ON AND OFF THE SCREEN

SCENE FROM "THE DEVIL'S DAMSEL"

ONE of the most popular of New York's damsels is reproduced in "The Devil's Damsel," a film play which tells the story of a woman's fondness for the gay life. The woman is the wife of the district attorney, and when he raids the resort she is found in the gambling rooms. The district attorney saves her by explaining that she had been gathering evidence for him, and she promises to be more circumspect in the future.

An elaborate and spectacular film adaptation of the famous racing play, "His Last Dollar," with its author, David Higgins, in the role originally created by him, is now in the course of production. The success of the original production was so notable that the title of the play has become a byword in racing circles, and a "David Higgins" has long been commonly accepted as representing the last dollar in one's possession.

MARSHAL A. NEILAN.

Marshal A. Neilan is featured with Ruth Poland in "Ham, the Lieutenant," a comedy with plenty of thrills and action. Information gained while at the top of a telegraph pole starts a series of complications that include several fights and an attempted robbery.

Few people know that E. H. Calvert, who plays the part of the army officer in "Under Royal Patronage," is a former soldier and distinguished himself in the Cuban war. Mr. Calvert is a graduate of West Point and was active throughout the Cuban campaign. At the close of the war he received his commission of captain. Mr. Calvert left the army for the stage and later accepted an attractive offer to appear in motion pictures.

MARKET REPORT

New York Cotton

New York, Sept. 14.—While there was no further liquidation of the straddle interest through the special committee in the cotton market today, the talk around the floor was more cheerful. This seemed the result of continuous reports of a steadier spot situation in the South and rumors that a syndicate had been formed to take over the December interests here and undertake the liquidation of the straddle interest in a block. No official statement was issued in this connection, but it was reported that local houses having open contracts in December have been approached with a proposition that this syndicate take over the proposition on a basis of 9 cents here and 5.25 in Liverpool. Such an operation, it was believed, would clear the way for an early resumption of business, and it was also rumored that the committee which has been working up new by-laws to make the New York contract conform with the cotton futures law, had practically completed the job.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, Sept. 14.—Cotton, spot in improved demand. Sales 6,500 bales, including 600 American on the basis of 6.00d for middling. Imports 1,099 bales, including 1,074 American.

Money on Call

New York, Sept. 14.—Closing mercantile paper 7. Sterling exchange easier. Cables 498.76; for demand 498. Bar silver 54 1-8.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Sept. 14.—Cotton seed oil was lower under hedge pressure from refiners, further tenders of 1,700 barrels on September contract, talk of freer crude offerings and lack of outside demand. Final prices were generally lower. Sales 12,500 barrels. The market closed steady. Spot 57 1/2 at 58 1/2.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, Sept. 14.—Inauguration today of gold exports to Canada, in partial payment of New York's indebtedness to London and Paris, and the withdrawal from the private market of some large orders to sell listed securities were interesting financial developments. Five million dollars were taken for shipment to Ottawa, there to be placed to the credit of the Bank of England. As much more will probably go in a few days. Cancellation of the orders to sell stocks was associated with latest news from abroad, which indicated a much more hopeful feeling regarding the cause of allies in the war with Germany. It was said that a substantial part of the new German loan of $250,000,000 now being floated by the Berlin bankers would be subscribed for by wealthy German Americans, but a canvass of the international banking interests failed to elicit any confirmation of the rumors.

Dry Goods

New York, Sept. 14.—Cotton goods and yarn markets were firmer today. Dress goods were active. Raw silk continued dull. Knit goods for quick delivery were in better demand.

GRAIN MARKET EXCITED

Prices Crashed Downward on Belief That War Will End.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 14.—Grain prices crashed downward today in a whirl of selling due to belief that the war might end soon. The close was wild with wheat 6 1-4 to 8 1-4 lower than Saturday night, corn off 2 1-2 to 2 7-8 and oats showing a net back of 3 7-8 to 4 3-4 net. In provisions the outcome varied from 25c decline to an equal advance.

Elgin Butter.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 14.—Butter, fifty tubs sold at 30 1-2.

Belgian Atrocities Denied.

Antwerp, Sept. 14.—The Belgian government has appointed a commission, headed by M. Goblet, the minister of state, to "refute the German calumnies that the Belgian population is responsible for the aggressions and atrocities committed by German troops."

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

At The Theatres

The Bijou Theatre.

Last night at the Bijou theatre the Norene St. Clair stock company presented "Thorna and Orange Blossoms," Bertha M. Clay's famous novel. The house was packed to the doors and every person voted the play the best yet. The management of the house gave away two very valuable presents last evening. The first a twenty-six piece silver set, was won by Mr. Melvin Meany and the second prize, six silver orange spoons, was won by W. E. Watson. The Norene St. Clair company is without doubt the best balanced and generally talented organization of the kind that has ever visited Anderson.

Tonight, on account of the many requests made last week, and which they could not be complied with, the company will present their first play, "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie." As a play of intense and in every way interesting situations, "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" has no equal. Miss St. Clair as the old mammy, Aunt Caroline, is positively impossible to improve upon this company's rendition of that beautiful southern play.

The management is giving presents away at each performance, value ranging from $5 up to $25. At the matinee a lavalliere with a pearl and emerald setting will be offered to some one in the audience. Tonight, the first prize will be a solid gold watch. Second prize a set of silver oyster forks. One can hardly afford to miss the chance of winning one of these valuable prizes aside from the most excellent program being rendered daily at the Bijou.

Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I advised the boys when they enlisted for the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them, and have received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No person whether traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by all dealers.
