Kress Stores, Kress Merchandise.

The inner workings of the Kress organization are little un-derstood by those on the outside. Certain ideals have dominated the organization from its inception. .. These ideas have been successfully worked out for the purpose of bringing the best merchandise obtainable to the largest number of people at the lowest price consistent with value.

This value has resulted in a world-wide organization which today touches every known part of the manufacturing world, be procured under any other conditions.

Perhaps no retailing stores in the world have had quite so much to do with the development of the newer and greater South, and which mean so much to manufacturers and re-tailers alike, than the Kress stores now located in leading cities of the South and West.

While Kress stores mean much to the manufacturer, they mean more to the consumer, for no matter how perfect the fac-tory and its equipment, it is only as we work with the manu-facturer, and by co-operation with him that it is possible to se-were the best merchandise at Kress prices.

Kress merchandise is today standard in over 140 stores, and is made the basis by which all manufacturers and retailers measure value to you—the consumer.

Diamonds!

Owing to the European war the mines are closed for an indefinite period, all the diamond cutting es-tablishments in Europe are shut down, and no dia-monds, either rough or cut, are being imported into this country.

This limits the supply both now and for months to come to the tock on hand before the war started. And this stock is of course being rapidly distributed and depleted. LARGEST STOCK IN ANDERSON.

The meeting is of more than ordinary interest since the officers for the coming year will be chosen to-day and other matters of general interest to the association will be up for discussion. The program calls for some very pleasant events, among them being a luncheon served by the domestic science class of the high school. Miss Garlington says that she is much pleased over the interest that the teachers are taking in the meeting

Wofford Boys

Coming Monday. The task of trying to persuade Anderson people to go out and encourage and support the "home hopes" in an athletic contest of any kind is monu mental, if one is to judge by the base ball record of last summer. The foot-ball game which is to be played next Monday afternoon at Buena Vista park between the Anderson High School and the Wofford Fitting School promises to be a good exhibition and the patrons of the school and parents of the pupils should turn out to this game and lend the'r support and en-couragement. number of pictures of the handsome Hammond school were mailed yesterday. The pictures are large size and were sent to the superintendent of education in every county in South Carolina. This step was taken to show people in other portions of the State that Anderson county is easily head and shoulders above everything else when it comes to real rural school improvement. The Hammond school is probably the most complete and the school is probably t probably the most complete and up-to-date country school in the State.

Illi Luck Still

Ill luck seems to be on the trail street merchant. Several days ago Mr. Roper sneezed, breaking one of his ribs and yesterday, as Mr. Roper drove down East Whitner street his horse took fright at a mountain wag-on and holted. The horse jumped so suddenly when he became frightensuddenly when he became frighten-ed that Mr. Roper had no time to tigh-ten the reins and the animal jerked them from the driver's hands. When the driver finally succeeded in getting the reins back into his pos-session he had a very difficult time in the teachers are taking in the meeting and she expects the attendance today to be large. stopping the horse, but got the animal under control before any serious damage was done. The buggy suffered severely from its rough passage ov-er Whitner street.

School inspectors

Planning Trip Here.
Lueco Gunter, rural school supervisor for South Carolina is coming to Anderson on Monday of the second week in November, according to advic-es received yesterday, and will spend a fortnight in Anderson county inspect-ing the rural schools and suggesting plans by which the schools in this section may be improved. It is understood that J. E. Swearingen, state superintendent of education, is planning to accompany Mr Gunter to Anderson and will spend several days here at that time although he will not be able to remain for the entire two weeks. Mr. Gunter's visit is being anticipated with much interest and every rural school in the county will short-ly begin making preparations for having their classes in good shape for his

That man is Charles Reimer, who came to Anderson with Ringling Brothers circus on Thursday. The man was in charge of a refreshment stand but he was physically ill and his business was poor during the day and when night came it found him without funds. His home is in Baltimore, Md., and there was ho help nearer at hand that that city, so he resorted to the Salvation Army. After investigating the man's claims and finding that he was honest.
