

Our Silent Oyster Salesman

This is the cleanly white and blue porcelain Sealshiptcase from which we will sell SEAL SHIPT OYSTERS at our store...

It is the final step in the Sealshipt System which makes it possible for us to furnish our customers with oysters which taste the same here as when eaten at the shore.

TO-DAY We have some of the best fish that swim, such as trout, bass black fish, etc.

IN Fresh Meats We have the very best, Native and Western, pork, mutton and beef, etc.

In Fancy Groceries and Vegetables We have most anything that your appetite calls for.

W. A. Power 212 South Main.

Stop those Early Bronchial Coughs They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases.

This country is keeping its head. We are at peace. Business is going ahead.

Now is your time to watch for real estate bargains. You can't go wrong if you seize opportunities presented in our classified columns.

Next Wednesday, October 21, is the Fifth Annual Belton Fair. Every detail has been arranged and the thousands of visitors will have a merry time.

The exhibition will be opened to the public at 9:00 o'clock. The entries shall be open to white exhibitors only.

Visitors will find on the grounds and square everything necessary for their comfort and convenience.

The Ladies of the Civic League will sell dinner and lunches. L. P. Willingham's restaurant and the City Market will sell lunches and dinner.

Courteous attention to all visitors and perfect order will prevail throughout the day.

General Manager. Mayor Ross Mitchell is general superintendent of the Fair Association and will assist the other officers in every way possible.

Horses and Mules. A. S. Fant, superintendent of the horses and mules, will be on hand and will give you all the assistance necessary in his department.

Farm Products. J. T. West, superintendent, will be in charge of this department and will assist you in any way possible in entering your farm products on time and see that everything in his department is properly pulled off.

Poultry. J. A. Singleton will have charge of this important department and he wishes it thoroughly understood that cock and four hens make a pen or a cockerel and four hens make a pen.

Cattle. J. M. Cox, Jr., superintendent of this department, is ready for the big day (Wednesday, Oct. 21) and wishes you to come ahead with your cattle and win a prize.

Swine, Sheep and Goats. J. Mack King is "boss" of this department and he says that if you don't bring along those fine hogs, sheep and goats you will have him to reckon with after the fair.

Ladies' Department. The following ladies will have charge of the ladies' department: Mrs. W. Isa Brown, domestic exhibits; Mrs. D. A. Geer, pantry supplies; Mrs. W. C. Hearin, fine sewing. These ladies will be at their post of duty and will "deliver the goods."

Children's Department Under 15. Mrs. Walter E. Greer is superintendent of this department and will take great pains in every detail pertaining to this feature of the fair.

Floral Department. Mrs. J. T. West, superintendent, in the place of Mrs. W. F. Mattison, who cannot serve, will show you all the attention possible in her department.

Art Department. Mrs. J. T. Rice is superintendent of this department and will be on hand bright and early Fair Day and will display the articles in her department to an advantage.

Baby Show. Mrs. C. G. Todd will have charge of all pretty babies, so bring them on and get the first prize for you know your baby should win the first honors.

NEWS FROM OUR SISTER CITY Newsy items of Interest From Friday's Belton Journal of Belton to any of the above town almost any time of the day. There are now 85 different trains and trolleys on which one may get into and out of Belton every day.

The Belton Mills, with 60,000 spindles, are among the most prosperous in the State, and it is at Belton Mills that the best operatives homes in the State are found.

Belton has the only turkish towel factory in the State—the Blair Mills.

Belton has four prosperous banks, representing more than a quarter of a million dollars.

For several years the famous Belton hotel, known as Hotel Geer, with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Geer as proprietors, has been and is now, the most popular hotel in the upper section of the State, and it is here that traveling men meet to spend their week-ends.

Belton has two splendid graded schools and handsome buildings for white children. Belton graded school number one has a high school department.

Prof. J. B. Watkins, an educator of State-wide reputation, is superintendent of this school.

Belton has four churches and as many schools, with large regular attendances.

Belton has four churches and as many Sunday schools, with large regular attendances.

Belton has automobile garages, ice plants, coca-cola bottling works, oil mills and cotton gin.

The town has a Civi League. This band of ladies are always doing something of a permanent nature for Belton and her people.

Belton Journal, together with its job plant department, is one of the best newspaper and job plants to be found in any medium sized town in the South.

It you are honest and energetic, Belton needs you; and if you want to succeed, you need Belton and its advantages.

PREACHING HERE NEXT SUNDAY. Rev. Edward S. Reeves, of the First Baptist church of Honea Path, will preach at the First Baptist church in Belton next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

CIVIC LEAGUE WILL FURNISH DINNER FAIR DAY. The ladies of the Civic League will serve dinner Fair Day, next Wednesday, October 21, in the building next door to the Belton Coca-Cola Bottling Works.

PRIZES OFFERED BY THE CIVIC LEAGUE. There are two prizes offered by the Belton Civic League to the people of Belton. The first prize will be $5.00 in cash for the best kept lawn.

The contest will begin this October and will run until next October, 1915.

DR. AND MRS. FRIERSON RETURNS. Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Frierson, who were married at the home of the bride in Greenville Thursday, October 1, spent ten days in the state of Florida, returning to Belton, their future home, last Monday morning.

Mrs. Frierson visited Jacksonville, Tampa and many other places of interest. They are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Breazeale on Brown avenue.

Belton to have a new highway to Anderson. Belton hopes in the near future to have a new road to Anderson. The proposed road will run between W. J. Moorhead and John A. Horton and on through the Rice, Stringer, D. A. Geer and J. N. Willingham property and will intersect the Anderson road at the Pepper place.

The first route would have struck the Poore property. This route, together with the changes already granted by the property owners at Broadway Creek, gives Anderson and Belton an ideal highway, a long felt need.

The proposed new route will not exceed a 4 per cent grade. A very bad piece of road just outside the city limits is responsible possible of the new route.

W. K. STRINGER A FARMER. W. K. Stringer, president of the Peoples Bank, of Belton, gathered at least ten tons of very fine hay on one of his farms near Belton. This hay is very good.

Mr. Stringer gathered 257 bushels of oats on this same piece of ground this summer, and will make plenty of corn this year.

He has one piece of brag crop and will have 100 bushels of corn seed for sale. This corn will retail at .53 per bushel.

REV. S. P. HAIR HERE. Rev. S. P. Hair, of Fort Mill, S. C., preached two able sermons at the First Baptist Church in Belton last Sunday, morning and evening.

Rev. Hair is an able speaker and had large congregations at both services. He made many friends while in Belton. He is well known throughout the State.

MEXICAN COIN MADE IN 1832. E. T. McMahan has a Mexican coin made in 1832. He had this piece of money with him in town Saturday. This coin is the size of an American silver dollar.

READ THE JOURNAL ADS. This week's Journal carries a number of illustrated cuts of views of business houses and dwellings of the beautiful little city of Belton.

We ask that you carefully read the many large and attractive ads in this issue. The merchants have many bargains to offer you and a careful study of the ads will enable you to buy what you need and save money.

This edition is Fair Day issue and we trust that you will appreciate the time and money it takes to issue a paper like this.

When you attend the fair next Wednesday call at the Journal office during the day and make yourselves at home. We will be pleased to show you through our office at any time. Read the Journal, every line, and especially the Dresses for the Fair. (We heartily agree with our friend, Cotton dresses on the day of the Belton Fair and every day for the next two years would create a greater demand for cotton goods.

Our ladies, if they will come together through the cotton states and buy and wear only cotton goods, we believe that the price of cotton will advance more rapidly. We promised the writer that we would make a request for the ladies to wear cotton dresses on the day of the fair, and we are glad that he called our attention to it through the Journal.

J. E. Allen, a prominent business man of Honea Path, and his little daughter, Helen, spent a short while in Belton Monday with his sister, Miss Bess Allen.

Misses Emma Vaughn and Alice Clement visited Mrs. H. T. Vermillion in Donalds Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Ballentine, who has spent several weeks in Belton, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Carphol, left Saturday to join her husband in Ki Mountain, which will be their future home.

Miss Sadie Kirkpatrick, of Anderson, spent the week-end with Mrs. Jessie B. Lewis, at her beautiful home Sunnyview, on River St.

Mrs. J. M. Mattison, of Seneca, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Freeman on River St.

Mrs. Mattison lived here for a number of years and is warmly welcomed back by her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oll Kay and Mrs. Pearl Lee spent Sunday in Hartwell, Ga. They motored over in Mr. Kay's machine.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Culbert and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. West and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Alice B. Lattimer.

INTERNATIONAL COTTON GOODS WEEK

In Anderson October 12th to 17th.

As our part of this Great Movement to assist the Farmers, Mill Employees and Mill Owners of the South, and especially of Anderson County, we are herewith naming prices on staple, seasonable cotton goods that should move a big lot this week.

PICK COTTON GOODS, WHILE THE PICKING'S GOOD!

COTTON BLANKETS 50c, 75c, $1.00 $1.25 and $1.50. CURTAIN SCRIM—Big assortment of new patterns, 12 1-2c values at 10c.

FLANNELETTE—Big line of Flannelette in all colors, suitable for ladies house dresses, 10c grade at 8 1-3c.

GALLATEA—All shades of Gallatea, for making children's dresses and boys' waists, 15c value at 12c.

APRON GINGHAMS—Big assortment of Staple patterns, 7c values at 5c. 10-4 SHEETING—Bleached and unbleached, 35c quality at 25c.

WHITE BED SPREADS—Exceptional values at 25c, $1.25, -1.50 and $2.00. STANDARD SHEETS—Already made, ready for use, 72x90 inches, 50c grade at 39c each.

MOHAWK SHEETS—Guaranteed Quality, 81x90 inches, 90c quality at 75c. PILLOW CASES—42 by 36 inches, 10c and 12 1-2c, good values.

POE MILLS BLEACHING—10c quality at 8 1-3c. BROGON MILLS OUTING—Made in Anderson County. Full line, dark and light patterns, 10c grades at 8 1-3c.

UNBLEACHED COTTON FLANNEL—8c, 10c and 12 1-2c. PERCALES—In an unending variety of colors and patterns, 12 1-2c values at 10c.

GINGHAMS—Big line of Fall Dress Gingham for Ladies' and Children's dresses, 10c value at 8 1-3c. UNDERVESTS AND DRAWERS—Ladies' vests and drawers, 25c and 50c, good values.

UNION SUITS—Ladies' Ribbed Union Suits, 48c each, Special. CHILDREN'S RIBBED VESTS—10c, good values.

And THOUSANDS of other values just as good as those that are advertised for National Cotton Goods Week. Come!

The Lesser Co.

Ligon, has returned to her home in Anderson.

Mrs. Rosamond Seawright and baby, of Anderson, are spending some time here.

Dr. H. R. Wells, of Anderson, was here several days this week on professional business.

Miss Francis Britt, of McCormick, is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Edna McGee.

Mrs. J. E. Brownlee, after spending a few days in Anderson with her sister, Mrs. Y. A. Wakefield has returned home.

Mr. C. S. Moore, of the circulation department of the Columbia State, was here a short while Thursday.

Mrs. Jennie Speer and Miss Nettie Kennedy, of Lowndesville, were visitors here for a few hours Tuesday.

Mrs. Jephtha F. Wilson and children, of Mt. Carmel, have returned home after a stay of several days here with relatives.

Mrs. Mac Beaty and children who have been spending several weeks in Mooreland, Ga., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Young have returned home.

Dr. R. G. Witherspoon, of the Roberts section was here one day this week on professional business.

Messrs. T. C. Liddell and Alvin Harper, of Lowndesville, were business visitors here Tuesday.

Rev. J. L. Singleton, of Starr, was visiting friends in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jackson attended the Seybt-Hill wedding Monday night in Anderson.

Dr. A. L. Smethers of Anderson, was here Wednesday on professional business.

Messrs. Henry and Harvey Jackson, of Storeville, were visitors here for a few hours Tuesday.

Mr. Tan Witherspoon, of the Roberts neighborhood, was here for a short while Tuesday.

An Unusual Opportunity The special departments of Anderson College can enroll a few more pupils, and the College invites the ladies of Anderson and vicinity to take advantage of this opportunity.

HARCOURT & CO. MANUFACTURING ENGRAVERS LOUISVILLE, K. U. S. A. THE ANDERSON INTELLIGENCER JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT EXCLUSIVE LOCAL AGENTS FOR THIS EXCLUSIVE LINE.