PROMINENT CITIZEN GONE TO HIS REWARD

JOHN ESKEW DIED YESTERDAY MORNING

WAS A GOOD MAN

Had Done Years of Service For State and Country and Was Beloved Everywhere

Unusual regret will be occasioned over the announcement that John Eskew is dead. All over Anderson county this man was known and respected and admired and the news of his death will occasion sorrow.

Mr. Eskew has been ill for a bout 10 weeks but his condition did not become serious until Monday. From that time on he feebly grew weaker and the end came yesterday morning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Eskew was 73 years of age, was a Confederate veteran, was chairman of the county pension board and had always been active in the various undertakings of his county and State.

John Eskew was the fifth child of Katherine and Elliot Eskew and was born in Anderson county. He was married on December 1866 to Amanda E. Burris, the ceremony being performed by Rev. William Waters. To them three children were born and one of these is now living. In 1865 Mr. Eskew joined Prospect Baptist church and later he became a member of Old Salem Baptist church by letter. He was always interested in the church work and the Sunday School work of the community and he was a tower of strength in the church undertakings. He was a great lover of music and it was largely through his efforts that the Anderson County Singing Association has been kept alive.

During the War Between the States Mr. Eskew was a member of Company D, Orr's regiment and he was a gallant soldier throughout the long conflict. It has been said of him by his comrades that he was absolutely fearless and that a better soldier never shouldered a gun than John Eskew.

Mr. Eskew is survived by his wife, one son, J. Thomas Eskew, three brothers, J. William Eskew, Joseph A. Eskew and S. Lawrence Eskew and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Hutchison.

The funeral is to take place this morning at the home at 11 o'clock, followed by the interment in the family cemetery. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. D. Covington of Greenville, assisted by Rev. O. L. Martin and Mr. Eskew's nephews will be the active pall-bearers. They are: W. S. Hutchison, Alvin Eskew, Johnnie Eskew, Willie Eskew, L. T. Campbell and Walter Hembree. Camp Stephen D. Lee, United Confederate Veterans, will attend in a body and they will all act as honorary pall-bearers.

Mr. Eskew enjoyed a reputation all over Anderson county as being a good man in every sense of the word. He was generous to a degree almost to a fault and no stranger was ever turned away from his door. By his many acts of kindness he will always be remembered in Anderson.

SPRING FESTIVAL BEING PLANNED

The Chamber of Commerce Has the Matter Under Consideration

An important meeting of the Trades Extension committee of the chamber of commerce was held last evening. Chairman B. O. Evans presiding, and Committeemen R. J. Kamer, T. L. Cely, W. S. Ramsey, and L. Geisberg, being present, also the secretary, and Phelps Sasseen, advertising manager of the Intelligencer, the latter by request and invitation.

The matter of holding a merchant-wide spring festival in Anderson next year was considered and Mr. Sasseen made an address on the matter to the committee. It is very likely that it will be decided to hold such a festival, although the secretary was instructed to secure further information before the matter would be finally decided, perhaps at the next meeting.

Mr. Ramsey favors holding a spring festival in the neighborhood of Easter next year, and Mr. Cely favors a plan to have every store in Anderson in the move. Mr. Geisberg suggested a color scheme for all merchants, and it is believed that the matter can be worked out so that next year an elaborate spring festival can be held here.

The committee endorsed the "Buy-a-bale" movement and issued a special statement on the cotton situation as appears elsewhere in The Intelligencer today.

The committee authorized the secretary to meet with the promoters of the Anderson County Poultry Association, to be formed in the rooms of the chamber of commerce on Sept. 26th, and to pledge them the hearty support of all business men in Anderson.

Motion was unanimously carried thanking the Anderson County Farm Union for appointment of a special committee consisting of Messrs. Burns, W. A. Watson, T. T. W. Held, J. B. Watson and H. C. Summers, to co-operate in the buy-a-bale movement.

Secretary Whaley was instructed to confer with General Manager A. W. Anderson of the Charleston & Western Carolina railroad with regard to passenger service into this city.

Committee endorsed plans of the farmers to hold a poultry show in Anderson in October or November, the matters of the association to be given for the same. All other necessary business was promised.

OPENING EXERCISES FULL OF INTEREST

ANDERSON COLLEGE BEGINS SESSION

ADDRESSES HEARD

People of City Yesterday Pledged Themselves to Lend Every Aid To Institution

The third session of Anderson College began formally Thursday morning. The opening exercises were attended by all the student body, the members of the faculty, Mayor Godfrey and the official board of the city government, besides the trustees and numerous friends and well wishers of the college. Dr. James P. Kinard, president of the college, presided and called upon a number of the visitors for addresses.

After scripture reading by Rev. J. W. Speake, pastor of the St. John's Methodist church, and an invocation offered by Rev. Dr. W. H. Frazer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the audience was delighted with a violin solo by Miss Nell Smith, teacher of the violin, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Goode.

Dr. Kinard officially opened this session of the college and spoke regretfully of the present financial stringency throughout the country, which in all probability has kept a number of students away from the opening exercises, though he expressed the hope that they will be able to come later, and that Anderson College or other institutions will not be injured thereby.

Dr. Kinard paid a compliment to the former management of the institution and the spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm manifested by all friends of the college. The faculty had been enlarged and strengthened, and the college is ready to maintain the high standard of the past.

Some Needs of the College.

Speaking of the needs of the college, Dr. Kinard mentioned the need for a separate building for the music department, and for the domestic science and art departments. He stressed the urgent need for a better library and hoped there might be donations of some good books, especially books of reference. Another need he stressed was a victrola for the use of the students in their outdoor games, and a larger machine for indoor use, as well as a moving picture machine.

Dr. Kinard stated that arrangements were being considered for offering a number of scholarships from Anderson county and a limited number from other counties. He hopes to give an examination next year so that at least 20 girls from Anderson county may win scholarships.

Welcomed to the City.

Mayor J. H. Godfrey was then introduced and extended a warm welcome from the city council. He stated that they are at work on Calhoun street widening and straightening it at points, and that before they stopped work there would be completed a continuous paved sidewalk from the college to the business district of the city. He facetiously reminded the audience that the cannon on Main street was to be removed and the ladies of the civic league and the D. A. R.'s might be induced to plant it on the college campus to keep the young men away from the college.

The speaker promised the earnest co-operation of the city council in furthering the interests of the college in any way possible.

The next speaker was Col. H. H. Watkins, chairman of the board of trustees, who on behalf of the board extended a cordial welcome to the faculty and students. He congratulated the college on having for its president a gentleman of the wide experience and distinguished ability of Dr. Kinard, and predicted that war 5 cents cotton or gloomy weather could have no effect on the success of the college.

Hon. R. S. Ligon, chairman of the executive committee of the board of trustees, also welcomed the student body and made an exhortation to the students to use well their time and talents. Short addresses were also made by three trustees, Mr. C. S. Sullivan, Mr. M. M. Mattison, Mr. P. E. Clinkscales and by Rev. D. W. Dodges.

Enthusiastic applause followed the announcement of Mr. Sullivan that he would devote to the college a certain number of the association to be given for the same. As he gave the college the handsome home for the president, which is now nearing completion.

It was also announced after the exercises adjourned that Mr. C. F. Spearman of the firm Willis & Spearman, would donate a $100 Victrola, provided others would donate $100 worth of records purchased at his store. An effort is being made by Alderman King to raise the money for the records, and he will doubtless be successful.

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. W. Speake.

On the rostrum with President Kinard, Vice President Faithful and the members of the faculty were seated the following: Messrs. R. S. Ligon, J. E. Barton, P. E. Clinkscales, D. Witherspoon Dodge, C. S. Sullivan, W. H. Frazer, J. W. Speake, H. H. Watkins, R. B. King, Walter Dobbins, John Major, C. F. Spearman, W. W. Smoak, R. L. Carter, J. H. Godfrey and M. M. Mattison.

The New Faculty.

The faculty for the coming year is probably a little stronger than that of any other female college in the state. Dr. James P. Kinard, the new president of the college, has been in Anderson all summer and has already endeavored himself to the people of this city. Dr. Kinard is a graduate of the Citadel, a graduate of Johns Hopkins and has taught in Winthrop College and at the Citadel. He will teach English this year.

C. N. Faithful, who is well known to Anderson people has been taking special courses in the north during the summer and will teach philosophy and Bible during the coming session.

Miss Helen P. Smith is a new member of the faculty, coming to this city as a graduate of Converse College, of Smith College, and of Columbia University. She is the lady principal. Miss Smith is a daughter of Allen Smith of Abbeville, and has a number of friends in Anderson. She will add great strength to the faculty, as she held with success a similar position at Coker College.

John H. Williams, an A. B. of William Jewell College, is a new member of the faculty and he will have entire charge of the department of science. Prof. Williams was formerly instructor of physics at William Jewell College and is an instructor of repute.

Miss Mary Seymour Abbott, who is to teach the modern languages in Anderson is well known here, as is Miss Helen Hunter, who will teach Latin. Miss Hazel E. Alward of the department of English, is also well known in Anderson.

Miss Florence Maddocks is to have complete charge of the department of mathematics for the coming session and patrons of the college are well pleased with this news.

Miss Marie DeVebre, a graduate of Randolph-Macon and of Columbia University, comes to Anderson to teach history and political science.

Patrons of the school will be glad to learn that Dr. Olga V. Pruitt has been secured for this session to act again as college physician and to have charge of the departments of physiology and hygiene.

One of the principal additions to the faculty for this year is Frederic Goode, who will be director of music. Mr. Goode was a pupil of W. H. Sherwood of Chicago and Jose Damotta of Berlin and is a musician of renown. He will teach piano and organ and will be assisted by Mrs. Goode.

Miss Sara E. Stranathan is to return this year and will again have charge of the department of voice. She is a splendid instructor.

Miss Nellie Smith, who comes from Bear-ton, Ill., will teach piano and violin. Miss Smith comes here with the very highest recommendations and is said to be a splendid music teacher.

The new art teacher, Miss Mary Dodson Ramsour, has been spending the summer in Paris. She studied at Converse College, the Chase School of Art of New York, the Academy of Design of New York and at the Art School of Paris. She has splendid ability.

Miss Robbie P. Wakefield, who returns to Anderson this year, will have charge of the school of expression and of physical culture. Miss Wakefield needs no introduction to Anderson people.

JUSTICE DISPENSED IN CRIMINAL COURT

FIVE CASES WERE DISPOSED OF YESTERDAY

NEARING AN END

Cases Heard Yesterday Were All of Minor Importance—To Adjourn Saturday Night

Considerable progress was made yesterday in the court of general sessions for Anderson county. All told five cases were disposed of and indications are that the docket will be cleared up by the time that adjournment occurs Saturday.

The first case tried yesterday was that of Alfred Gantt, charged with larceny of livestock. A verdict of not guilty was rendered.

George Parks, charged with house-breaking and larceny, was convicted of larceny and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to labor for 30 days on the chain-gang.

Milton Latimer was convicted on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses and was sentenced to two months on the chain-gang and to pay a fine of $1.

Joe Blandon entered a plea of guilty to the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or to serve on the chain-gang for two months.

Robert Smith, alias Robert McIntosh, was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons. In this action the jury returned a verdict of guilty of carrying concealed weapons and the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve 30 days on the chain-gang.

Judge Memminger heard an appeal last night at 8 o'clock in the case of S. A. Turner et al versus John Poole et al. This was an appeal from the decision of a special referee and Oscar Hodges, H. P. Burbage and R. B. Martin of Greenville—all members of the Greenville bar, were in the city to argue the case. The hearing lasted until a late hour.

PRESENTED WITH CHECK FOR $1,000

Southern Road Showed Appreciation of Long Service Rendered By Capt. "Billy" Smith

In recognition of the love and splendid railroad service of Capt. William G. Smith, officials of the Southern road yesterday presented him with a check for $1,000. The presentation was made to Capt. Smith's widow at Walthalla and it took her entirely by surprise as she had received no intimation of such a thing.

The voucher accompanying the check in connection with the presentation read: "GRATUITY, in recognition of the long, efficient and faithful service of her late husband, extending over a period of fifty years, who was honorably retired from the service as conductor, Columbia division, with an unblemished record on January 1, 1912."

It is understood that the appropriation from the railroad was secured by W. H. Foreacre, who was a lifelong friend of Capt. Smith.
