BRONON MILLS PREPARING EXHIBIT

OVER 550 PATTERNS

Beautiful Goods of Varied Designs Manufactured Here, Will Excite Much Interest

The Bronon Mills company in preparing an exhibit of samples of the fruit of its looms to be sent to an exhibition of cotton goods to be given in Washington on the 8th and 9th of October.

After the exhibit in the New Willard hotel at Washington in the National Cotton Fashion Show, the Bronon display will be sent to Savannah, Ga., where the D. A. R. will have a meeting in November.

The Bronon mill is now turning out over 650 patterns. It will be a treat to the ladies of Anderson to go through the cloth room sometime and just see what is made in this city.

This mill is turning out a class of tweeds and cottonades almost heavy enough to take the place of palm beach clothing for men, and one of the designers at the mill has turned out a pattern, which, when sized and touched, cannot be distinguished from those, except by the closest scrutiny.

BLACKVILLE PEOPLE ASK ANDERSON'S AID

IN THE "BUY-A-BALE" MOVEMENT

GET OUTSIDE HELP

Would Secure Co-operation of the Fertilizer Companies and Get Them to Buy Bales

One of the most sensible ideas yet advanced in connection with the "Buy-a-Bale" plan has come from Blackville, according to the secretary of the Anderson chamber of commerce.

"As our organizations are of the same nature and have the same purpose in view, that is, to help the farmer, to establish confidence and to place a value on cotton, we are of the opinion that we each and every one of our organizations should unite strength or union by writing letters at once to each and every fertilizer company doing business in our several territories, urging them to take cotton at 19 cents per pound.

The following is the letter to the fertilizer companies: "Our association was formed for the purpose of trying to help the farmer and all other interests mutually.

"The farmer has made his crop at a great expense, considering the fact that the price of everything he has had to buy has been about 100 per cent higher.

"The fertilizer people can handle the situation and bring the farmer out on a sound basis and we think they should be willing to do so.

METHODIST RALLY

Work of Great Importance Being Done By St. John's Methodist Church in Homes

(Written for The Intelligencer) The revival meeting at St. John's Methodist church is a genuine thorough "revival".

Then, Mr. Speake, in his straightforward style with fresh earnestness of tone brought the 23rd and 24th verses of the 129 Psalm to us: "Search Me Oh God."

These thoughts about self examination, keeping of our vows were very obviously struck out and the urgent needs and experiences of a Christian life.
