ALLIES ARE VICTORIOUS IN DECISIVE BATTLE; GERMANS REPULSED

IN FIGHTING AROUND PARIS FRENCH AND ENGLISH SCORE SIGNAL VICTORY; RUSSIANS ALSO ARE DRIVING AUSTRIANS BACK WITH HEAVY LOSSES

OTHER VICTORIES ARE REPORTED

Montenegrins Follow Up Successes—Roumania and Bulgaria Threaten To Join Allies

London, Sept. 8.—The British and French forces north and east of Paris have had further successes against the German invaders, according to the official bulletins issued today, while in Galicia the Russians continue with considerable success their attempt to envelop and defeat the Austrian army of 400,000 men under General Auffenberg.

For the moment, at least, interest centers in the campaign in France, for it is felt that the battle proceeding there is the first crisis of the war and will have a vital effect on the outcome.

The allies, according to a bulletin issued by the French war office, have successfully repulsed another German attempt to penetrate their left center between Fere-Champenoise and Vitry-le-Francois, where the roads and railways are more suited to the French movements than they would have been further north.

In fact, it is believed that General Joffre purposely fell back from Châlons, so he could choose ground more favorable for his army for their defensive of offensive operations. In this he seems to have been justified, for not only was the German attack repulsed but at Vitry-le-Francois, the Germans actually lost ground.

This has been the scene of the heaviest fighting of the present battle, for on the German right, which the allies seem to have gotten around, General Kluck is falling back before the forward movement of the French and British forces toward the Marne, between Meaux and Soissons.

There must have been some fighting here, however, as the French report that some prisoners were taken from the enemy.

There have been many rumors of reinforcements having been sent this army of the allies. Some rumors are that the Russian troops actually have joined it and others that Indian troops took part in the fighting. These rumors, however, remain without confirmation and the more thoughtful observers of the war consider that the increased strength of the allies' left wing is due to the arrival of fresh troops from England and France and to the fact that the advanced defensive army of Paris is taking part in the operations.

The French still are staking below Lorraine frontier and here, according to the war office, have repulsed a German attack on the line between Nancy and Chateau-Salins.

In Alsace, where the French advanced so quickly at the beginning of the war, there has been a long respite from serious fighting. This is due, in the opinion of the military experts, to the withdrawal of the Germans who were needed for the west and probably to the return to Austria of troops sent to the assistance of the Germans last month.

In Galicia, General Ruzsky, who won a signal victory over the Austrians at Lemberg, is continuing his attempt to encircle the army of General Auffenberg. Moving southward from Lemberg he has worked around, if he has not conquered, the stronghold of Przemysl, whence he can get into the rear of the Austrians who are drawn up on a line approximately from Kieico to Jaroslaw and are now being threatened by the Russian advance southward from Radom and Zamosc.

The Austrians seem to be in an extremely dangerous position, and if they are defeated by the Russians, it will be a second Lemberg for them. They appear to have other troubles, too. Reports persist that Emperor Francis Joseph is dangerously ill; that there are internal dissensions in the dual monarchy, and that Italy, Bulgaria and Roumania are awaiting Austria's defeat by Russia to appoint some of the vast territory as her southern frontier.

The Servians having driven all the Austrian troops out of her territory, have commenced to advance on Bosnia from the north while little Montenegro after a couple of preliminary successes, is about to invade Herzegovina from the south.

However, Austria's biggest oppoent, Russia's, is determined quickly to subdue her so that she can pay more attention to her attack on Germany, which is awaiting the complete break up of the Austrian army.

The Germans have been busy in Belgium again. They have taken possession of Ghent without a fight and in the north they are trying to drive back into Antwerp the whole Belgian army, the sorties of which have been annoying if not threatening.

The recruiting of Lord Kitchener's army is growing as the days pass. The record was reached in London today when 5,000 men joined the colors. The stubborn British fighting in France has had much to do with the eagerness to join the army, although the bitterness aroused by the straggling of German mines, which have destroyed many fishing boats and merchant steamers has helped.

Statistics published today show that German ships of a value of about $25,000,000 either have been captured or sunk by the British ships valued at $5,000,000 are locked up in the German ports.

SEWERAGE IN THE COUNTRY

One great problem peculiar to the rural districts is that of the proper disposal of organic refuse and similar waste matter. In the cities such matter is completely and satisfactorily taken care of in the modern sewerage systems, and thus the city is enabled to preserve a cleanliness which is of greatest aid in fighting disease.

When such matter is allowed to stand in the open, as every rural resident knows, it becomes a swarming place for flies and a hot bed for disease germs; it pollutes the soil and the drinking water, and is always an unsightly and embarrassing nuisance. Such conditions are generally the cause of sickness and disease.

The Sanitary Septic Tank, especially designed along improved lines, for use in the rural districts, and manufactured by Weston & Booker, Columbia, S. C., completely solves the problem of sewage disposal for the rural homes. It is of small size, made of reinforced concrete simple, easy to install, never gets out of order nor needs attention. Placed just beneath the surface, and connected with the house by a short pipe line, it securely keeps the poisonous organic waste matter enclosed until by natural process, it disintegrates, and then seeps out into the ground, harmless mineral matter and water. There is no odor, no soil pollution. Approved by health authorities.

Its cost is small. It affords all the conveniences and the full protection of the city sewerage system. It is well worth your while to know all about this Septic Tank, and you can do so by simply writing to Weston & Booker, Columbia, S. C.

Micawber Wouldn't Shine as a Gymnast, Would He?

By MOSE.

YOU remember how Mr. Micawber, in Dickens' story, was always waiting for something to turn up. Said he to David Copperfield: "You are no stranger to the fact that there have been periods of my life when it has been requisite that I should pause until certain expected events should turn up, when it has been necessary that I should fall back before making what I trust I shall not be accused of presumption in terming—a spring. The present is one of those momentous stages in the life of man. You find me fallen back for a spring, and I have every reason to believe that a vigorous leap will shortly be the result."

Some Micawbers sit back in similar utter self complacency waiting to leap upon the golden opportunities that their more alert neighbors really pounce upon in the advertising columns of this paper.

DON'T be MICAWBER. Act PROMPTLY when you see bargains advertised here. Really LEAP upon them. You'll be surprised to find how much it PAYS THOUSANDS OF OTHERS DO.
