

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

LEBANON IS TO HAVE EXERCISES

School Improvement Association Has Arranged Interesting Meeting for Today.

The School Improvement Association of the Lebanon school has arranged very interesting exercises for the meeting of "hat body, which is to take place this afternoon. The program has been made up with great care and the discussions will all be instructive and beneficial.

Mrs. A. J. Smith is president of the association and Mrs. D. M. Craig is secretary and they have announced the following program for today's exercises:

- 1. Song, "America."
2. Give the names of the first settlers of Garvin township, and tell something of their environments, religion, occupation and the influence they exerted on the community.—Mrs. M. B. Richardson.
3. Contrast the women of forty years ago who depended on slaves and the women of today.—Mrs. Charley Morgan.
4. Describe the mode of travel 40 years ago, and the present mode.—Mrs. Lawrence Thompson.
5. What were the city amusements?—Mrs. Earle.
6. Something practical from each member about housekeeping, baking, nursing, etc.

In addition to these exercises, the Improvement Association of the Lebanon school has arranged to entertain the teachers and patrons of the school on Monday afternoon, October 5, from 4 to 6. J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, and Miss Maggie J. Garlington, superintendent of rural schools, will both be in attendance at the reception and will probably speak before the body. The afternoon is being anticipated with great pleasure.

Why Not Publish It? When you want a fact to become generally known, the first step is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallie, Farmville, was troubled with itching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She wrote, "I feel it my duty to tell others that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by Evan's Pharmacy, All dealers.

The fall examination for teachers certificates is always larger in Anderson than at any other season of the year, but an unusually large number of applicants stood the examination yesterday. All told there were 40 white applicants, 34 young ladies and six men, and four negroes. The examination was conducted in the court house by J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, and E. C. McCants, superintendent of the city schools, and it lasted practically all day. Mr. Felton said last night that the county board of education would take up these papers next week and would try to get them corrected and graded as quickly as might be possible.

ANDERSON CASH GROCERY.

FUNDS RECEIVED FOR THE RURAL SCHOOLS

MONEY REACHED ANDERSON ON TIME

TOTAL OF $3,364.

Superintendent Has Announced Division of Sum Among the Schools in County.

Leading other counties in the state by quite a margin, Anderson county's fund of $3,364 for the aid of weak schools, appropriated by the legislature of the state, was received in Anderson yesterday.

J. B. Felton, the county superintendent of education, says that he is well pleased with having secured such a sum for the weak schools in Anderson county and his only regret is that twice as much could not be brought here.

This fund for aiding weak schools was established by the last general assembly and the total voted was $40,000. Since Anderson county has secured approximately $1,990 of this sum, it will be seen that the schools of this county will fare better than most of the others and in all probability the money sent to Anderson will exceed that secured by any other county in South Carolina.

Mr. Felton says that he will begin at once on the work of distributing the money among the various schools of the county, in accordance with the list prepared by J. E. Swearingen and he says that the result will soon be evident in freshly painted buildings, new equipment and other improvements.

The following is the way that the money is to be distributed here.

- Pendleton ..... $185
Rock Mills ..... 20
Centerville ..... 50
Hopewell ..... 5
West Penzer ..... 50

In addition to this there is an appropriation for the county board of $50, which will go to the furnishing of the new rest room for teachers, making a total for Anderson county of $2,364.

GRACE CHURCH TO PRAY FOR PEACE

People of The City Invited to Services Which Will be Held Sunday Afternoon

Following the proclamation of the president of the United States and the Bishop of South Carolina, the rector of Grace church has arranged a special service of intercession for peace on next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Grace church. This special service is printed in leaflet form and the congregation will be furnished with these leaflets with the request that, after using them during the service, they take them to their homes and make the prayers a part of their daily devotions. All of our fellow-Christians, who have no other religious duties at this hour, are invited to this service, and it is hoped that many will join with the members of Grace church in their intercessions and supplications for peace.

The offering at this service will be devoted to the work of the Red Cross Society.

The following music will be sung during the service: Processional, The World is Very Evil. Then will follow the Confession, the Absolution and the Lord's Prayer, with the special psalms, the 130th and 145th, Gloria, by Resede.

The first lesson is taken from Micah 4, and the second from St. Matthew 5. After the Creed will come the special litany, the prayers for peace, for the sick and wounded, for those who minister to the sick and wounded, for those in poverty and need, for the president of the United States and all in authority, and for guidance in all the affairs of this life. Hymn: "Jesus shall reign where'er the sun Does his successive journeys run." Sermon from the tenth verse of the Forty-sixth Psalm. Offertory Anthem, Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord. Recessional, There is a Blessed Home.

Doubles Big Advertising Appropriation

Florida Citrus Exchange Increases Space in Newspapers and Magazines

By JEFFERSON THOMAS.

President of the Thomas Advertising Service, Jacksonville, Fla.

THE Florida Citrus Exchange refuses to believe that the European wars mean serious disturbance of business conditions in the United States. To introduce the oranges and grape-fruit grown by its members into many sections of the North, where heretofore these have not been on sale, the advertising appropriation has been doubled and the sales force largely increased.

On Sunday, August 2, there was considerable uneasiness throughout Florida by reason of the war clouds. Three of the State's most important products—lumber, phosphate and turpentine—admittedly would be considerably affected by a long-continued interruption of foreign trade. Notwithstanding the splendid condition of the financial institutions of Florida, it was felt that the situation possessed elements that might so develop as to affect other lines of business than those which would directly suffer from the war.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is in many ways the leading business organization of the State. Last year its total sales amounted to about three millions of dollars. This year's orange and grape-fruit crop promises to be the largest in the history of Florida, and the Exchange is likely to have five to seven million dollars worth to dispose of. The officers felt that they owed it not only to the growers, whom they directly served, but to the interests of the State which are closely allied to do everything in their power to maintain confidence. Accordingly they published in the Tampa Tribune, the leading morning newspaper of South Florida, on Monday, August 3, the ad which is reproduced.

The effect was immediate and very salutary. Many persons who had been taking it for granted that the war would prostrate business, assumed an entirely different attitude. The keen analysis of the effects of the European disturbance on the industries of the United States contained in the Exchange ad caused a reflective mood to take possession of the minds of the people of Florida. Within a week many others of the interests of the State were found to be in such position as not to need to fear the consequences of foreign war.

WAR--ITS EFFECT

The Forerunner of the Greatest Era of Prosperity This Country Ever Saw

Some of the greatest nations of the world are on the verge of war... The world stands with bated breath looking for the next move and the people of this country are wondering at its effect in the United States. How will it effect the money market? what will be the effect on cotton? grain? the manufacturing interests? and we in Florida want to foresee the effect on the market for the citrus fruit crop of Florida.

A careful study of the various phases of this subject can lead but to the one conclusion, and that is that it means the greatest era of prosperity ever known and it takes no great degree of foresight or wisdom to be able to figure it out, and it needs but the cool, calm deliberation of the American citizen to make that effect felt in short order.

Every American citizen feels regret

Is There Any Alarm for the Financial Institutions of This Country?

There is absolutely none. Never were the financial institutions in better shape. The U. S. treasury has over $500,000,000 at the disposal of the American banks. In less than thirty days the National Reserve banks will be in operation and can inject $500,- that these nations are about to be plunged into a bloody costly war, and the thought of profiting thereby is in the background and such benefits would be foregone if that might stop it, but we are called upon to face the situation as it is; therefore let us look the situation squarely in the face, see if there is any cause for the clamor of the timid, let us analyze the effect and answer the questions that are uppermost in the minds of the many.

000,000 more into the business world through its banking arteries. The money power of this government is in the hands of the government, and not in the hands of a few who could cause a repetition of 1907 were they so inclined.

How About Cotton?

The demand for cotton goods is a constant factor—the slump in cotton can be but temporary. The inability of foreign nations to take, means that our factories must open up and supply the demand.

The inability of foreign nations to take cotton means that they can not export the manufactured products to this country. It means employment for our laborers. It means a greater use of our home products.

As to Wheat and Food Products?

Men called to fight can not till the farms, nor mine, nor manufacture. They must eat to carry the musket. It means greater demand, consequently higher prices for our products, and a stream of foreign wealth in the veins of American commerce.

As to The Citrus Crop?

With all American labor busy, with wealth untold in circulation, the consumption of more fruit is as certain as the sun rises and sets.

Everything works for the benefit of the Florida shipper if he will but cooperate with his fellow growers.

Florida has the greatest crop of citrus fruit in its history. It needs but distribution and the avoiding of glutted markets, to bring to Florida the greatest returns that it has ever had for its

Now is the time for men to stand together. There is cause for optimism. Now is the time to join and ship through the Florida Citrus Exchange. Regrettable as is this war—it means prosperity at home and Hell abroad.
