MARKET REPORT

New York Cotton

New York, Sept. 15.—It was reported in cotton trade circles here today that local houses were being canvassed on the proposal to turn December contracts over to a syndicate for liquidation at nine cents a pound with a view to determining exactly how much money would be required to finance the scheme. No official statement has yet been issued with reference to these plans, but disappointment over the failure of the Liverpool spot sales to result in further straddle liquidation under the old plan, was probably modified by expectations that the interest would be much more quickly closed out by the proposed operations.

Sentiment as to the more general situation also seemed to be favorably impressed by reports of continued advances in southern spot markets, and predictions of an early improvement in international trade conditions. The weekly weather report indicated favorable crop conditions and generally good progress with picking, but southern advices claim that very little cotton is being offered for sale.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, Sept. 15.—Cotton spot in fair demand; sales 3,700 bales, including 3,000 American, on the basis of 6000 for middling. Imports 7,950 bales, including 1,011 American.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Sept. 15.—There was a strong upturn in cotton seed oil today from outside buying influenced by the higher lard market and reports of advancing cotton prices in the south. In the absence of hedge pressure also contributed to the advance, which amounted to 3 to 8 points. Sales 10,500 barrels. The market closed firm. Spot 580a 59c; September 588a59c; October 592a 594; November 593a594; December 595a596; January 606a607; February 611a615; March 625a626; April 626a 635.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Wheat prices made giant swings with each report today of what seemed any important turn in the fortunes of war. After covering a range of nearly 5 cents the market closed strong 2 3/8 to 2 7/8 above last night. Corn finished 1 1/8 to 1 5/8 up; oats with a gain of 1 7/8 to 2 1/4 and provisions at an advance of 5 to 47 1/2.

Dry Goods

New York, Sept. 15.—Cotton goods markets were steadier today, yarns were in better demand. Men's wear lines were firm and in light demand. Silks were easier.

Money on Call

New York, Sept. 15.—Closing: Mercantile paper 7. Sterling exchange steady; cables 698.75; for demand 498. Bar silver 52 5/8.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, Sept. 15.—Fumors of peace negotiations were revived in the financial district today, presumably as a result of the further reported successes of the allies. They were scented in influential circles where the belief prevailed that none of the contending forces would consider such proposals pending a decisive battle.

The exchange market, which was more diversified in its operations than at any time since the European outbreak, continued to show improvement.

Tentative applications for loans or short term note issues by various municipalities whose obligations are about to mature were received by bankers.

The call of the comptroller of the currency for a statement of the condition of the national banks as of September 12, by of more than ordinary interest because it will show the exact standing of many institutions which have not published detailed statements since the first week of August. In view of the large deficit reported by local clearing house banks, it is a fair assumption that more than a few national banks in this section are much below their legal reserves.

Passing of the Republic Iron and Steel company's preferred dividend for the current quarter because of the financial situation growing out of the war called renewed attention to the general state of that industry and the dividend status of other companies engaged in the same line of manufacture. According to conservative estimates, mills at leading centers are now operating at 60 per cent of capacity.

An echo of the Mexican situation was heard in the confirmation of the report that the government now in power there had taken over the management and operation of the National railways, regardless of the wishes of the bondholders.

Part Fighting, Part Running

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Western and Central armies of the German forces continued their resistance today to the north of the river Aisne and to the north of Thionis and Charleville, while the Eastern army is retreating. This is the substance of the French official communication given out this afternoon.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY DIRECTORS Will Be Elected by the Stockholders At Meeting in October

Capt. Jno. R. Anderson, superintendent of the Blue Ridge railway, yesterday received the following dispatch from H. W. Miller, assistant to the president of the Southern Railway:

"The next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Railway to be held at the principal office of the company in the Times Dispatch building in Richmond on October 13th, at 10 a. m., will mark a new era in the history of the company, as it will be the first meeting at which the 12,000 stockholders have had the opportunity to vote directly, the voting trust in existence since the organization in 1834, now being in process of dissolution.

"An effort will be made to make of this meeting more than the conventional routine which current criticism tends to be characteristic of the meetings of the stockholders of American railway companies," says President Fairfax Harrison in a letter addressed to all stockholders, "and the co-operation of the stockholders is necessary to that end."

"The principal officers will be in attendance to answer questions directed to the policy of the management or to any detail of its business and the report of the operation during the past year will be before the stockholders for discussion.

"The principal business to be transacted will be the election of five directors, four to fill vacancies due to the expiration of terms of directors of the 1914 class, among them Messrs. Finley and Fahnstock, who have died during the past year, and one to fill a vacancy in the 1916 class due to resignation.

"It is expected that this meeting will be largely attended and that the gathering of the stockholders of Southern Railway company will become an annual event of great importance in Richmond."

The Russian army was completely defeated by the Germans. The Russian casualties were heavy.

WANTS HISTORY OF WM. DRENNAN

Letter From Illinois Asking For Information Relative To Man Born In Pendleton District

A mania seems to have seized people in other states for writing to Anderson and inquiring about "family trees." Within the last few weeks a number of these communications have been received in Anderson. The latest to arrive came in yesterday from Springfield, Ill., and was written by A. R. Drennan, chief deputy of the assessor's office of that county. The letter was addressed to the county clerk here and reads:

"Dear Sir: I find a record of William Drennan being born in Pendleton district, South Carolina, April 9, 1768. He was married to May Thomas, who was born Jan. 13, 1771, the marriage taking place in 1790 and in the early 1800 moved to Caldwell county, Ky. "Would like any information regarding these families or if any history of your district is published, that would help me."

William Drennan, county detective for Anderson county, says that his grandfather had the name of William Drennan and was born in Pendleton district but he does not know whether there is any connection between the two families. Any one in possession of facts relative to these families are asked to notify the county clerk.

"LUTE" BRENNERCKE ILL

The Well Known Fun Maker is Now In The Mountains. Keowee Courier. L. A. Brennecke is spending some time at Highlands, having gone there recently for the benefit of his health. He is at Dr. Lapham's sanatorium, and we join with others of his numerous friends in the hope that he may be completely restored to health. By means of his irrepressible wit, and his propensity for comic drawing, he is, we are informed, making "life worth living" at the "camp," where he uses his gift of drawing to the amusement of other patients, illustrating current events in a most striking and humorous manner. His is a disposition to be envied. A constant sufferer for years, and for long periods unable to move except in a wheel chair, still there is never a time when "Lute" possesses less of humor and merriment than the happiest of his companions.
