

NEWS FROM OUR SISTER CITY
Newsy Items of Interest From Friday's Belton Journal

DEATH OF A LITTLE BOY. Little Guy, the four-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hannah, died Tuesday, the immediate cause of his death being pneumonia.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Little Miss Elinor Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cox, gave a birthday party last Monday afternoon.

SHADY GROVE CHURCH CALLS NEW PASTOR. Reverend Wesley, of Honea Path, was called to the pastorate of Shady Grove Baptist church last Sunday.

The members of Cedar Shoal church called Rev. M. M. McCuen for their pastor for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Mattie Browning died at her home near Cooley Bridge Saturday night after an illness of a week.

Mrs. W. A. Clement has returned from Rock Hill, where she went to visit her daughter, Miss Margaret.

Messrs. J. R. McIntyre, of Anderson, and E. H. Harrison, of Belton, have opened up a first-class meat market on North Main street.

Little Master Wyatt Gambrell gave a delightful party last week, celebrating his first birthday.

W. M. Addison, district manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., with headquarters at Anderson, passed through Belton Tuesday en route home.

Will Ray, of Honea Path, and J. F. Paul, of the Milledgeville, of Atlanta, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Diggins Friday evening.

Miss Annie Brewster was among the shoppers in Belton Saturday.

The seventh grade of the Belton High School gave a most pleasant party on Friday afternoon at the school building.

Show Windows Well Lighted Sell Goods
You spend considerable time, work and money in the preparation of your show-window displays. Why not illuminate your Show-Windows at night and get 100 per cent Efficiency from your windows?
Phone us. Plans and Estimates furnished Free. No obligation on your part whatever.

Southern Public Utilities Co.

FALL HAT & DERBY
TODAY! Or "Any Old Day" Between Now and October 8th --- Circus Day
Because We're Giving a Ticket FREE to the Circus With Every Fall Hat Selling for Two Dollars or More, Simply As An Advertising Proposition
Stetsons Are Excluded, and the Transaction Must Be CASH
Bring The COUPON With You
This coupon when filled out and properly signed will be exchanged FREE for a ticket to Ringling Bros. Circus, October 8, 1914.
See Ringling's Circus At Our Expense.
T. L. CELY COMPANY
Next Door to Evans' Pharmacy No. 1

they had ever attended. Delightful picnic lunch with quantities of fruit was served.

The Civic League will meet on Monday afternoon, October 5th, at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Jennie B. Lewis.

Miss Sara Lathier left Tuesday for Spartanburg, where she spent the night with her friend, Miss Laura Horton, at Converse College.

Miss Sara Lathier left Tuesday for Spartanburg, where she spent the night with her friend, Miss Laura Horton, at Converse College.

Miss Sara Lathier left Tuesday for Spartanburg, where she spent the night with her friend, Miss Laura Horton, at Converse College.

Mrs. W. M. Anderson, of Waterloo, who has been spending some time in town the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. T. McCuen, of Silver street, returned to her home Wednesday.

Mrs. B. Goodman, of Cross Hill, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. T. McCuen, returned to her home Wednesday.

The Belton Posters returned from a day's leave Tuesday afternoon well pleased with the trip.

J. P. Hunter, a progressive farmer of Belton, Route 4, may be mentioned Tuesday.

C. S. Moore, travelling representative of the Columbia State, was in Belton on business Tuesday.

H. S. Bloom returned home Tuesday after a visit to his daughter, Mrs. R. V. Parker, in Anderson.

Miss Lathier, of Long Branch, was among the shoppers in Belton Saturday.

Miss Christine Brooks has returned to her home in Belton after a two weeks' visit in Westminster.

Misses Lucy and Florida Kelley and Foster Kelly went to Fairview Stock Show Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Singleton were among those who spent Sunday in Anderson.

F. C. Poore, who lives near town, raised a sunflower this fall that measured 16 inches across the top.

J. L. Poore, of Williamston, was among those who visited Belton Monday.

Dr. W. C. Jones, who was called to the bedside of his mother in Bay Mills, Ala., last Thursday afternoon is expected to return today.

J. R. Camp, of Belton, Route 4, was in town Saturday on business.

A. C. Asker, of Belton, Route 4, was here shopping Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Smith and little daughter, Florida, spent the week-end in Blackstock, guests of Mr. Smith's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Smith attended the Werts-Coleman wedding at Chapel's last Wednesday.

A. E. Burton, of Belton, Route 4, was among those in town on business Saturday.

Harry Browning, a farmer of Belton route, had business in our city Saturday.

Mrs. A. C. Latimer, who went to Atlanta last week to visit her son, Farrell, who was very ill, has returned home. Mr. Latimer is much improved.

C. C. Wilson, wholesale grocer, of Belton, was in Anderson Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jori C. Kay and children were among those who spent the week-end in Honea Path with relatives.

Mrs. W. C. Hearin spent last week in Greenville, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bristow.

J. F. Fields, of Belton, Route 1, was among those who had business in Greenville Wednesday.

Prof. N. D. Taylor, Spencer Taylor and Hugh L. Tollison attended the Animal Exhibition Show in Anderson Wednesday.

Miss Eva Stringer was a visitor to Anderson Wednesday.

Mrs. R. A. Lewis may be mentioned among those who spent Wednesday in Anderson.

Miss Leda Poore spent Wednesday in Anderson, taking in the Animal Exhibition Show.

W. R. Kay and son, R. B., of Belton, Route 5, were here Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Jas. A. McDaniel, who returned to her home last Monday, came back to Belton Tuesday to stay with Miss Sara Lathier during Mrs. Lathier's absence.

ONLY BIG Anderson Thurs- Oct. 8 Show Coming day....
RINGLING BROS
CIRCUS AND COLOSSAL PRODUCTION
SOLOMON AND THE QUEEN OF SHEBA
GREATEST SPECTACLE
1250 CHARACTERS 500 DANCING GIRLS CHORUS OF 400 VOICES ORCHESTRA OF 90 AND 735 HORSES
A STUPENDOUS EPIC DRAMA OF THIRTY CENTURIES AGO ENACTED UPON THE BIGGEST STAGE IN THE WORLD
385 ARENIC ARTISTS 108 GAGE 200
50 FAMOUS CLOWNS 41 FLEETMAN ACTORS
Admission and Reserved Seat Tickets sold show day at Evans Pharmacy, Maine & Whitner Streets. Prices same as at grounds.
CASH
I have decided that I can render my patrons better service for less money, when selling Jewelry for Cash than the old credit system. So I have discontinued the old credit system entirely, and now sell for cash only.
W. H. LYON