now that home coming week is so sadly a thing of the past it is planned to make the hospital a fitting memorial to a beloved woman whose whole life stood not only for the best expression of life in the home, but for the development of the wider interests to be found outside the home. It is generally conceded that the scope of work to be accomplished in a hospital for the relief of suffering humanity will prove a far more lasting memorial down the years than the most exquisite statue wrought in marble or bronze. It is thought by those who knew Mrs. Wilson best that this plan in its full fruition could perhaps have found its echo in the heart of the wife of the president of the United States. —Athens Herald.

Band Concert Today. First Regiment Band of Williamston To Give Excellent Program. The First Regiment band of Williamston will give a concert in the Chataqua park at Williamston Sunday afternoon. There will be special treats over the Piedmont and Northern and special rates. The following round trip rates have been offered: Greenwood 50c; Hodges 25c; Shoals Junction 40c; Donalds 35c; Hones Path 25c; Anderson 25c; Greenville 35c; Piedmont 20c; Belton 20c; Pelzer 10c; Taylors 50c; Chick Springs 50c; Greer 50c; Duncan 60c; Tuckapaun 75c; Spartanburg $1.00. The following special program has been arranged and the First Regiment band is considered one of the best in the state. Don't miss this grand concert. Part One. March—Battleship, Connecticut, The Falton Two Step—Peaceful Henry, Kelly Selections—Gems from the Operas—Berry Waltz—Selected. Part Two. March—18th Regiment, Fanella March—Lord Baltimore, Fillmore Part Two. March—Yankee Notions, Sanglear Overture—Three Merry (Knights). Part Three. Two Step—Peg O' My Heart, Hays March—Eli Capitan, Seosa Waltz—1 miss You Most of All, Mozzoco March—Queen of the Surf, Klondike—Star Spangled Banner, Key Other selections will be used in addition to the above list.

new home was given a number of useful gifts for her kitchen by the guests present. Mrs. Townsend assisted by Miss Ewbank Taylor served a tempting salad course. The guests were Mrs. Joe Fretwell, Jr., Mrs. Raymond Fretwell, Misses Ernie Harrison, Rosa Simpson, Pearl Maass, Annie and Ruth Anderson, Lucy and Lillian Maxwell, Carrie Fretwell, E. Z. Templeton, Ewbank Taylor, Bell Norris, Emma Calcart, Florida and Gene Harris, Kathleen Norrkey, Linda Thompson, Jessie Browne, Caroline Vance, Jean Cunningham, Miss Langley and Mrs. G. B. Greene.

Sewing Party. A delightful little sewing party was given Thursday morning when Miss Anna Tribble entertained a dozen girls at her home on North Main street. A delicious salad course was served the guests who were Misses Jean Cunningham, Lalla Marshall, Laura Horton, Elizabeth Fretwell, Agatha Spellman, Lydia Bewley, Lou Ellen Ligon, Lorona Cummings, Lunelle McGee, Ruth Anderson, Rhoda Vandiver, Lucile Burriss, and Frances Tribble.

Young Women's Society. A number of Anderson people accepted invitations issued by the Young Women's Society of Mt. Creek Church for Tuesday evening, for a party to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Masters at their country home five miles from the city. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and in a beautifully decorated corner refreshment punch was served throughout the evening. Tempting refreshments were served the guests.

R. E. Lee Chapter. The meeting of the Robert E. Lee chapter on Friday afternoon was the sweetest at the same time the saddest in its history. Since the last chapter gathering, the two oldest and best beloved members of the organization have answered their last roll-call. As long as life and strength remained to them, the Robert E. Lee chapter had no more loyal or interested members. Their sweet faces and gentle manners brightened every meeting, and truly urgent was the cause that prevented their attendance. Then this first gathering after their falling on sleep, was dedicated to them. Mrs. Sallie Seaborn Sloan, and Mrs. Lizzie Hammond Bleckley, Resolutions in honor of Mrs. Sloan were read by Mrs. R. C. Webb, resolutions in honor of Mrs. Bleckley, by Mrs. J. P. Sullivan. A beautiful letter of appreciation to the chapters love, and attention to Mrs. Bleckley was written by her daughter, and read by Mrs. J. M. Paget. Mr. O. L. Martin, a former pastor, and a warm friend of Mrs. Sloan, then told the audience something of Mrs. Sloan's beautiful life and character as he knew it. Mrs. Grace Cochran in a sweet way told something of her early friendship and school girl associations with Mrs. Bleckley. She also read a letter which she had received from Mrs. Bleckley last winter from Baltimore, a variable voice from the tomb. Mrs. Nora Hubbard, in a talk straight from the heart spoke of her associations with Mrs. Bleckley in W. C. T. U. work. Gen. Bonham paid a beautiful and heartfelt tribute to Mrs. Bleckley as he has known her. A tribute of love written by Mrs. R. C. Webb lovingly recalling the associations of a lifetime with her friend and kinswoman "Cousin Lizzie" was read by Mrs. J. R. Vandiver. Mrs. Vandiver paid feeling tribute to both Mrs. Bleckley and Mrs. Sloan as she has been associated with them in chapter, and in social life. Mrs. B. F. Wilson read a beautiful testimonial of love and appreciation of Mrs. Sloan. Music for the occasion was arranged by Mrs. George Butler, and was furnished by Mrs. Wm. Buldrow. Mrs. W. H. Nardin and Miss Martha Bonham in beautiful and appealing solos, and a chorus of the well known hymn "There'll be no dark valley where Jesus comes," in commemoration of a characteristic incident in Mrs. Bleckley's life. Some years ago on one of her many trips, she with a party of people was walking through a very dark tunnel. A woman slipped and fell, and in her fright screamed. The black darkness prevented the crowd from seeing what had happened, a panic was imminent. Mrs. Bleckley's unflinching quick wit came into play. She started singing that hymn, which was taken up by others, the tumult quieted, and a panic averted. At the close of the hot afternoon, Mrs. Bonham and Miss Welsh, assisted by Misses Martha Bonham and Rhoda Vandiver, served a cooling tea with cake to the audience. Each guest present went away with a feeling of renewed love for, and pride in the two noble women, who had so long been among them, gentle sustaining spirits, worthy of all emulation. Mrs. M. L. Bonham, and the Members of the Various Clubs, especially the R. E. Lee Chapter of the City of Anderson, S. C. My Dear Mrs. Bonham: We desire to express to you, and through you, the members of those clubs who purpose to meet and do honor to the memory of her whom you all loved so well, our love and appreciation of your intended action. Love, because you are her friends, and appreciation for all that you did to make her a happy member of your club. We rejoice with you that she in return gave so much, and added so much to the pleasure and usefulness of all the organizations, and that you feel greatly her loss we are fully aware. Especially do we feel and appreciate your love and sweet tenderness to her during those dark and shadowy days when she lay prostrate on her couch, her every moment full of pain and agonizing hours we ever forget those dark and dark hours when she kept her eyes fixed on plants and flowers, and sometimes, when a moment of peace would come, her beautiful eyes would gaze long and lovingly upon them, and she would inhale their sweet perfume. And then again your almost daily visits to make inquiries, and your sad and tearful faces as you went away utterly powerless to stay the grim monster, or allay the relentless hand of disease, your hearts would be uplifted to God in prayer for her relief. At last the hour came, you heard the sad tidings with genuine grief, for you all loved her, and felt a personal loss. You came and sent pale sweet flowers, and entwined the ivy and laurel into wreaths and garlands, and laid them about her loved form. You whispered words of comfort and hope to those who were nearest and dearest. You followed with hushed footsteps to the grave, and at the close of a brilliant day as the sun was sinking in the western sky, and evening lit her faint star, you saw the curtain of night fall upon her so loved and honored, and now you meet today to tell of her noble deeds and mingle your tears together. It is indeed good to know that her friends will always remember her, and will think of her thus: There came a Soul to the Gate of Heaven—gliding slow. "A soul that was ransomed, and forgiven, and white as snow. To the Golden Gate of Morn they carried her, and the angels all were silent. Now, open the gate, and let her in, And fling it wide. For she has been cleansed from pain and sin— The angels were silent, and we know that she entered in." Sincerely your friend, MRS. J. F. FRETWELL AND SISTERS Sunset Forest, Sept. 4th, 1914.

There came a Soul to the Gate of Heaven—gliding slow. "A soul that was ransomed, and forgiven, and white as snow. To the Golden Gate of Morn they carried her, and the angels all were silent. Now, open the gate, and let her in, And fling it wide. For she has been cleansed from pain and sin— The angels were silent, and we know that she entered in." Sincerely your friend, MRS. J. F. FRETWELL AND SISTERS Sunset Forest, Sept. 4th, 1914.

Mrs. S. I. Finley, who lives near Iva, was hostess at a delightful lawn party Thursday evening. A number of Anderson girls and men went down in machines and a thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all. Delicious food was served.

Announcement Party. One of the most interesting, and also most delightful parties of the week was given Thursday afternoon when Mrs. John A. Pruitt entertained at her home on Greenville street. Over all the house a pink color scheme was observed. Quantities of pink roses filling the vases and bowls. After the guests had all arrived little Miss Evelyn Pruitt entered disguised as Dan Cupid. Each of the guests was given a tiny letter and when opened a message was found, signed Dan Cupid, announcing the engagement of Miss Ruth Pruitt and Edwin Kinney, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride on October the 1st. In the living room the color scheme was used. A tall arrangement of roses was the central decoration and around this were pink shaded candles. Hanging from the chandelier was a beautiful wreath of roses with a dainty little cupid perched upon it. Mrs. O. D. Burriss and Mrs. G. T. Johnston served the guests block cream in the pink and white. Those accepting this invitation were Misses Anna Bell and Pal Dean, Marie Madgett, Edith Brooker, Frances and Mary Riley, Louise Higby, Lou Lattimer, Joseph Hembree, Mae Hellams, Vera Pruitt, Kathleen and Lunelle McGee, Nell Pruitt, Lois Reese, Clara Sargent, and Pearl Gideon.

Engagement Announced. Abbeville, Sept. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hines, of Abbeville, announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Mary Gilliam Hodges, to William George Harper, the wedding to take place the latter part of October.

Dancing Party. One of the most delightful parties enjoyed by the members of the younger society set was the dancing party given Friday evening when Miss Alberta Fryer entertained at her home on West Whitner street. From nine to twelve the dancers were served a tempting punch by Misses Annie Earle Farmer, Victoria Earle, Virginia Gilmer and Cal Harris, and at midnight cream and cake was served. Miss Farmer's list of guests included Misses May Ligon, Julia Ledbetter, Molly Ligon, Frances and Lela Anderson, Mary Stark Watkins, Emily Sullivan, Helen Harris, Mattie Mayfield, Lillian Busby, Grace Fripp, of Charleston; Esther Lassiter, Evelyn Hoke, of Birmingham; Clara Birdline, and Lal Cunningham; Paul Browne, Ralph Smith, Walter Robertson, William Sullivan, Robert Burris, Walter Quest, Dan Ledbetter, Roger Barton, Miss Ligon, Geo. Prince, Roy Major, Bob Webb, John Townsend, Oscar Martin, Ralph Thompson, Louis Osborne, Harold Sullivan, Floyd Parks, Glenn Lassiter, and Barwell Lindley.

Miss Edmonds Entertained. Miss Macie Edmonds entertained most delightfully Saturday afternoon at her home, West Market street, from four to six. Many delightful games were played and late in the afternoon delicious refreshments served the guests.

For Mrs. Workman. Mrs. Paul Workman of Rock Hill who is the attractive guest of Misses Lela and Mae Russell was the guest of honor at a delightful porch party Tuesday morning. Tables were placed on the porch and the guests spent the morning playing Bunco. After a number of interesting games a luncheon was served on the tables.

Dinner for Visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Russell entertained most delightfully on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Paul Workman of Rock Hill. Covers were laid for the following guests and a course dinner was served: Mrs. Workman, Miss Lela Russell, Mrs. C. E. Burtis, Mrs. Minnie Milford, Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Breaux, Mrs. A. G. Fretwell and Mrs. Morrimer McCown.

sent out invitations to friends asking them to assist them in a parcels post party on Friday afternoon and evening. These packages will be contributed by different ones, and sold for 10 cents without anyone knowing just what is in them, but they are assured that all will contain articles worth the money. Cream and cake will be served.

Ald Society of St. John's. The Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the church. Wilson Memorial Hospital Plans. The first meeting of the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Association was held during past week in Rome, Ga. Many of the members were girlhood friends of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson when Ellen Axson she was a prominent figure in the social life of this city in the Georgia hills. Steps will be taken toward a permanent memorial. While plans have been definitely formulated, it will take the form of a hospital to be called the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Hospital. All through the spring and early summer the citizens have been planting flowers in every available place, and tending them with loving care. It was their wish that the streets of Rome should be abloom with lovely flowers during "home coming week" in October, so that everywhere Mrs. Wilson passed fragrant blossoms would smile a welcome to the first lady in the land. It was to be a beautiful expression of a beautiful idea. Now that home coming week is so sadly a thing of the past it is planned to make the hospital a fitting memorial to a beloved woman whose whole life stood not only for the best expression of life in the home, but for the development of the wider interests to be found outside the home. It is generally conceded that the scope of work to be accomplished in a hospital for the relief of suffering humanity will prove a far more lasting memorial down the years than the most exquisite statue wrought in marble or bronze. It is thought by those who knew Mrs. Wilson best that this plan in its full fruition could perhaps have found its echo in the heart of the wife of the president of the United States. —Athens Herald.

Ald Society of St. John's. The Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the church. Wilson Memorial Hospital Plans. The first meeting of the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Association was held during past week in Rome, Ga. Many of the members were girlhood friends of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson when Ellen Axson she was a prominent figure in the social life of this city in the Georgia hills. Steps will be taken toward a permanent memorial. While plans have been definitely formulated, it will take the form of a hospital to be called the Ellen Axson Wilson Memorial Hospital. All through the spring and early summer the citizens have been planting flowers in every available place, and tending them with loving care. It was their wish that the streets of Rome should be abloom with lovely flowers during "home coming week" in October, so that everywhere Mrs. Wilson passed fragrant blossoms would smile a welcome to the first lady in the land. It was to be a beautiful expression of a beautiful idea. Now that home coming week is so sadly a thing of the past it is planned to make the hospital a fitting memorial to a beloved woman whose whole life stood not only for the best expression of life in the home, but for the development of the wider interests to be found outside the home. It is generally conceded that the scope of work to be accomplished in a hospital for the relief of suffering humanity will prove a far more lasting memorial down the years than the most exquisite statue wrought in marble or bronze. It is thought by those who knew Mrs. Wilson best that this plan in its full fruition could perhaps have found its echo in the heart of the wife of the president of the United States. —Athens Herald.

Band Concert Today. First Regiment Band of Williamston To Give Excellent Program. The First Regiment band of Williamston will give a concert in the Chataqua park at Williamston Sunday afternoon. There will be special treats over the Piedmont and Northern and special rates. The following round trip rates have been offered: Greenwood 50c; Hodges 25c; Shoals Junction 40c; Donalds 35c; Hones Path 25c; Anderson 25c; Greenville 35c; Piedmont 20c; Belton 20c; Pelzer 10c; Taylors 50c; Chick Springs 50c; Greer 50c; Duncan 60c; Tuckapaun 75c; Spartanburg $1.00. The following special program has been arranged and the First Regiment band is considered one of the best in the state. Don't miss this grand concert. Part One. March—Battleship, Connecticut, The Falton Two Step—Peaceful Henry, Kelly Selections—Gems from the Operas—Berry Waltz—Selected. Part Two. March—18th Regiment, Fanella March—Lord Baltimore, Fillmore Part Two. March—Yankee Notions, Sanglear Overture—Three Merry (Knights). Part Three. Two Step—Peg O' My Heart, Hays March—Eli Capitan, Seosa Waltz—1 miss You Most of All, Mozzoco March—Queen of the Surf, Klondike—Star Spangled Banner, Key Other selections will be used in addition to the above list.

Band Concert Today. First Regiment Band of Williamston To Give Excellent Program. The First Regiment band of Williamston will give a concert in the Chataqua park at Williamston Sunday afternoon. There will be special treats over the Piedmont and Northern and special rates. The following round trip rates have been offered: Greenwood 50c; Hodges 25c; Shoals Junction 40c; Donalds 35c; Hones Path 25c; Anderson 25c; Greenville 35c; Piedmont 20c; Belton 20c; Pelzer 10c; Taylors 50c; Chick Springs 50c; Greer 50c; Duncan 60c; Tuckapaun 75c; Spartanburg $1.00. The following special program has been arranged and the First Regiment band is considered one of the best in the state. Don't miss this grand concert. Part One. March—Battleship, Connecticut, The Falton Two Step—Peaceful Henry, Kelly Selections—Gems from the Operas—Berry Waltz—Selected. Part Two. March—18th Regiment, Fanella March—Lord Baltimore, Fillmore Part Two. March—Yankee Notions, Sanglear Overture—Three Merry (Knights). Part Three. Two Step—Peg O' My Heart, Hays March—Eli Capitan, Seosa Waltz—1 miss You Most of All, Mozzoco March—Queen of the Surf, Klondike—Star Spangled Banner, Key Other selections will be used in addition to the above list.

Band Concert Today. First Regiment Band of Williamston To Give Excellent Program. The First Regiment band of Williamston will give a concert in the Chataqua park at Williamston Sunday afternoon. There will be special treats over the Piedmont and Northern and special rates. The following round trip rates have been offered: Greenwood 50c; Hodges 25c; Shoals Junction 40c; Donalds 35c; Hones Path 25c; Anderson 25c; Greenville 35c; Piedmont 20c; Belton 20c; Pelzer 10c; Taylors 50c; Chick Springs 50c; Greer 50c; Duncan 60c; Tuckapaun 75c; Spartanburg $1.00. The following special program has been arranged and the First Regiment band is considered one of the best in the state. Don't miss this grand concert. Part One. March—Battleship, Connecticut, The Falton Two Step—Peaceful Henry, Kelly Selections—Gems from the Operas—Berry Waltz—Selected. Part Two. March—18th Regiment, Fanella March—Lord Baltimore, Fillmore Part Two. March—Yankee Notions, Sanglear Overture—Three Merry (Knights). Part Three. Two Step—Peg O' My Heart, Hays March—Eli Capitan, Seosa Waltz—1 miss You Most of All, Mozzoco March—Queen of the Surf, Klondike—Star Spangled Banner, Key Other selections will be used in addition to the above list.

Band Concert Today. First Regiment Band of Williamston To Give Excellent Program. The First Regiment band of Williamston will give a concert in the Chataqua park at Williamston Sunday afternoon. There will be special treats over the Piedmont and Northern and special rates. The following round trip rates have been offered: Greenwood 50c; Hodges 25c; Shoals Junction 40c; Donalds 35c; Hones Path 25c; Anderson 25c; Greenville 35c; Piedmont 20c; Belton 20c; Pelzer 10c; Taylors 50c; Chick Springs 50c; Greer 50c; Duncan 60c; Tuckapaun 75c; Spartanburg $1.00. The following special program has been arranged and the First Regiment band is considered one of the best in the state. Don't miss this grand concert. Part One. March—Battleship, Connecticut, The Falton Two Step—Peaceful Henry, Kelly Selections—Gems from the Operas—Berry