

New Showing

In the very latest patterns and newest designs now complete.

Our showing includes the most attractive weaves the mills can produce.

Order your winter's

OVERCOAT

Now. Large variety of styles and materials to select from

Suits & Overcoats from $12.50 and Up Satisfaction Guaranteed.

H. H. Rosenberg NO. 134 N. MAIN.

"The Only Tailor In Town Who Tailors."

BIG SHOWING OF NEW FALL STYLES

In Ladies' and Misses'

Suits, Coats and Dresses

Ladies Skirts, Walste and Children's Coats

Without a doubt the largest and finest areas of up-co-nate approved for Ludles' Misses and Children over shown in this section of the State. Not only will you first our assortment large that you will find the values greater. The fries shown are also bitely secreet. We cordially invite you to call analytew the newest field one in Ready-to-Wear for Ludles, Misses and Children.

LADIES' AND MISSES' COAL

Big line of new Suits in Serges, Broad Cloths Poplins and Garbidines in all the new shades. Black, Blue, Nigger-Brown, Russian Green and Plum at $7.08, $8.08, $12.50, $15.00 and

LADIES AND MISSES COATS. /Air/1104 Endies', and Misses'

NEW PARL LINE LADIES AND MISSES DRESSES.

Big line Children's Coats from 1800 up to $5.00. All in the new styles.

NEW LINE LADIES SKIRTS styles at $1.08, $2.08,

ALL SHIPMENT OF CHILDREN'S

R. E. Lee Chapter U. D. C. was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Will Webb, on West Market street with Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Oscar Been and Mrs. John Frank as hostesses. At the business session the diegates were elected to represent the Simpter at the general convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to be held in Savannah in November. The delegates chosen were Miss Rhoda Vandiver, Mrs. M. L. Bonham and Mrs. Raymond Beaty with Mrs. Minnie Millford, Mrs. Chas. Sullivan and Mrs. E. R. Horica as alterpates.

Other business was soon disposed of and an interesting literary program given. The first paper read was written by Mrs Mary Riley, who won the R. E. Lee Chapter medal for the best caper written by a pupil of the Andars son High School. Miss Riley chose as her subject. "The Effect of the War Between the States on the Educational Conditions in the South."

Mrs. George Prince wrote a most interesting paper on "The Position of an hour. Whee the final score was

Son High School. Miss Riley choses as her subject. "The Effect of the War Between the States on the Educational Conditions in the South."

Mrs. George Prince wrote a most interesting paper on "The Position of the States Before and After the Adoption of the Federal Constitution in 1781." This was read by Mrz. W. E. Cason.

A general discussion of the states that refused to accept the constitution and why was opened to all the members. Many unusual points were brought out and appreciated by the chapter.

The current events of special importance and interest to the chapter were read by Mrs. W. E. Cason.

The musical part of the program was also thoroughly appreciated. Mrs. James R. Vandiver and Miss Rhoda Vandiver, who spent last winter in Boston studying music, delighted all present with a beautiful vocal duet.

Mrs. W. B. Stale gave an instrumental solo, that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Eyank, and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Harry Orr, Mrs. Bond anderson, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Mrs. Vandiver, the spent last winter in Boston studying music, delighted all research with a beautiful vocal duet.

Mrs. W. B. Stole gave en instrumental role that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Frank, and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Dean served their guests a delicious sweet course.

Faculty Receptions

The ladies of the faculty of Auderon College are at home on the first ad third Thursdays of each mouth rom 4 to 6 in the afternoon and will e pleased to receive their friz. is.

Daneing Party Invitations
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orr
At Fome
Tuesday evening, October the eixth,
Eight-thirty o'clock.
Mr. and Mrs. George Aide.
Daneing

Jardenterest and vase, filled with golden rad were used to decrease the golden rad were used to decrease the course where the dozen congenias girls spent the afternoon.

Miss Kathleen Norryce, the president of the class, presided and after planning the work to be done by the class for the month of October an entertaining program was given.

The first number on the program was an original story by Miss Gene Harris. Miss Kathleen Norryce gave two beautiful vocal solos which were thoroughly appreciated and hise Carrie Pretwell an mushing reading.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Bunnett Townsond made a most interesting announcement, when she told in a most appropriate way that one of the girls is the class had decided to change her name, and announced the angarement of Miss Annie Anderson and Dr. Harrison A. Pruitt, the wedding is 1: place in November.

The Mey's Aide.

The Mey's Aide.

The Mey's Aide.

The distance of man were counted the interesting and sister, Miss Lois Anderson of the girls is the class had decided to change her name, and announced the angarement of Miss Annie Anderson and Dr. Harrison A. Pruitt, the wedding is 1: place in November.

The Mey's Aide.

The decided to change the class and decident the sum as a counted work of the sum as a counted the interest of the sum and while of each of the city wis to discon and while it is ss Lydia Orr, Mrs. arry Orr, Mrs. Bond Clyde Ross, Mis. J. L. Sterard . J. L. Sterard, per, Mrs. Raymond ak Weston, Mrs. D. s. James D. Hams. James D. Ham-is Gray, Mrs. Ernest Albert Sidney Far-Humphreys, Mrs. r. Miss Lucile Bray Miss Symmes and mett, Mrs. J. I F. Cochran, M mer, Mrs. Lo Frank Faymer, Mrs. Rh/st Pa of Richmond, Mrs. Mt Kinne

Mrs. Sirrine.

y Entertains. hich Mrs. Raymond Thursday after-Chiquola was one ffairs arranged for ckinnon, of Bruns-is. Sage, of Atlanta, o pleasantly enter-parties during their The guests occu-had been placed in and here the inter-ction was played. Her assisted Mrs. her guests a tempt-were Mrs. Malcolm age, Mrs. P. K. Mc-rnest Cochran, Mrs. s. Sam Orr, Miss Swane Gilmer, Mrs. Jesse Stribling Mrs. Rhett Parker, and Miss Margaret

il Dance. ance of the season day evening in the Rose Hill Club, un-Rose Hill Club, un-of the managing inter and until well the club was the nformal affairs that pong the most en-week's social offermidsummer exodus me it was deemed to them for a while not been definitely a these dances will be selected and the selected an midsummer has come to begin oing out on Thurs-Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Christie Ib-Mrs. Christie Ile-drs. Raiph Ramer, in Glimer, Mrs. Sam Bray, of Virginia, ris and Miss Vina wier, Paul Watkins, in Wolfe, T. C. Gar-on, Herbert Harris, Clyde Smith and A. mission a delight-

was served

I Married. many of the bride's parriage of their ghter e Ada

falcolm Fields e twenty-third of red and fourteen rd, Texas. ober the tenth, 626 avenue, Dallas, vas the attractive P. Smith, on Mar-several weeks last e guest of honor at as and card parties, numerous friends, at interest in her s Seybt.

ot, whose marriage will take place on Dot. the 12th, was set of bonor when din entertained at

Mrs. Nardin's home was beautifully decorated with yellow and white. Vases and bowls of yellow and white achitas being placed on the mantels and tables to add to the favored color

Mrs. Clarence Brock and Mrs. Clyde Ross welcomed the guests at the door and invited them into the living room, where Mrs. Nardin, Miss Sebyt and the girls who will be her Sebyt and the girls who will be her attendants, Misses Lois Jackson of Iva, Ruth Fretwell, Alberta Brock and Mrs. W. D. McLean received. Mrs. U. E. Seybt, Mrs. S. D. Brownlee, Mrs. Louis Horton and Mrs. William Muldrow assisted also in the living

In the dining room Mrs. John Frank, Mrs. O. M. Heard, and Mrs. Ed Marshall served a delicious salad course. Yellow and white dahlias were again the chosen flower. A tall glass vase filled with dahlias made the cen-tral decoration for the table. Around this were yellow shaded candles and comports holding yellow and white mints,

After all the guests had arrived beautiful handpainted cards were given each and an amusing guessing contest "Marie's Troseau" was en-

Dainty little Miss Elizabeth Muldrow and Eugene Nardin dressed as a bride and groom, entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and showered the bride with useful bits of linen from her friends

Throhghout the afternoon George W. Chambers, Mrs. Chas. Greene, Mrs. William Muldrow and

Greene, Mrs. William Muldrow and
Mrs. Bob King sang love lyrics.
Among Mrs. Nardin's guests mere
Mrs. Dave Beatty, Mrs. Walter Beatty, Mrs. Eugene Burriss, Mrs. Ban
Allen, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Miss Luiile
Bray, Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs.
Will Watson, Mrs. Louis Horton, Mrs. Dave Gray, Mrs. Louis Horton, Mrs. Dave Gray, Mrs. Louis Gray, Mrs. S. D. Brownlee, Mrs. Irvine Brownlee, Miss Evic Lewis, Mrs. J. B. Humgert, Mrs. John Speaks, Mrs. Chas. Greene, Mrs. Fred Felkel. Mrs. B. B. Gossett, Misses Louise Bigby and Mildred Haves.

Pruitt-Kimsey.

A wedding of unusual interest was that of Miss Ruth Pruitt, youngest daughter of Mr. John A. Pruitt, to Charles Edwin Kimsey, which was solemnized at the home of the bride on Greenville street, Thursday evening, October 1st, at eight-thirty o'clock. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and pink roces and before with ferns and pink roces and before an improvised alter the ceremony was performed, the Rev. John F. Vines officiating. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding mach played by Miss Loulie Cullum, of Batesburg, the bridal party entered. Miss Nell Pruitt, a sister of the bride, attended her as maid. She wore an attractive white face frock and carried an immense bouquet of pink roses.

The bride and groom entered the ceremony room together. She wore her beautiful wedding gown of white crepe de chine and long court train.

crepe de chine and long court train.

Tiny roses held her veil in place, and a shower boundet of tuberoses and lerns completed the bridal costume.

During the ceremony Miss Cullum at the piane and Mr. George W. Chambers with the violin, softly played Traumeri.

After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served. The table was beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns and the The table was beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns and the color note of pink prevailed in this room also. Mrs. B. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. O. Sanders and Mrs. John L. Pruitt presided here, assisted by a number of the bride's girl friends who served. They were Misses, Mildred Hayes, Pal Dean, Kathleen McCuen, Lois Reace.

Lois Reece.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey left for their wed ding trip. The bride traveled in a modish blue suit with hat and acces-

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs.
Kimsey will go immediately into their attractive little bungalow on North

Among the out-of-town guests were Misses Loulle and Mary Cullum, of Batesburg, and Misses Enta and Anne radley, of Greenville.

Bradley, of Greenville.

To Be Married.

Invitations were saved Monday from Charles Wakefield Frew to the wedding reception of his daughter. Lucile, and James Bethune Marshall. Jr., on the evening of Wednesday, October 14, at Toclock, 106 East Moore street. Rock Hill. The ceremony will be performed at 6 o'clock, and after the reception the young couple will leave on the evening train for a bridal tri.

The bride, the oldest daughter of C. W. Frew, is a young woman of most winsome personality and one of the most popula of Rock Hill's younger society set, all of whom are greatly interested in coming happy event. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall, of Anderson, and lived in Rock Hill for several years while

J. B. Marshall, of Anderson, and lived in Rock Hill for several years while supervising the laying of water connections for the public works commission. During this time he made a number of warm friends. He is now located in Charlotte a civil engineer, and here he and his bride will make their home.

Woodside-Frierson.

Anderson sollety is greatly interested in the following amouncemen which was received in Anderson Friday:

Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Woodside announce the marriage of their daughter Helen Charles Dr. Edward Cecil Friercon

Dr. Edward Cecil Frierson on Thursday, October the first Nineteen hundred and fourteen Greenville, South Carolina. Mrs. Frierson is a charming girl and has made many friends when she visited in Anderson as the suret of Mrs. Lucius Webb. new of Pansanc, who war formerly miss Lucille Sloan of this city.

Dr. Frierson is a member of the firm of Frierson's Pharmacy in Belton and made his home in Anterson until a few years ago.

Your Millinery

Bought Here Is

Best in Style Best in Quality Best in Service Best in Price

Right now we are showing many new shapes, in all the new-colors, the newest of which are

> The Deanville The Georgette The Regimental The Marie-Annie

We have an expert Trimmer who knows the styles and is capable of men terperting them. Monday will be a good day to come in our place and look them over--all these new and pretty millinery things--You'll be delighted with what's here.

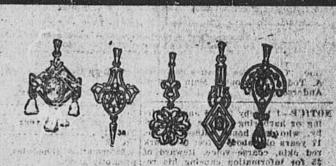

MOORE-WILSON COMPANY

10C A POUND FOR COTTON

In order not to let Jewelers in other cities hi the State get ahead of us we are going to give too a pound for cotton in trade

This does not apply to accounts. We reserve the right to withdraw this offer at any time.

WALTER H. KEESE & CO. We Lead-Others Follow.

PENDANTS and LAVALLIERES

In an unusually attractive lof in Pearls, Cameos, Diamonds and other precious stones. . We will be pleased to show them to you.

Marchbanks & Babb

row for Columbia, whee she will ac-cept a position as clerk in the enrossing department of the legislature of the extra session to be convened a Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. H. Coleman, after spend-

On last Saturday atternot pretty home of Mrs. E. H. on Maxwell, street, Miss. Burns gave a linen shower Ruth Pruitt, whose marriage Mrs. W. H. Coleman, after spending a week with Mrs. Dave Gray, on Charles street, left yesterday for Charles Edwin, Kimsey was a social event of the Maxwells for several week petero reterning to her home in Chidengo.

Again on Tuesday afternoon Miss Ruth Pruitt was the honoree at a kitchen shower given by her sister, Mrs. Ollie G. Burries, at her home on West Franklin street. The many useful kitchen utensils were heaped in a small express wagon and were drawn into the parlor by little Miss Elizabeth Burries, daughter of the honoree. Late in the lafternoon cram and cake were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. John Pruitt, Misses Nelle, Pruitt, Marie

Hurling gave a linen flower hams a miss the Charles Edwin, Kimsey was a social event of the past week. After the serving of a delicious salations and Mrs. C. Ed Barton, Jr., Miss Pruitt was blind folded and leu to a sent discribe indicated and leu to a sent discribe indic