BOSTON INCREASES LEAD OVER GIANTS

Brooklyn's Loss and Philadelphia's Victory Added Another Full Game To Boston's Lead

ARMY INCREASED Germans Annex Eastern Provinces. Are Ready for Fray. Lo-Yen, Sept. 15.—A dispatch to the Central News says:

A trustworthy informant from Brussels says the German garrison there has been increased again and now numbers about 6,000 men. Machine guns again are in position in the principal thoroughfares. "Burgomaster" Max no longer is able to communicate officially to the newsmen the victories by the allies to the inhabitants, the German authorities having prohibited the posting of placards. The burgomaster, however, is known to it that the news was circulated by word of mouth, and the populace already knows of the German retreat in France.

COLE THREE-ROW GRAIN DRILLS pay for themselves "three or four times over in one crop."

Such is the testimony of one of Anderson County's successful and reliable farmers,—a farmer, who by proper exercise of his good business judgment, succeeds. Read what he has to say:—

Anderson, S. C., Sept. 1, 1914

Sullivan Hdw. Company, Anderson, S. C.,

Dear Sirs:

Your Three-Row No. 34 Cole Grain Drill that I bought of you last fall, paid for itself three or four times over in one crop. On twenty-five acres I had sixteen hundred and twenty-four bushels threshed, besides feeding over one hundred bushels in sheaf, all sown in cotton middles about October 20th, without any preparation whatever.

I must say it is the most perfect drill, both guano, and grain, that I have ever handled. I highly recommend it to my brother farmers. Yours truly, (Signed) B. J. SMITH,

ON AND OFF THE SCREEN

SCENE FROM "GRAND OPERA IN RUBEVILLE."

MUSIC has charms, but it does not always soothe, especially such music as figures in "Grand Opera in Rubeville." The play tells the story of the efforts of a city musician to present "The Bohemian Girl" in a small town with local talent and the town belle. He might have succeeded if his record had not been looked up.

In "The Vanishing Tribe" photo play patrons will see an old Indian legend that has been told for centuries around the campfires of the red men.

Richard Travers was right in his element when required to play tennis in one of George Ade's comedies called "The Fable of the Adult Girl Who Got Busy." Travers is an expert player and possesses numerous medals which he has won in tournaments played in all parts of the country.

Director Thomas Santschi is putting on a vivid drama which involves a ship afloat at sea. Bessie Eytan is the lead in this thriller.

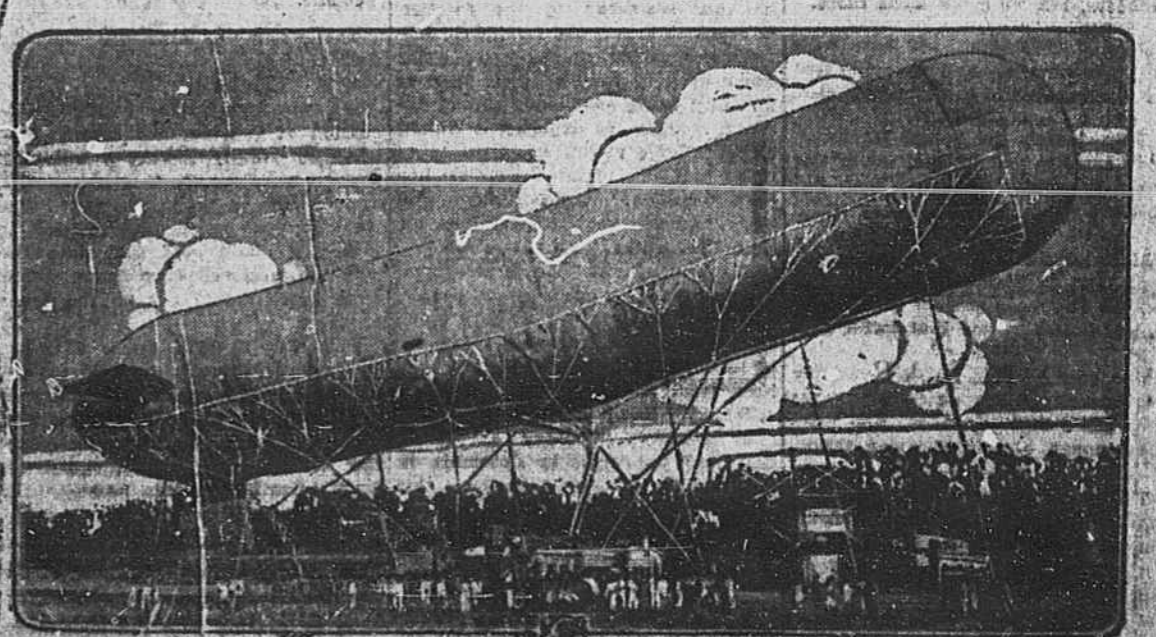

Preliminary arrangements are being made for the production of "The Ne'er Do Well," from the novel of Rex Beach. The play calls for ships, a trip to the Panama canal and an entire season's work in that torrid zone.

Florence Lawrence. Florence Lawrence is known to lovers of photo plays all over the country. Her winsome face is seen daily on scores of screens.

"Satan's Rhapsody" is the unique title of a new film. The story features Lyda Borcill, whose work in "The Naked Truth" excited comment. The story of "Satan's Rhapsody" centers about a barter made with Satan to restore youth and beauty to an old woman.

"Chick" Evans, western golf champion and one of the best known players in the world, has become a motion picture actor. He is seen playing golf with Wallace Beery, the famous "Sweeney."
